There are 21 letter boxes and 5 parcel receptacles and three deliveries daily, namely, at 4.30 a. m., 12.00 noon and 6.00 p. m. The contract provides that the contractor must equip himself and his couriers, whilst on duty, with uniform caps and he must also provide with "Royal Mail" written on the face in gold letters. AN ANNUAL EVENT.-Yesterday evening the commodious halls of St. James' Sunday School were filled to overflowing with ladies and gentlemen, gathered together to enjoy what had been expected to be, and what also proved to be, one of the great feasts of the season. The tables were loaded with substantial delicacies of all the orthodox varieties and were capably and pleasantly served by ready and willing young ladies, while the older ladies of the congregation, whose event the annual Easter tea always is, and with which the year's work is always wound up, gave careful supervision. Notwithstanding the great number who partook of this feast there was an apparently inexhaustible supply and the last tables were as faultlessly and plentifully served as the first. The banquet was also very largely patronized and the handsome embroidery, crocheting and fancy work of all kinds, with the more substantial aprons, pinafores, etc., were quickly bought up. The five o'clock tea tables and refreshment table were laden with delicacies of all kinds which found pleased buyers throughout the afternoon. The proceeds amounted to upwards of $500.
