Yesterday the remains of the late Chester McKay, formerly of New London, who died in Winnipeg, were brought to Georgetown on the Minto and will be forwarded this morning to his former home for interment.

Charles A. McDonald, son of Captain Augustine of Vancouver, Wash., is studying languages in St. Dunstan's College, Charlottetown, P. E. I.—Says the Oakland Maple Leaf: Mr. McDonald was for several years in the teaching profession in California, was for two years in the Oregon legislature and for a year in Washington, D. C. He enjoyed life in the Island Province and makes excursions to various parts of the country where friends reside. Charles McDonald of Tracadie is an uncle and he is not forgotten in his nephew's visits.

The program at Keith and Proctor's theatre for the week of Feb. 23th, was crowded with pleasure and fun abounded throughout the old and young, the children being especially delighted with Howard's musical ponies and wonderful dogs. They did everything but talk. The liputian wonders were the Royal Colibri and for comic art were unexcelled. Hal Merritt was a clever caricaturist and the Guardian's representatives were completely carried away with enthusiasm over the entire program. The musical absurdity of a Stormy Finish, by Jack Connelly and Margaret Webb, was well executed and they were followed by Frank J. Conroy and George Le Maire in a sparkling black face comedy. Frank Keenan gave a clever one act sketch of New York life entitled Man to Man, which was very real. The daylight moving pictures and the music throughout were splendid.

The death of J. Frederick Thoms, of this city, occurred at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Howard Butler, Dorchester, Mass., last Tuesday afternoon. The deceased, who was a prominent member of the Marine Engineer's Society, was well known not only in this city but throughout the province. He was very popular along the coast and his many friends will regret to hear of his death. He was born in Devonshire, Eng. He spent considerable time in Charlottetown, P. E. I., before coming to this city. He is survived by five sons and four daughters. The sons are: Frederick, architect, Portland, Me.; Percy, second engineer, Metropolitan S. S. Co., Boston; Vernon, Walter and D. Ullah at home. Mrs. Ernest Thompson, East Boston; Mrs. Howard Butler, Dorchester, Mass.; Miss Beatrice, Boston; Miss Daisy, residing at home, and the daughters. The deceased was a member of Court Loyalist, I. O. F. His remains will be brought to the city by the Boston express at noon.—St. John Telegraph.
