Annual Meeting Marshfield - Dunstaffnage United Church

The congregation of the Marshfield-Dunstaffnage United Church are to be congratulated on the achievements of the past nine months as shown by the report given by the various officers and committees at their annual meeting which was held in their splendid new edifice on January 27th. The church and horse-shed adjoining were erected at a cost of between five and six thousand dollars, all of which has been subscribed, so that the property is now absolutely free of debt. The hearty thanks of the congregation were tendered the building committee and finance committee for the faithful and energetic manner in which they had performed their duties, also to Rev. F. E. Boothroyd, who as chairman of the various committees and as minister of the congregation, has to bring this charge to such a high standard.

The Secretary Treasurer's report showed also that notwithstanding the heavy burden placed on the people by erecting a new church the ordinary finances were also in a very satisfactory condition, all obligations having been met and the accounts showing a credit balance.

Very encouraging reports were read from the W. M. S. and Y.P.S. These two bodies are doing splendid work. The retiring Board of stewards and ushers were reappointed for next year also the Secretary Treasurer, organist and assistants. It was decided to reopen the Sunday School on May 6th. A large attendance is looked for, as this is beyond doubt one of the most important sphere of the church's work. The Session was deputed to take the initial steps towards naming the Church.

The pastor in his remarks expressed his admiration at the way in which all the people of this charge had worked together, so loyally and unselfishly to erect this beautiful place of worship, but also warned the congregation against neglecting, in the midst of material success, the need of the spiritual and in closing requested the personal spiritual co-operation of the whole congregation.

Just before the close of the meeting, a nicely upholstered armchair was presented to Rev. F. E. Boothroyd as a slight token of esteem from the congregation. Several members spoke in glowing terms of the great work accomplished by the Reverend gentleman both spiritually and materially especially in this part of the field. It can truthfully be said that Mr. Boothroyd was and is the right man in the right place. The pastor after replying with much feeling to the presentation closed the meeting with prayer and Benediction.

Cornwall Items

The Young People's Group of Cornwall United Church are busy practising their play "Safety First" which they hope to present in the near future.

Mrs. John Howatt, Tryon is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Gordon MacMillan, Cornwall.

The many friends of Mr. William Boyle, Meadowbank are sorry to hear of his illness but hope for his speedy recovery.

Miss Laura Crosby, teacher, Pownal school spent the week end at her home, Meadowbank. She was a welcome vicitor at Cornwall rink.

Cornwall rink is in full swing with excellent ice and good music. Leonard McDonald's lunch counter is well patronized.

Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday are the regular skating nights and many of our city friends have enjoyed a good sleigh drive to Cornwall rink, also skate with their country cousins.

The semi-annual school examination of Cornwall school took place Friday the third with a number of interested parents in attendance. The work of the half year was reviewed by the teacher, Miss Grace Douglas assisted by (Rev.) E. M. Aitken and John E. Heartz. The ready answers of the pupils reflected credit on the careful instruction of their teacher. After apples and candy had been distributed, God Save the King brought the meeting to a close.

The Public Forum

This column is open for the discussion by correspondents of questions of interest. The Charlottetown Guardian does not necessarily endorse the opinions of correspondents.

DIVORCE

Sir,—It is very pleasing to note that Senator Hughes, in his place in Parliament, recently, as your Ottawa correspondent reports, "railed" against divorce. The increase of divorce is a scandal in this Christian country. I am glad that there is none of it in P. E. Island. No doubt the Senators are tired of the disgusting evidence upon which those who wish to be divorced rely, but Parliament should not make divorce easy to obtain in the courts.

By the way, I see that the Senate has adjourned until the middle of March. Meantime the people have to supply the full amount of the Senatorial allowance $4,000 a year.

ENCOURAGING RESIDENTS

Sir,—It seems to me that the policy of our new City Council should be to create conditions conducive to an increase of taxpaying population, rather than higher taxation. We ought to be able to support a few more factories of one kind and another, the owners, superintendents and assistants of which would be contributors to the civic exchequer; and we ought, I think, to encourage men and women who have incomes, however small, to come here and spend their money among us. Our merchants and marketers should help in this direction by buying wholesale from local producers and making their prices as low as they can. Consistently with reasonable profits; and we should all hold out the glad hand of hospitality to the new comer. Situate close to the source of supply for all the chief necessities of life, Charlottetown should be known a cheap place in which to live comfortably. We have from nature much that is attractive to persons who can afford to pay taxes and help to maintain the business of our community. It should be the policy of councillors and citizens alike to encourage those who have the means of living to come and live with us.

