—FUNERAL OF MRS. SARAH CARR—The funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah Carr, who remains arrived home on Monday evening from Calgary, took place on Tuesday afternoon from the residence of her son, Mr. Villiers Carr at North St. Elcanors. There was a short service at the house followed by a public service at the United Church at Lot 16 which was very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Aitken officiated at both services. The pallbearers were Messrs Thomas Linkletter, Major Inman, William McGregor, Alfred Simpson, Horace Andrew and James McLean. Interment was in the Cemetery at Lot 16. Two sons and two daughters accompanied the remains home.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the homes of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce, Bothwell, P. E. I., on Friday evening, Nov. 28th, when Rev. H. R. Bell, united in marriage, their eldest daughter, Hazel Elizabeth Bruce to Clayton Charles Rose, son of the late Peter Rose, of East Baltic. The bride was becomingly attired in a green para-crepe ensemble, with contrasting color. She was attended by her sister, Miss Bessie Bruce, who wore a most elegant blue flat crepe dress with accessories to match. Charles Ching of Red Point supported the groom. Mrs. Seeton McLean, Kingsboro, played the wedding march. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served. The happy and popular couple will reside at East Baltic.

—SUPREME COURT AT SUMMERSIDE—The Supreme Court at Summerside on Tuesday was taken up with hearing the evidence of witnesses in the Hallett vs Central Creameries case. The case for the plaintiff was closed at noon. In the afternoon the case for the defendant was opened. Several witnesses were examined the most important witness being Mr. Simmons, manager of the Central Creameries. The cross examination of this witness had not taken place when the Court rose at 5 o'clock.—S.

—ANNUAL MEETING OF SUMMERSIDE CURLING CLUB—The annual meeting of the Summerside Curling Club was held in the Curling rink on Tuesday evening. The reports of the various committees were received and were very encouraging. A hearty welcome was extended to Mr. James H. Pritchard, who always took a great interest in the curling club and who recently returned from Russia. The club is looking forward to a better season than ever this year. The officers for the coming year were elected as follows:—Hon. Pres., Mr. Justice A. C. Saunders; Pres., Mr. A. E. Harris; Vice Pres., Mr. James H. Pritchard; Secy. Treas., Mr. H. T. Begg. The meeting was adjourned until Friday evening when the remainder of the business will be attended to, followed by a card party. S.

—CHILDREN'S AID MEETING—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Management of the Children's Aid Society was held in the Town Hall Summerside, on Tuesday evening. Dr. J. A. McPhee presided. The agents report showed that there was only one truant last month who was giving him any trouble. There were no cases before the Juvenile Court during the past month. A resolution of condolence was passed conveying to the widow and family of the late Mr. George B. McNutt the sincere sympathy of the Society, in their sad bereavement. The late Mr. McNutt had been first vice president of the Children's Aid Society for the past two years. Mr. McNutt had also been the agent and truant officer of the Society since its organization in Prince County, and acted very capably and efficiently in that capacity for some years. The annual meeting was adjourned until the second Tuesday in January.—S.

—LADIES CLOTH COATS. FUR trimmed, new models in season's newest materials attractively priced at Sinclairs. 9797-12-10-21

—SATISFACTORY CONDITIONS —Mr. Charles S. Ross, carman at Summerside railway station, is pleased to announce that, since the appointment of Chief of Police Kane as C. N. R. policeman for the railway station and yard, he is having no trouble with loiterers, in the railway coaches at night, leaving open the doors and sleeping in the coaches. This is a very satisfactory condition and credit is due to the Chief of Police in the manner in which he has taken hold of this nuisance which had become a menace to railway property.

—SUPPER AND SALE—The sale of fancy work and the supper put on by the Salvation Army officers at Summerside on Tuesday proved a great success. Many who were present stated that it was the most successful tea they had known for some years in the Army Hall. The tea tables were very gay with pink and white decorations and the dainty viands served by the ladies were heartily enjoyed by the large number of business people and others who came in for supper. On Wednesday tea was served to the children and a handsome sum was realized on both occasions.—S.

—PERSONALS —It was a pleasure to see Ven. Archdeacon White, D. D., rector of St. Mary's Church, Summerside, out driving on Tuesday and receiving the congratulations of his friends upon his recovery. The Archdeacon has been confined to his home for some weeks through illness.—S.

—BOUGHT FARM—Mr. James Lowe, Quincy, Mass., sold all his land property here in Grandview to A. L. Bruce, of Bay City, Michigan, who is now here, and with the assistance of Mr. Lowe, is establishing himself here on the Lowe farm, and also in the legal transfer of some wooded property, in which the disputed boundaries were amicably settled last week by Surveyor McDonald, of Hermanville.

—WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Paul's Church, Sturgeon, on Nov. 19th, when Miss Catherine Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Hughes of St. Mary's Road, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Bernard Callaghan, son of Mr. John Callaghan of Fort Augustus. Rev. G. V. McCabe, P. P., and cousin of the groom, performed the ceremony. The bride looked charming in a blue crepe dress with hat to match. She was attended by her sister Miss Grace Hughes, who wore a light blue crepe de chine dress with hat to match. Mr. Cyril Gallant supported the groom. After the ceremony the wedding party motored to the home of the bride's parents where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. Among those present was Rev. G. V. McCabe. The party afterwards went on a short motor trip and on their return in the evening were met by a large crowd of guests and a very pleasant evening was spent in music and dancing until the wee small hours of the morning when all returned to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Callaghan many years of happy wedded life. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts and cheques. (Patriot please copy).

—PERSONALS —Mr. and Mrs. A. Martin, J. A. McDonald (Surveyor), Hermanville, and Angus L. Bruce, Bay City, Michigan, (who is locating here) motored to Montague on Wednesday.

—PERSONALS —There are some people who never get anywhere in this world except on sucker lists.

Evening 1930

The Brilliancy of Formal Hours

SLIM silhouettes of even hemline are important. Demure, dignified or dashing, new versions of the "camisole" and "Bertha" neckline high-lighted. Glimmering panne satins and velvets are exceptionally smart, and there's a goodly amount of beading, sequins and metal embroidery.

Holman's Latest Toyland News

is — Santa Claus will arrive here Thursday morning and meet the small Kiddies accompanied by their parents in Holman's Toyland, Charlottetown, from 11 to 12 o'clock and the School Children from 3 to 4 o'clock. He had a very difficult time getting through. With snow so scarce he had to abandon his Reindeer and sleighs and finish the journey by train. He was very glad to hear that Holman's had the toys all ready and wants to meet the Kiddies Thursday.

TOYLAND IS KIDDIES JOYLAND

Holman's Toyland is the kiddies Joyland. These are wonderful days for the Kiddies, how their faces brighten at the sight of thousands of toys as they enter Toyland. Then Thursday there's the big attraction of Santa Claus' visit—won't that be wonderful. You grown up folk know something of disappointments—well the Kiddies mind it even more. We are trying to get the message of Santa Claus across so the Kiddies at least won't be disappointed Christmas morning.

Come then any time and bring the Children to Toyland you'll both have a good time.
