MOTORIST — A motorist charged with operating his car without a permit appeared before Magistrate D. E. Shaw yesterday morning, and was fined $5 and costs or ten days.

WEDDING BELLS—At the United Church parsonage, Charlottetown, on Tuesday, June 30th, at eleven o'clock, Rev. C. N. Brown united in marriage, Miss Ethel Lillian Brown, daughter of the late George W. and Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, of New Haven, to Mr. Neil V. MacKenzie, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Neil S. MacKenzie, of St. Catharines. The couple were attended by Miss Elsie Brown, sister of the bride and Mr. Herbert Ross, of Strathcona. The bride looked very winsome in a gown of white georgette and radium lace with the conventional veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern, while the bridesmaid wore a flowered chiffon ensemble with accessories to match. After the ceremony, the bridal party motored to the home of the bride, where a wedding dinner was served by motor for a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes, accompanied by the bridesmaid and groomsmen as far as Tormentine. The bride's travelling dress was powder blue flat crepe, with lace jacket and hat to match. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie will reside in St. Catharines, where the groom is a prosperous farmer. Previous to her marriage, the bride was one of the Island's most successful school teachers. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, including china, silverware, linen, etc., also a substantial cheque from the bride's sister, Minnie. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace, to the bridesmaid a crystal choker, and to the groomsmen a set of gold cuff links. The many friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie wish them many happy years of wedded life.—(Patriot please copy).

DUNSFORD—FEENER—A pretty wedding was solemnized on Friday evening in the Assembly Room of the Maritime Home for Girls, Truro, when Rev. J. W. Godfrey, Rector of St. John's Church, Truro, united in the bonds of marriage, Evelyn Muriel Feener and Joseph Dunsford of Hampton, P.E.I. The Assembly room was prettily decorated with ferns and daisies, a bridal arch standing in the centre of the room under which the couple took their places. The bride, who entered the room to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, was becomingly attired in a dress of pink crepe-de-chine with white picture hat. She was given in marriage by Miss Ruth Terlice. The bride's bouquet was of pink and white carnations and roses. During the ceremony a number of the girl friends of the bride sang in chorus "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden." After the ceremony a dainty lunch was served and about one hundred guests took the opportunity of giving the young couple their best wishes for future happiness. On the evening previous to the wedding the bride was guest of honor at a shower given by her friends at which she received many useful and pretty gifts. After a short stay in Truro, Mr. and Mrs. Dunsford will leave for their home in Hampton, P.E.I.—Truro News.

THE BIG PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION of 1931 commences Monday, August 17th and continues until Friday night. Biggest prize list in history. Fastest and best horses will compete. The most thrilling vaudeville acts. Bigger and better Midway. In fact the biggest and best show by large odds ever staged in the Garden of the Gulf. Tell your friends about the dates. Arrange your holidays for this carnival of fun and education. J. W. Boulter, Secretary, Charlottetown, P. E. I.
