EXTENDED CALL—At a large congregational meeting of Trinity United Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening an unanimous call was extended to Rev. J. W. Bartlett of Windsor N. S.—S.

BEDEQUE UNITED CHARGE, Rev. A. J. Reynolds, Minister, Sunday, May 24th: Bedeque, 11 a. m.; Cape Traverse, 3 p. m.; Searletown, 7.30 p. m. Dr. J. E. Saint will be the preacher for the day.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE—Miss Irene Allen, little eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen of Summerside, had a miraculous escape from instant death on Thursday evening. The little girl had alighted from a car outside a house on Eustace Street near her own home and stepped off the side walk to run across the street. As she ran behind the car she was struck by a car coming down the street. The bumper caught her and she was lifted up on to it, her head striking the radiator. The little girl had the presence of mind to hold on to the number plate which saved her from falling under the car. The driver stopped the car instantly and took the little girl home. He says the child ran from behind the other car just as he was passing. Except for some nasty cuts and bruises and suffering a little from shock the little girl is none the worse for the terrible experience. No blame was attached to the driver, who did all he could to avert the accident. S.

GOLFEE'S ALPHABET MAY PROVE HELPFUL

A is for alibi, which we insist is a thing without which golf simply couldn't exist. B stands for boob and for brassie and ball. And later for bunker—the end of them all. C is for caddy, who carries the clubs. And cheers for the experts and sneers for the dubs. D is the duffer, with gall in his cup. Who does not play golf, but can't give it up. E is excitement, which harries the soul. When the match is all square at the seventeenth hole. F is the fairway that seldom we see. Except in the view we obtain from the tee. G stands for grip and the green where we strive. To use but two putts, though we mostly take five. H stands for hazard and likewise for hook. Which is what may impel us to fish in the brook. I is the iron. With hardly a tax on the strength, it will cut a ball clean as an ax. J is the jigger and jungle, where it will deposit the ball, if you slice it a bit. K stands for kickers and knickers and such. And we sometimes have thought that it stands for too much. L is asserted, by golfers demented. To stand for the land where the game was invented. M is the mashie, with which you can pitch. Clear over the green and well into the ditch. N is the niblick, a club we commend. Since it always is ready to rescue a friend. O is the osecous matter one thinks must be under the caps of the dubs on the links. P stands for putter, and also the pro. Who's ready to teach you how little you know. Q is for quality, something which you, Through long years of your life, hope perhaps you may do, R reads for rules, by which robbers may rook. The resourceless poor sap who has not learned his book. S is for stance, and the snail who will stand. For an hour by the ball, with a club in his hand. T is the trap, just a cave in the loam. Which the troglodyte golfer adopts at his home. U is the uhlan, who cannot keep still. But undulates round while you're putting the pill. V is the victim we think we can 'take. Too often that thought is a costly mistake. W's the wallop we take at the ball. To drive it where bushes and grasses are tall. X is the mark we set down on the score. When we pick up the ball, after ten shots or more. Y is the yell we emit from afar. When a shot from the rough bounces in for a par. Z is for zany: We think on and off. That most truly it stands for the guy who plays golf.
