"BETTER THAN DAVID HARUM!" ZEBADIAH SARTWELL

A Story of Rural Life. BY DR. S. PAIGE JOHNSON. $1.50 Postpaid. Eleven illustrations by a noted New York Artist... Charmingly produced... Foreword by Stephen G. Clow...

It is necessary only to quote the review of this delightful book which recently appeared in the MONTREAL STAR. It is as follows:

"We are much mistaken if 'Zebadiah Sartwell' does not prove to be one of the most successful works of recent American fiction, and we have not met with any cleverer character drawing since the time when the famous Nova Scotia judge represented for us Sam Slick, as a Yankee clock-maker and peddler, full of quaint drollery, unsophisticated wit, knowledge of human nature, and attitude in the use of what he calls 'soft sawder'." In our opinion, 'Zeb' is a greater creation than David Harum and infinitely superior to the interesting but impossible 'Darrell of the Blessed Isles'.

The 10th edition of "ZEB" is on the press and the public are still buying it eagerly. When ordering ask for beautiful new catalogue of books containing 60 titles and over a score of illustrations in half tone. Address,
