..SCHOOL CLOSING.—The semi-annual examination of Monticello School was held in the school room Thursday, June 28th. The children were examined by their teacher, Miss Laura McKinnon, assisted by Miss Bertha McDonald, and showed by their prompt and correct answers the careful and skillful teaching which they received. An interesting feature was the physical drill by the entire school under the leadership of their teacher. After the examination the pupils entertained the visitors with a short programme which was well carried out. The visitors were then treated with candy, by the teacher and pupils. The ratepayers expressed themselves as extremely sorry that Miss McKinnon is about to sever her connection with the school. The meeting was closed by a few well-chosen remarks by the secretary, Mr. Daniel D. McDonald. Then all dispersed to their homes feeling that a very interesting and enjoyable time was spent.

..TOWN IMPROVEMENTS.—Quite a number of the principal buildings of Georgetown have been newly painted this summer. These include Mr. W. W. Jenkins' store and residence, Mr. Russel McLean's store, and the residences of Messrs. Daniel Skinner and Ben Stewart, Water street. The work was done by Messrs. W. Batchelder and Mr. O'Brien and reflects much credit on their artistic skill, besides adding greatly to the appearance of the town.

..GYPSIES VISIT GEORGETOWN—A number of Gypsies, including men, women and children, paid a visit to Georgetown last week. The wanderers, who were a rather ill-looking lot, travelled in two large covered wagons, each drawn by a pair of spirited horses, besides which they had one or two spare horses, evidently for the purpose of trading. Among the females of the party was a gaudily dressed "seeress" or fortune teller, who told fortunes so much "per palm." The Gypsies took up their quarters on the Exhibition grounds, where they lighted fires and prepared a meal, which they ate in primitive fashion, sitting cross-legged on the ground. They evidently intended to make a protracted stay but on being warned by the authorities to move on they departed for "fresh fields and pastures new," much to the regret of the juvenile portion of the community.

LINCOLN TOOK

the Bible as his model in thought, word, and deed. He builded his greatness upon it as upon a rock. He knew it by heart. There is no book like it in the world as a foundation for mental and moral power.

The Charlottetown Guardian Calls attention to the fact that nothing before in Bible distribution has ever equalled the tremendous tide of coupon-holders now asking for the BIG PRINT RED LETTER BIBLE!

The Making of the Bible

It took the Bible two thousand years to grow. As it is the greatest work known to man—so it took immeasurably the longest time to build. It is rooted in many bibles—lost—forgotten—long-buried in the dust of the ages. A whole sacred literature went before it. The old Semitic legends; the ballads and the folk-songs; the recital of tribal deeds that ran from lip to lip and from father to son; the codes of ancient laws; the Bibles of Southern Judah and of Northern Israel; the Book of Deuteronomy; the Book of the Priests; these were a part of the beginnings of the Book of Books. Saint John taught and preached and prayed and meditated fully fifty years before he wrote the Fourth Gospel. And so with all the Apostles. They taught and prayed and preached for years before they gave the world the written Word. First, then, came the oral gospel, published through the church, not in writing, "but on the fleshy tablets of the heart." The Epistles were the first written part of the New Testament, beginning about the year 50 A. D. Then came the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. The whole Bible has been likened to a great Temple; the Old Testament as the nave, with its side aisles of psalm and prophecy; the Gospels as the choir, the last Gospel perhaps the very sanctuary; while around and behind are the Epistles and the Apocalypse, each a gem of beauty, and each supplying an indispensable feature of the majestic whole.

The publishers of the famous RED LETTER EDITION of the Bible inform us that only by means of a vast newspaper co-operation throughout the United States and Canada could this magnificent Bible be had for the nominal price asked. They state they are arranging to distribute at least two million copies, and that the RED LETTER BIBLE represents a value of from three to four dollars in the usual channels of trade.
