DEADLOCK CONTINUES.

OTTAWA, March 12—After the most disorderly night that the deadlock has yet produced, during which desks were banged and speakers interrupted, the Naval debate today approached its two hundredth hour, with little apparent hope for a break. It was thought likely that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will soon return to the House. He has been laid up since Monday with an attack of influenza, but is recuperating. During last night the Opposition was under the leadership of F. B. Carvell, while Rogers headed the government forces.

Peaceful, quiet separation, no damage done, everybody happy again—that's the situation when you divorce your corns with Putnam's Corn Extractor. Acts like magic—don't use any but "Putnam's"—it's the best, 25c. at all dealers.

DAILY SELECTIONS FOR GUARDIAN READERS

"I'M SURE I SHALL NOT PASS AGAIN THIS WAY." I want to give good measure running o'er, And into angry hearts I want to pour.
 The bread that giveth strength I want to give;
 The water pure that bids the thirsty live;
 I want to help the fainting day by day;
 I'm sure I shall not pass again this way.
 I want to give to others hope and faith;
 I want to do all that the Master saith;
 I want to live right from day to day;
 I'm sure I shall not pass again this way.
 The faith to conquer crowding doubts and fears,
 Beauty for ashes may I give away;
 I'm sure I shall not pass again this way.
