THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

Miss Charlotte Pickard, West Royalty, is visiting in Charlottetown the guest of Mrs Ernest Toombs.

Owing to the death of the late Mrs James Stewart, Paton & Co's big fall millinery opening to have been held tonight, has been postponed until Friday evening.

Mrs F. F. Duffy who has been visiting in Richmond, the guest of John P. and Mrs Larkin, has returned to her home in Chatham, N. B.

The marriage of Miss Marie Teresa Larkin, daughter of John R. Larkin, Richmond, to Hugh B. Gillis, M.E., of Sydney, C. B., will take place on Tuesday, Oct. 11th.

C. P. Larned and family who have spent the summer at their beautiful cottage at Keppoch leave tomorrow for their home in Detroit. They look forward with pleasure to their return to this Province next summer.

Rev. Ewen McDougall will preach Sabbath 9th at Kinross at 10.30. Milivick at 2.30 and Birch Hill at 6.30. Also Point Prim on Tuesday 11th, Belle River on Wednesday 12th, and Pleasant Valley on Friday 14th at seven p. m.

Yesterday C. P. Larned, of Detroit, who is summering at Keppoch, kindly presented The Guardian with a small box of large delicious raspberries which he picked from his garden, an unusual thing at this season of the year. The raspberries were beauties and were greatly enjoyed.

The following is clipped from the Amherst News: A very pretty wedding took place in St. Stephen's Church on Tuesday morning, Sept. 20th, when Miss Mac Marchant was united in marriage to Johnson Clark, both of our town. The bride was becomingly gowned in a travelling suit of green with hat to match. Both bride and groom were attended. They left on the Ocean Limited for Charlottetown, P. E. I., to spend a few weeks visiting friends. Mr and Mrs Clark are both very favorably known in Amherst and their many friends join heartily in extending to them best wishes for future success and happiness.

The Guardian's representative to Keith's Theatre, Boston, for week of Sept. 26, writes most entertainingly of the program. The work of the Lariat throwing was most mystifying and the way the ropes are handled was simply wonderful. The comedians were all good and many of their jokes were intensely funny. McIntyre and Heath, the famous black-face comedians, received a hearty welcome. The two men, who have been a star pair in "The Haverhill" have in "The Georgia Minstrel" a skit that grows old. Perhaps the secret is that it does not depend upon any plot for its attraction, but on a play of features and faces, as the two skinned comedians discuss alternately that "lively stable job" and the parts of the "The Haverhill" which might surely fit. Its fun is of the clean kind and its execution a marvel. The very appearance of Jack McKev, the Scottish comedian, upon the stage caused a laugh and his voice and the twist of his eyes were most engaging. He carried away the audience by his songs and his selections upon the "Saxophone." Another big feature was the spectacular musical comedy, "Joyland," presented by Clara Belle Jensen and her company, including the eight "dancing toodies." It has all the beauties and brightness of the musical comedy on the legitimate stage, including catchy songs and pretty dances—all condensed to make it short enough for vaudeville. The "toodies" in "The Animated Comedians," "The Joyous," and "The Frolicsome Frogs," fairly captivated the large audience. Ballerina's trained dogs were a most pleasing feature. John W. Sherman's "Enchantment" and its illusive living pictures, shifting from one to another, brought rounds of applause, especially the closing picture, where the vision of St. Catherine appears to "John of Arc," and then disappears. The Otto Brothers, who are great Boston favorites, got a great hand in their German comedian act and the whole program was good.

The October Canadian Courier contains a pithy article from the pen of Roden Kingsmith on the Canadian Colleges. The article is illustrated and contains photos of Pres Forrest of Dalhousie, Pres Falconer of the University of Toronto, Dean J. C. There peacefully passed away on the 2nd day of October 1910, at her home in Grand View, Rachel MacKenzie, beloved wife of Angus D. Finlayson, in the 60th year of her age. Although she had been in failing health for the past few months her death came as a shock to her many friends. She was a lovable wife and kind mother, and will be much missed in the family circle. She leaves to mourn two daughters and five sons. Alexander, located in the West; Daniel, Duncan, and Elsie in Boston; Gordon in Charlottetown, and Allen and Babette at home. Three sisters and four brothers survive her, Allan and Donald in New Zealand; John, Ronald and Mrs Archibald McDougall in Bellevue; Mrs Annie Cheek in Boston and Mrs John Allen in Charlottetown.

The Hunter River auxiliary of the W. F. & H. M. S. held their annual meeting on the evening of Sept. 23rd. Although it had but a small membership, a very flourishing report of the year's work was read. The Millar Mission band, in connection with it, completed and sent away a large number of garments besides giving very liberally to mission work. To increase the funds, a very successful lawn party was held lately on the church grounds. A most enjoyable time was spent, and a snug little sum realized. With such encouragement from the past, the outlook for the future is very bright. The officers for 1910-11 are, Pres. Mrs Geo D. McLeod; Vice Pres.—Mrs S. Brown; Secty & Treas.—Mrs D. M. McLeod.
