A correspondent in writing to The Guardian says. The much needed platform at Bradalbane station is at last completed and adds very much to the appearance of the station. It is of concrete and is about 180 feet long. It took twenty car loads of stone sand in its construction and cost about one thousand dollars. It is the first of its kind on the road and if it will stand the effects of sun, rain and frost it would be a big improvement to the wooden platforms all along the P. E. I. Railway. Trade has very much increased at this station and Mr. Campbell is kept very busy and it would seem as if he should have an assistant in the near future, so that requirements of the travelling public should be conveniently met. At this depot mails came from north and south also passengers for the hotels and for Pleasant View, Hampton. All these combine to make considerable work for the agent.

The following is taken from a Winnipeg exchange:—After the league service Monday evening, the boys of the Stacksley House, together with some league friends, proceeded to the home of W. H. and Mrs. Weeks, on George avenue, Winnipeg, where they gave them a pleasant surprise in the form of a linen shower from the ladies and a "tin shower" from the young men. Without ceremony the "boys" trooped to the kitchen where the box of tinware was dumped on the floor, around which they formed a circle and sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow". Although the young couple were completely taken by surprise, the groom, however, gathered himself together sufficiently to make a short speech in which he thanked on behalf of himself and wife, his old friends and workers in the church for their kindness. The balance of the evening was spent in a social way most pleasantly. The young couple above referred to are both from this Province, Mrs. Weeks being a daughter of Samuel Drake, Cornwall and Mr. Weeks a native of Fredericton.

The funeral of the late W. S. Boundy took place on Thursday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law A. T. Dollar West Royalty and was largely attended. The body was laid to rest in the Winsloe South Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Fred C. Brenton, Ernest and Andrew E. sons of Thomas Dollar. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. F. Slackford and Rev. J. M. Rice. The deceased was a general favorite with the young people He took great pleasure when health permitted in Sunday school work, and was always anxious and willing to entertain and instruct those of tender years. He was a faithful adherent of the Methodist Church and was ever ready and willing to assist in advancing the cause of true religion. The affliction which he endured for 20 years was borne with the greatest patience. In all that long period he was never known to utter a word of complaint and as the end approached and the struggle severe he never lost confidence in his Heavenly Father, but passed away triumphantly upheld in the arms of a loving Saviour.
