Your Child and Her Penny

Did you ever watch your little girl in front of a candy counter, a penny clutched in one small hand, her nose flat against the glass, her eyes big? What shall it be? A lollipop? A liquorice stick? Popcorn? She's completely absorbed making up her mind what to buy.

If you have seen this, you've seen democracy in action, freedom functioning! She is exercising one of the two great rights of democracy - the right to spend her money how and when she chooses, or to save it.

Every responsible adult Canadian has this right of economic freedom, too. But for you, and for every Canadian, that right depends above all else on one thing... on your newspaper! What the showcase was to the little girl, your newspaper is to you.

Take away the FACTS your paper brings you (as is done in totalitarian countries), and you aim a body-blow at democracy. For then you lose your right of choice. You have no chance left to make up your mind intelligently just how you are going to spend your money!

NOTE: This is one of a weekly series of institutional messages sponsored by an Informal Committee of Publishers, and appearing in newspapers from coast to coast.

Important these days when buying must be done so wisely, when saving is so necessary

Now, when she's twenty-one, our little girl will vote, too. As you do. That's the outward sign of her political freedom. But voting... for your Member of Parliament or for new school boards... is just an empty, dangerous gesture unless you really know what you're voting for.

How can you know? Because you've still got a free press to give you the facts! Without the news, you can no longer make up your mind on the course of government for your country, your city, your village.

For democracy cannot live without a free press any more than a dictator can live with it!

'Yes,' you may say, 'but is the freedom of the press really in danger?' If you mean is there an active plot against it yet, the answer is no.

And how can you be on guard? By keeping your eyes open! By thinking while you read. For it takes a sharp eye to note the little restrictions, the small encroachments which are the first symptoms of death for freedom.

So we ask your help because it is your freedom. Keep your eyes open wide. If you think you spot an infringement of your right to read truth, kick like the devil! Kick to your representative, kick with letters to the press, kick to your friends.
