Last Fall for Jam made with Certo

records another expert jam and jelly maker

"In Certo-made jams the colour of every kind of berry stays brighter; taste is better than you can get with long-boiling."

Miss Alice Stapley,
A Belleville, Ont., jam and jelly champion.

"Also," adds Miss Stapley, "I find that when making tarts, Certo-made jam or jelly neither melts nor runs to juice with the heat of the oven as other jams do, making the tart shells sticky and unsightly."

Important, convincing testimony—this—as to the merits of Certo in all jam and jelly making. Prove the value of Certo for yourself. You'll be delighted with results if you follow carefully the recipes found in the booklet under the label on every Certo bottle.

Let us solve your jam or jelly making problems. Should you desire any information whatsoever, write to the Consumer Service Department, General Foods, Ltd., Cobourg, Ontario.

ENGLISH STAR IS IMPRESSIVE

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 1.—(Canadian Press and Associated Press Cables)—H. W. "Bunny" Austin, English net star, showed impressive form at the Wimbledon Tennis Championships today in defeating the youthful Keith Gledhill, ninth ranking United States player in straight sets, 6-3, 10-8, 6-1.

Austin's showmanship thrilled the packed stands of Wimbledon's famous centre court as the Englishman thoroughly outplayed the young Californian with his forehand cross volleys and his sliced drives to the backhand. Gledhill frequently was forced into errors as Austin leaped to the net and battled it out from the baseline.

Nat Farquharson, South African ace, who yesterday defeated Fred Perry, England's No. 1 player, today fell before the versatile style of the Czech champion, Roderick Menzel, 6-3, 6-3, 6-2. The heavily-built Menzel, with a fine repertoire of strokes, delighted the spectators with his daring volleys and willingness to go after every shot.

Northumberland Strait, owned and operated by the Canadian National Railways, was marked today with the arrival of Sir Newton Moore, President of the Dominion Steel and Coal Company, who will spend a short vacation there. Mr. J. R. Bevan, the manager, states that he has many inquiries and several reservations and anticipates a good tourist season. Mr. Bevan is assistant manager at the Chateau Laurier Hotel, Ottawa, and has come to Pictou Lodge to take charge for the season. On Wednesday evening next the Gyro Club of New Glasgow, N. S., will hold a dance and on every Wednesday night thereafter throughout the season the series of dances which proved so popular last year will be continued.

Reclaimed Gold From Great Dump

PERTH, Australia, July 1.—(C.P.)—Active interest continues in the treatment of ore tailings on the Eastern Goldfields, where there are millions of tons containing a payable quantity of gold which was lost under the old methods of treatment. If experiments being made by the Great Boulder Proprietary are successful, that company may treat a dump containing about 2,000,000 tons.

A plant has been erected by the Lakeside Retreatment and Mining Company on the company's tailings dump at Lakeside, about three miles south of the Golden Mile, at a cost of about 7,500 for the re-treatment of about 250,000 tons of sands which came from the Boulder Pre-emption mine in its early years. About 9,000 tons a month will be treated. The pre-emption mine is on the Golden Mile, but years ago, owing to shortage of water, the ore was carted to Hannan's Lake at Lakeside, where the company's treatment plant was established. Several other dumps to the north will probably be sluiced to Lakeside. Charcoal in the sands is reported to contain from two to three ounces of gold per ton. The value of the general extraction, it is stated, will be similar to that being obtained by the Golden Horseshoe Mine Company from the Horseshoe mine tailings dump, which at one time resembled a small mountain, visible many miles from Kalgoolie.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.—A very enjoyable function took place at the home of Mrs. Cephas Mallett, Euston Street, on Monday evening, in the form of a tastefully arranged miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Jennie Hardy, R. N. The appropriate expressions of sentiment accompanying the many attractive gifts were read by Miss Hilda Harper. Miss Hardy, though taken by surprise, arose to the occasion and very graciously expressed her thanks and appreciation. A dainty lunch, served by the hostess, readings by Miss Ruby MacDonald and violin selections by Miss J. West brought to a close a very pleasant evening.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A serious motor accident occurred at Caledonia North on Friday morning when a motor truck in which four young men, Russel Sencaubaugh, John Buel, Messrs Stewart and Porter all of Murray Harbor turned over while driving out from Charlottetown. In going down a steep hill at Caledonia North the steering gear gave way and the car turned completely over. Messrs Sencaubaugh and Buel were both badly hurt the former's face being severely cut from splintered glass. Buel is more seriously injured about the body and is under medical care at his home. The other two passengers escaped with a bad shaking up.

