WEDDING BELLS

On Dec. 20, 1944, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Somers, Bradalbane, P.E.I. was the scene of a pretty wedding when their daughter Mildred Jean was united in marriage to LAC. Joe Morris Reynard of Lachine, Que. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. J. Morrison under an arch of ferns and flags. The wedding music was played by Mrs. (Rev.) D. J. Morrison.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very lovely in her dress of powder blue. She also wore a gold locket, gift of the groom, and held a bouquet of chrysanthemums sent from Montreal by the groom's mother who was regrettably unable to make the trip. The bride was attended by her sister Reta, who also wore a powder blue dress.

LAC. Leonard Collins of Verdun, Que., acted as groomsman.

The bride and groom received many lovely presents also some substantial cheques from friends.

A delicious supper was served to about 50 guests which was served by the friends of the bride. The wedding table was prettily decorated with red, white and blue streamers, and centered by a large wedding cake, over which hung the wedding bell. As the cake was being cut a telegram of felicitations arrived from Montreal to the bride and groom.

After spending Christmas with the bride's parents they took up residence in Summerside with best wishes from their friends for a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Previous to the marriage ceremony a baptism ceremony was performed by Rev. D. J. Morrison and the winsome little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Somers was christened Beverlie Jean.

Music was furnished by Willa Smith and Elwood Weeks, accompanied by Mrs. Eliza Abbott and Mrs. Ira Crozier. All dispersed to their homes in the wee sma' hours.

Asks McNaughton to Clarify His Position

OWEN SOUND, Ont., Jan. 11—(CP)—W. Garfield Case, Progressive Conservative candidate in the Grey North by-election Feb. 5, today challenged Defence Minister McNaughton to tell the people of Canada why he returned to Canada and to clarify the "mystery of his relations with the British military authorities."

Mr. Case spoke at three meetings in the constituency today. He said confidence in leadership was the mainstay of the troops — "without confidence our armies will fail and the sacrifice will be terrific."

C. C. F. Attitude

OWEN SOUND, Ont., Jan. 10—The government's recruiting policy gives "no guarantee that the men sent into action will be the best trained men available, nor any guarantee that all trained men will be available as reinforcements, Air Vice-Marshal A. E. Godfrey, C. C. F. candidate in the Feb. 5 North Grey Federal by-election, said in his opening campaign speech tonight.

The method was "neither a voluntary one nor conscription but an utter confusion of both," said the retired R. C. A. F. officer.

The C. C. F. believed the Government's policy must be to remove all distinctions between general service personnel and drafted men "The entire Home Defence Army—those who are medically fit—must be trained and made available for service anywhere they are needed."

Comments On U-Boats, Robombs

OTTAWA, Jan. 10 — (CP) —Returning from an inspection tour of Maritime naval establishments, Navy Minister Macdonald said in an interview here today that German U-boats had been more active in the Atlantic in recent weeks.

"But they are not nearly as active as they were in the early stages of the war," he added.

He said it was possible the Germans "might be able to rig up some means of firing robot bombs from surfaced submarines" at United States targets.

Commenting on statements by American naval sources on robot possibilities, he said he thought it improbable that "robombs" might be launched from surface raiders or ship-based planes. He did not elaborate on this point.

Looking Ahead with Hal Bohaker

I made a call on a friend of mine the other day and, to my surprise, I found him packing grips in preparation for a journey. "Going away, Bill?" I asked.

"Sure. Going away on a business trip."

"Be away long?"

"Couple of months."

I turned to his wife who was helping to pack. "How are you going to get along without him?" I asked.

"Don't worry, I'm not going to starve," she replied laughing. "I'm making sure that he leaves me enough to get along with until he gets back."

That's a simple little story of a man who is leaving home for two months. He arranges the family budget so that everything goes smoothly until he returns. Life insurance has a bigger problem than that. It must arrange the family budget for a journey from which there is no return. No one can tell when the call will come to take the journey. It may be many years. It may be tomorrow. But the Sun Life of Canada can arrange the budget for you at once, simply, economically and effectively. Call or write me and I will gladly talk things over with you . . . and no obligation incurred.
