Japanese Premier Dead (Special to The Guardian.) TOKIO, Oct. 22.—Field Marshal Count Siki Toyochi, former Premier of Japan, died today.

MY HONOLULU GIRL Written by the late Queen Liliuokalani of the Hawaiian Islands that ever popular melody "Aloha Oe" is one of the many songs hits Norman Frederick will present in his beautiful musical show "My Honolulu Girl" which will be offered at the Prince Edward Mon. and Tues. Eve. Oct. 27, and 28. Tues. day matinee.

This melody is the favorite of the large troupe of native singers. Capt. J. A. MacLeod, and his company, they play and sing it in preference to the many other beautiful Hawaiian songs that are interpolated during the show.

"My Honolulu Girl" is a wonderful conception dealing with the most beautiful islands of the Pacific, with their people and their customs. A decidedly pretty love story and a suggestion of a plot is woven into the offering which is filled to the brim with music and dances, Joy and Sunshine. Prominent in the production are the scenic effects depicting the Prince Hotel at Honolulu, the Ocean Docks at the same place, and the island of Hawaii where rises the volcano "Kilauea" Real ocean liners are seen moving from the docks, and the Volcano is shown in action. Thirty-five people are carried with the Company, a number of them being Native Hawaiians and musicians of prominence in their own country. Seats now on sale at the Box Office.

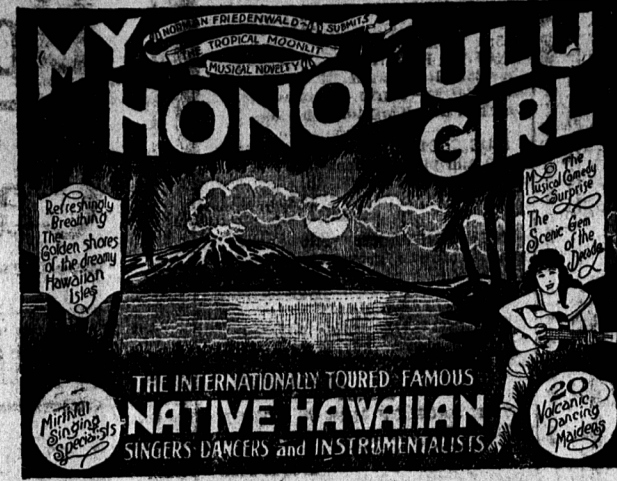

Buckwheat and millet sown together (about one-fourth buckwheat) makes an inexpensive poultry food. If it ripen, then cut and bunch it and allow it to dry a few days before housing. The chickens do the thrashing during the winter, and it gives them needed exercise. It is the best egg producer I ever tried.

VISITING TEAM ENTERTAINED.—The members of the Mount Allison football team were entertained in good style by the St. Dunstan's team last evening at the University. A luncheon was served, speeches made and the college yell was much in evidence and all had a joyous time.

BEFORE THE VICE CHANCELLOR.—An important case is being tried before Vice Chancellor Fitzgerald. It is an action brought against Messrs. C. H. Benoit and A. Rattenbury, charging them with an old ship knowing piracy in selling an old ship knowing the same to be condemned and unseaworthy. Up to the present the evidence taken has been that of Messrs. C. H. Kinch of Barbados, F. K. Warren, ship-owner of Halifax, Geo. Young, shipwright of Halifax, Geo. Rennie and Captain Walsh port pilot and Mr. Benoit for the defence. The vessel in question was the schooner Beaver which the plaintiff purchased in March, 1918. The vessel has since been detained in Halifax on date here. The vessel is valued at $18,000. The case was begun Wednesday morning. The court adjourned yesterday to meet today at 11 a. m. when the case will be resumed.

ISLAND LADY WEDS IN KINGSTON

Miss Edith Fraser Becomes Mrs. Albert Franklin.

The following appears in the Kingston Ont., Daily British Whig, of October 8.

A lovely autumn wedding was that of Wednesday morning when, at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Fraser, at the Villa St. Claire apartments, Miss Edith Fraser became the bride of Albert Franklin, of San Francisco, California.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bride entered the drawing-room where the ceremony was performed and was transformed into a beautiful bower of green, ferns, asparagus fern, mchallmas daises and quantities of all shades being arranged artistically.

Mlle. Verlet to Give Concert Friday

There is just one beautiful thing after another in Norman Friedenwald's musical oddity which is coming to the Prince Edward, Monday and Tuesday evenings, and Tuesday matinee, Oct. 27 and 28.

It's alluring appeal finds response alike from music lover, laughter lover, and beauty lover. It combines about everything to arouse public enthusiasm, a pretty Hawaiian love story, bewitching melodies from remembered, dreamy waltzes, tangoes, whirling eccentric dance tunes and modern ballads, all blend into a carefully arranged melange that pleases from start to finish.

Aside from the magnificent stage pictures is the wide variety of musical ensembles and song numbers that are presented. Dreamy waltzes, tangoes, one-steps, tantalizing tangoes, whirling eccentric dance tunes and modern ballads, all blend into a carefully arranged melange that pleases from start to finish.

AT THE STRAND

TONIGHT--7 AND 8.45--TONIGHT

DOROTHY DALTON

IN "THE LADY OF RED BUTTE"

Her life was in momentary danger—she was threatened by a fanatic who believed that her gambling house made Red Butte an "accused town"

But she made this man who was bred in New England turn to her when he needed real love.