THE PROPER SPIRIT

Sir,—A proper spirit is being exhibited by those candidates for civic election who did not receive enough votes. By means of the Guardian. They express their thanks to the electors who voted for them, and declare their continued interest in civic affairs, although they will not have the honor of sitting at the Council Board. No doubt the Councillors elect will be all the more careful of civic interests in view of the attitude of the candidates who were not elected. At any rate it is to be hoped that the civic business will, in the next two years, be well conducted. We all want to see Charlottetown one of the best governed and most comfortable and beautiful towns in Canada. At the same time we all hope that there will be no increase of civic taxation. In view of the keen competition of citizens in every line of business and the prospect of still more competition, higher taxation cannot be endured. Its up to the Mayor and City Councillors, together with our Sewerage and Water Commissioners, to be enterprising and at the same time economical.

TRUE TEMPERANCE

Sir,—That the Conservative Party has all along supported temperance and temperance legislation is true. That the Conservative Party is now in favor of "Greater Temperance"—I use the phrase of Ex-Premier Stewart—is also true. The statement of those who try to make the public believe that the Conservative Party is now against temperance is consequently a lie.

It is not necessary, just now, to defend the Conservatives; for, as the result of a lying campaign they are out of office. The Liberals, in office, are now to be defended. They cannot be successfully defended by means of attacks upon the Conservative Party. They promised to improve the situation as to temperance, to lessen bootlegging and drunkenness by means of the Prohibitory Liquor Law; and they have not done so. There has been a change in the personel of the Prohibition Commission and they have taken the vendorship away from Mr. Maddigan and given it to Mr. McNevin who has established his headquarters in the premises of Mr. L. P. Tanton. But they have not stopped the sale of liquor, by bootleggers. They have not prevented drunkenness. They have not convened the Legislature to that end. They have not done away the Liquor Evil, or made a reasonable effort to do so. They have practically done nothing so far,—if the giving of positions to those Liberals who thirsted for office is excepted. They have not even tried to excuse their failure to do that which they promised to do. Their only recourse has been the calling of names by means of their chief organ.

U. S. UNDER PROHIBITION

RIDICULE OF PROHIBITION PROHIBITED

The Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals scores a triumph in Lynn, (Mass.) as revealed by the celebrated Boston Transcript:

"Mayor Ralph S. Bauer of Lynn today announced that he will not permit any vaudeville act or any theater entertainment which makes light of the Volstead Act or of any other State or Federal regulation. The announcement was made as the result of complaint of a skit at a Lynn theater entitled "Senator Murphy" in which fun was poked at the Prohibition laws. The management complied with a request from the mayor's office that the act be withdrawn."

MINISTER TURNED MOONSHINER

News of the sacerdotal life in Nashville, Tennessee, as reported by the illustratious Tennessean:

"Unable to provide for his family on the funds he received from preaching the Gospel, Morgan Hayes, who claims to be a Baptist minister from the Jingo vicinity, in Williamson county, took up the profession of making white corn whisky, he told Federal officers late Friday, who arrested him with two others in a raid on a wildcat still.

"I have been a preacher for several years but it does not pay, and for that reason I started making whisky", Hayes told the officers. "My family could not live on the money I received as a minister of the Gospel."

LEGION WRATHY

Law Enforcement note from the eminent Montgomery (Alabama) Journal:

"Incensed at the action of the State enforcement officers who seized and destroyed about 400 bottles of beer and also broke up a craps game at their annual barbecue on the Narrow Lane road, members of the Montgomery Post of the American Legion, are to hold a special meeting to determine whether a protest shall be made to Governor W. W. Brandon, according to Bert Fitzpatrick, post commander. The legionnaires feel they were unjustly discriminated against because of the action of the dry agents, they say."

MEN MORALISTS' MERCY

Southern chivalry in Jacksonville, (Fla.) as described in an Associated Press dispatch:

"Local police today were investigating the tarring and feathering of two young women by a mob of 150 men here Saturday night. The women were taken to a secluded spot, police said, where tar and feathers were applied, then brought back to the city and released on a downtown street clad only in gunny sacks."

SOMETHING LIKE AN ELECTION CARD

Campaign circular of the Hon. George Bright, candidate for constable in Knox county, (Kentucky:

"George Bright has not been indicted for stealing chickens; he has not been indicted for tying his horse on the railroad track to obtain money under false pretenses; he has not been indicted for being out with street or woods women; he has not been indicted for selling whiskey; he has never been in jail; nor has my father had to go crazy and to the asylum to keep me from the penitentiary.

"I have never asked my opponent to join the K.K.K. and help me run the Negroes out of their homes, so we could get us some homes give to us. I have never run around telling lies, and I have never stolen Mrs. Grindstaff's cow.

