

THE PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Summerside, J. Frank Lafferty, Manager, Alberton, Herbert Clark, Manager.

—There were 90 passengers going and 150 returning by the Empress to Summerside yesterday.

—Oswald J. Waite, who has been visiting his home in Wilmot, left yesterday morning on return to New York.

—The tugs Goliath and Wm. Aitken, with several scows in tow, bound for Bay Cheleur to Port Elgin, put into Summerside harbor on Sunday last for shelter.

—The prohibition case for first-foetus against Mrs. Wm. McDonald, Summerside, was tried at the Police Court yesterday morning and adjourned until Saturday next for judgement.

—The remains of Allan Fraser, who died in Vancouver, was brought over by the Empress to Summerside last evening and forwarded by the eastern train to his late home in Montague Bridge.

—The marriage took place in St. Paul's Church, Summerside, at seven o'clock yesterday morning, by Rev. J. C. McLean, of Mrs. Millie Somer, daughter of Peter Kenney to Capt. Oliver Carver, Summerside.

—Rev. J. Keir G. Fraser, D. D. of Charleston, S. C. who has been visiting his old home conducted the service in the Alberton Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning. Dr. Fraser was at one time the pastor of this church.

—Miss Mary Campbell, Matron of the Baltimore Hospital, who has been spending a short vacation at her home in Graham's Road, left yesterday on return to Baltimore, accompanied by her sister Miss Grace who will spend the winter there.

—Summerside Methodist church will be the scene of a happy event at 8.30 this evening when Flossie E. daughter of Jabez Pridham, Summerside, will be united in marriage to George H. McCallum of R. T. Holman, Ltd. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Hammond Johnson, in the presence of the relatives and friends. The bride will be attended by Miss Louise Meish of Charlottetown; Calvin D. McCullum, brother of the groom will support the groom. The ushers will be H. M. Baker, L. A. Moore, W. H. Rattee and R. B. Sharpe. After the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride after which the happy couple will drive to their residence on Granville street, Summerside. The Guardian joins in extending congratulations.

—Happyland tonight. Beautiful new pictures none of which have ever been shown in Summerside before, also the new illustrated song a Daisy which to hear is worth the price of admission alone. Come to Happyland tonight. You are sure to get your money's worth. 9-22dtt.

—J. Frederick Joyne and Miss Nina Gordon Donald, were the principals in a pretty wedding at the home of the bride's parents Benj. and Mrs. Donald, Sea View, on Wednesday Sept. 16th. The immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony. The bride wore a princess gown of white Persian lawn, with trimmings of Genman Val. The couple were unattended. The flower girls, little Miss Jean and Lillian Donald, made a pretty picture in their dainty white gowns, preceding the bride and her father, and scattering flowers in their path. The parlor of the house was decorated in green and yellow—potted plants, Golden Rod, Asters and green leaves carrying out the color scheme. The hall and dining room decorations were green, white and red. The bridal party left Thursday morning for Collins, N. B., accompanied by the best wishes of the group of friends, who were gathered on the station platform.

—The following clipping is from Worcester (Mass.) exchange of recent date. The bride is a daughter of the late Jeremiah McArthur, Summerside, and has many friends here who will wish her all happiness in her new relation. "Horace Lester McArthur of Port Arthur, Ont., came to Worcester for a bride of the same name, who is distantly related to him. The bride is Miss Annie McArthur of ten Charlottetown St. and the wedding took place today at the home of her cousin Montgomery MacArthur. The Rev. MacLeod Harvey, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a white net with lace trimming and full length veil caught with a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of bride roses. There were no attendants. The wedding music was played by Miss Blanche Hamel. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery MacArthur received with the bride and groom at the reception which followed the ceremony. The house was prettily decorated with flowers and palms and a number of gifts received by the bride as well as wedding presents were displayed. Mrs. MacArthur was a member of the Girls' Club of the First Presbyterian Church and friends in that society entertained for her. Mr. and Mrs. MacArthur leave for a wedding journey and will reside in Port Arthur.

Big Exhibit Fashion's Finest Furs.

Commencing Monday and continuing all week we will make a grand Exhibit of the finest ranges of furs it has yet been our privilege to offer you. The display will include ladies' Persian Lamb jackets, self-trimmed, Sable-trimmed and Mink-trimmed, ladies Marmot jackets, ladies Astrachan jackets in plain and blouse effect self trimmed and Sable-trimmed, ladies Bokharan and Grey Lamb jackets, ladies seal jackets and fur-lined coats. The jackets are, without doubt beauties all fully guaranteed—and far superior to anything we have ever shown, while the prices are much more reasonable than heretofore; in fact we flatter ourselves, that after years of testing the merit of different makes, we have at last secured the ideal ladies' fur coat at a popular price. In ladies' neckwear, we show an elegant range, including Mink setts, Sable setts, Squirrel setts, Fitch setts, Isabella Fox and Marmot setts, as well as an extensive range of separate neck pieces and muffs, caps and m. all fashionable furs, at prices the most moderate. In men's fur coats, we show a very superior range, including Coon, Cape Buffalo, Black Dog &c. in qualities which will please the most exacting, while our range of men's fur collars, caps and sleigh robes are splendid. We extend a most hearty invitation to all visitors to the Exhibition to visit our showrooms during this week, and see for themselves the beauty and elegance as well as the good practical wearing qualities, of the different lines displayed. Besides furs, there will also be displayed on the second floor, men's and boys' suits and overcoats, ladies' and misses' fall coats and millinery. All are cordially invited and all are heartily welcome.