Doukhobor Chief Turns Up In Brit. Columbia

NELSON, B.C., July 1.—(C.P.)—Peter Verigin, titular head of Canada's 18,000 Doukhobor colonists, came out of seclusion today. Missing since he was absolved from deportation at Winnipeg a week ago, the Doukhobor leader turned up at Grand Forks, a sect community near here.

MCLEAN CUP GAMES

Two interesting games in the Eastern Section of the McLean League were played on Wednesday. At Borden the Kensington Granites defeated the Borden Nationals with a score of 6-2.

At Grand River, a most one-sided game was played between the local ball players and the Harris Sluggers of Summerside.

The Grand River boys sure put it all over the Sluggers by the large score of 13-3.

The Grand River boys played an excellent brand of ball and their heavy batting brought in many runs.

The poor fielding of the Summerside boys accounted for their low score.—S.

GEORGETOWN

The funeral of Miss Isabel Morrissey was held on Monday morning from St. James Roman Catholic Church. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor Rev. J. O. Kiggins, assisted by the Rev. Jas. Fitzgerald. Miss Morrissey was a former school teacher here and held in very high respect.

Mrs. Fred Morrisson and children are visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. Burke.

Mrs. Fred Allan, Boughton Island is visiting her mother, Mrs. Murdoch McLean.

Mrs. Mary Dalton has left for Boston to visit her daughter.

Miss Mary Head has arrived from the States and is staying with her niece Mrs. Jos. Dalton.

Mrs. Jos. David has left for Boston to spend some months with her daughter.

We are glad to hear that George Easton is recovering from his illness.

His Lordship, The Rt. Rev. J. Haddenley, D. D., visited Georgetown last Sunday for Confirmation Service in the Church of the Holy Trinity. The service was most inspiring and the Bishop delivered a most wonderful address to the congregation present. He reminded all to whom they belonged and their duty to fulfill the task God has given them to do.

Citizens are glad to see some new bungalows going up in the town. We are glad to see a bit of progress, then again we have some new sidewalks for which we are grateful.

The old sail loft of Thomas Henry has passed away under the hammer and crowbar. Many a sail for many a schooner was made here but those days have passed away and Mr. Henry has retired from business.

The Anglican Church at this point is being renovated and decorated in the interior and will indeed be a beautiful building when finished.

Mr. Robert Easton is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Shaw MacMillan at Alberry Plains.

The school closing exercises took place in the Town Hall on Friday and the children are not a bit sorry to get them over so they can enter the holidays in good spirit knowing there is freedom at last.

Rev. Jas. Fitzgerald, Scarborough Bluffs, Ontario, is spending a vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fitzgerald.

Golden Years

On Monday, June 5th, at the Mother House of the Congregation de Notre Dame, on Sherbrooke Street, Montreal, there was celebrated the Golden Jubilee of religious profession of Reverend Mother St. Mary Elizabeth, assistant general of the order, (formerly Miss Annie McQuaid of Charlottetown, P. E. I.)

As most of those fruitful years were spent in our city it is fitting that the Message should record the happy event and stress the particular joyfulness it gives to the friends and admirers of this well known and much beloved member of an esteemed community.

It was probably at Villa Maria, Montreal, where twenty-five of the cycle of those golden years were spent that the Reverend Jubilarian revealed to best advantage her qualities as a teacher and builder of character.