"So, men and women, don't vote for my opponent. He is not fit to be in jail, much less in office.

"I am not like my opponent. I have a good character and every day I am the same man. So give me a vote. I am the people's friend."

GEORGE BRIGHT.

SENTENCED TO MINE SLAVERY

Law Enforcement note from the Alabama back country in the Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer-Sun:

"The other day a man eighty-four years of age was tried, convicted and sentenced to serve six months in the coal mines at Welger, near Birmingham, and in addition, fined $500, for violating the Prohibition law in Hale county. This old man was a Confederate soldier, having served under General Joseph E. Johnston."

K. K. K. PROHIBITIONISTS

Another from the Birmingham, (Ala.) correspondent of the New York World:

"The Ku Klux Klan set out today to close all Chinese restaurants in this city. Its campaign evidently has the full approval of law enforcement officials. Search-warrants for liquor were issued [illegible] the Court of Misdemeanors to [illegible] W. Israel, Cyclops of the Klan. Twenty robed Kluxers swooped down on three Chinese places. Fifty diners were searched and the raids netted a small flask of whiskey taken from the hip pocket of a college student. The raiders carried pistols. Their spokesman, also in full regalia of the Klan, served the warrants on the Chinese proprietors. As he and his men searched the diners he told them: "Finish your meals and get out and stop patronizing these Chink joints unless you are looking for serious trouble. There are plenty of good 100 per cent American cafes in town."

ROCK-CRUSHER FOR CASES

Law Enforcement note from the eminent New York Times:

[illegible] pg(ypY :Qib-ru shrdlu cmfwy

"The destruction of seized liquor has taken the proportions of a serious business, necessitating consideration of costs, according to Captain Frederick E. Kerby, of the Customs Service. 'Application has been made to the Prohibition department for a rock-crusher as a mechanical means of saving time and labor. With three assistants and fifteen laborers, Captain Kerby said he had never been able to destroy more than 850 cases of whiskey or 10,000 bottles of beer a day, whereas with a rock-crusher he could destroy at least 1,000 cases of liquor a day at a cost of only 4 cents a case. Throwing the bottles make the men's arms too stiff for effective work the following day. To try to destroy champagne with a hammer is like handling hand grenades. A lot of the bottled beer also explodes with the accompanying casualties."

HOCKEY

One of the best games of hockey of the season was witnessed on Cape Traverse rink on Monday the 6th. inst. when the Victoria "Unions" endeavoured to keep pace with the "Cape Greyhounds", and take it from me it was some pace. Starting at a breakneck speed it became faster as the game progressed and the result was in doubt until the final gong when the "Unions" emerged victors by the final score of 3—0.

Previously these teams had battled to a 3—3 score on Victoria rink, and all looked forward to an exciting return game when they expected to see the "Unions" pushed to the limit, of which they are capable, if not defeated.

To pick outstanding players of either team would be an injustice as all worked their very best, although special mention might be made of both goalies who had a busy night and found difficulty in keeping back the sharpshooting of the Howatt Bros. and "Doug" of the "Greyhounds" and "Snider" McQuarrie and Lea of the "Unions". The special feature of both teams was their backchecking which saved many a score and no doubt won the game for the "Unions", whom we think excelled in this department. There is no doubt that both forward lines skated like fiends, and if you don't believe me go and see the next game on Monday the 13th. inst., in Victoria rink when we can assure you of a game packed full of thrills which will keep your hands and feet warm for the full sixty minutes. These two teams are evenly matched and will provide exciting hockey at every encounter, the outcome of which will keep you guessing until the final gong.

The following is the score by periods and the lineup:

1st. period—No score.
2nd. period—"Unions"—"Snider" "Unions"—"Snider"
3rd. period—"Unions"—C. Lea

Lineup:

Greyhounds		Unions
Goal
G. Waddell		W. McLeod
Defence
Mulligan		C. Lea
Bell		W. Howatt
Forwards
Clint Howatt		W. McQuarrie
Claude Howatt		"Snider" Millar
Brent Clarke		S. Stewart
		D. McLeod
V. Webster		C. Lea

Kinross.—The meeting was postponed due to the inclemency of the weather. It was held on Tuesday the 13th, at the home of Mrs. S. Hume. Ten members were present. Twelve members were willing to take the Institute paper quarterly. Six dollars was voted to buy a map for U'gg school. Miss Margaret Campbell and Miss Ada Music were appointed to arrange and deliver the Christmas boxes for the sick in the community. Arrangements were made for a concert and weighing party to be held in the Orange Hall.
