"THE PRICE SHE PAID."—Yesterday Clara Kimball Young, that beautiful and accomplished screen star was seen in a dramatization of David Graham Phillips' great novel "The Price She Paid." This is the story of a girl who, through ambition and desire for social prominence, was led to marry against the dictates of her truer self, the story is told in a way to "hold children from play and old men from the chimney corner" and is one of the greatest film successes of that wonderful interpreter of dramatic roles, Clara Kimball Young. It is a play for all to see and all may profit by it. It will be repeated this afternoon and twice tonight at the Prince Edward Theatre.

For 15 days in the month of January I was suffering with pain of rheumatism in the foot. I tried all kinds of remedies but nothing did me any good. One person told me about BURNARD'S LINIMENT; as soon as I tried it the Saturday night, the next morning I was feeling very good. I told you this remedy is very good; I could give you a good certificate any time that you would like to have one. If any time I come to hear about any person sick of rheumatism, I could tell them about this remedy. Yours truly, ERNEST LEVY, 216 Rue Ontario East, Montreal, Feb. 14, 1908.

The Man Who Has Foresight Will Buy His Overcoat AT ONCE

Splendid Garments, Carefully Tailored of Superior Materials $15 to $35.

WE do not want to frighten our customers to make purchases immediately. We do not want them to feel that if they buy now, they are being forced into it by unnecessary warnings regarding the future. However, it is nevertheless a fact, that it is a difficult matter to secure the kind of merchandise most people have been accustomed to. It is still a difficult matter to secure as large a showing as has been possible in past seasons. We do not want to tell you that it will be impossible to secure such and such later on, but we say most emphatically, that if present conditions continue, and candidly, we cannot see a change for a considerable length of time, not only must goods be higher, but there will positively be a scarcity. The man with foresight, will buy his Overcoat IMMEDIATELY. He will not wait until he actually needs it. If you will take our advice, you will buy while your size can be had in the garment you most prefer.