Instrumental music was the subject assigned to her from the beginning and to this chosen art Reverend Mother devoted her time and talent, with the result that many of her sisters in religion, well-versed to pass judgment in the matter, look upon their assistant general as "facile princeps" in a sisterhood that is noted for its gifted artists.

But music was only the background and framework, as it were, of this eminently successful career; a charming manner, a disposition brimful of joy and humor, together with a deeply religious spirit were probably what contributed most to the singular admiration in which this member of the congregation is held by those who have come within the range of her magnetic personality.

As Mother St. Mary Elizabeth is a Celt by origin it is appropriate that the MESSAGE should give an Irish strain to its greetings and good wishes. And so: "May her shadow never grow less! And may the members of her revered congregation who have done so much for the training of our young women continue to shed undimmed lustre upon the arts and sciences of which they are such able exponents.—(Copied from St. Patrick's Message, Montreal).

Tasmania Finds Seaweed Iodine

HOBART, Tasmania, July 1.—(C.P.)—A variety of kelp found at Blackman's Bay, in Southern Tasmania, is believed to be so rich in iodine that there may be prospects for the establishment of an industry in the State for the extraction of iodine from seaweed. Professor A. H. S. Wallace, of Sydney, who has been collecting specimens of seaweeds from Southern Tasmanian waters, found at Blackman's Bay a new variety of kelp belonging to the same family as that growing on the Californian coast, where iodine-producing weeds occur.

The present sources of the world's iodine supply are in dried-up lake beds in Germany and Chile, where they are vast potassium and sodium compounds, although the development of seaweeds from which iodine is obtained is carried on assiduously on the Californian coast.

The kelps round Tasmania are rich in potash and may be used as fertilizers.

BRINGING UP FATHER

HERE COMES THE TOWN GOSSIP—I HOPE SHE DOESN'T SUGGEST TO MAGGIE WHERE SHE SHOULD SPEND THE SUMMER.

OH, MY DEAR! I'M SO GLAD TO SEE YOU! I UNDERSTAND YOU CAN'T MAKE UP YOUR MIND WHERE TO SPEND THE SUMMER.

TRUE—IT'S SUCH AN ORDEAL!

WELL, OF COURSE, I DON'T WANT TO ADVISE YOU BUT IF I HAD TO DECIDE I WOULD CERTAINLY WANT TO BE WITH THE SOCIAL SET.

I HOPE SHE DOESN'T SUGGEST THE MOUNTAINS.

OH, BY ALL MEANS!

I KNEW IT!

SO THE MOUNTAINS WOULD BE MY CHOICE, MY DEAR.

SUZANNE LENGLEN ROUGES HER KNEES FOR TENNIS

Suzanne Lenglen has introduced "leg-theory" to the lawn tennis world. She suggests that women tennis players should rouge their knees.

Apparently the famous tennis star is quite serious about it for she followed her own suggestion and appeared with dabs of rouge on her knees when she played in a practice match against Miss Helen Jacobs in Paris. And this is the reason she gives.

"I decided this spring there was no reason why women should look like scarecrows on the courts," she said. "Since most of us frankly use make-up before a gallery of spectators, why shouldn't we do something about our knees? On the courts they are as much in evidence as our faces.

"I don't think women players consider their legs sufficiently. Even a poet won't rhapsodize over a feminine knee. But we don't need to look like freaks."

A GENTLEMAN TO SEE YOU IN REGARD TO WHERE TO SPEND A VACATION.

JUST TELL HIM THERE'S NO ONE HOME.

I'M GLAD MAGGIE'S OUT OR SHE'D MAKE ME LISTEN TO HIM.

HE'S GONE, SIR—I TOLD HIM THERE WAS NOBODY HOME.

WHAT DID HE SAY?

HE SAID HE KNEW THAT WHEN HE SAW YOU THROUGH THE WINDOW FROM THE STREET.
