

Heads Salvation Army Campaign

Councillor W. H. Beaton

The arrangements for the annual campaign for funds of the Salvation Army in Prince Edward Island are nearing completion. Lt. Col. K. S. Rogers, provincial chairman, announces that Councillor Wendell H. Beaton has accepted the chairmanship of the Charlottetown committee and has already received the assurance of complete co-operation of many well known citizens as division commanders and workers during the campaign week.

The Salvation Army is recognized today as one of the most important social agencies in the world. Its work for the unfortunate and for the aged and infirm in this Province has been outstanding and is universally recognized by all citizens of good will. For these reasons, the Salvation Army stands as a monument to the untiring efforts of the Salvation Army to provide housing and care for those whose adventitious years have left them without adequate resources and without friends of their own age.

SCOTTISH CHIEF

clan would require a plebiscite. "It is a clan as a whole, as far as may be determined by consulting substantial private opinion in Scotland, would oppose a color bar against the chiefs," he said.

He described as "a bagatelle" the 700-strong group seeking to depose him and concluded: "The stand I take is that I am chief in virtue of birth and law, and not by quantitative possession of white blood."

"It should also be remembered that the English possess a strain of 'colored' blood and there has not been a 'pure' race, of any color, on the earth for 10,000 years."

In Edinburgh, J. R. Robertson, secretary of the Donnachaidh Clan, said today that society had taken no objection to the chief but that some people consider it would be better to have a chieftain resident in Britain than one 5,000 miles away.

He said the clans only communication from the chief was a notice that he intended officially to record his claim to the title.

Two Premiers Up In The Air — The two Premiers had a great time last night. Both took a ride on the Ferris Wheel and went round and round in the air in the same seat much to the enjoyment of the crowd and to themselves. This is probably the first time two Premiers of two Island Provinces were "up in the air" in circles together.

Afterwards they had a little side bet about who could do the best at the duck shooting booth. On the first bet Premier Jones won out with three ducks out of five shots but Premier Smallwood came back and won the second round, so they were even again.

Leaves This Afternoon — This afternoon Premier Smallwood and party leave on return to Newfoundland on a special trip via Maritime Central Airways. Premier Smallwood said last night that he was tremendously impressed with the agricultural recovery of this Province, and similar sentiments were expressed by Hon. Mr. Keough and Mr. Jamieson. The Provincial Exhibition they said "was just grand."

Members Of Famous Battery Hold Reunion

A happy reunion of members of the 5th Canadian Siege Battery of World War I (later the 8th) was held yesterday at which old comrades which had not met since the days in France in 1918 renewed old acquaintances. From Timiskaming in the west to Souris in the east, as well as from the mainland centres, they got together to talk over old times at an outing at the north shore in the afternoon and at a banquet held at Sandy's Restaurant at Marshfield in the evening.

Those who attended the gathering, 35 in all, included A. G. Christie and D. L. Hicken of Halifax, N. S.; R. L. Millison and B. Johnston of Summerside, E. B. Ellis and A. H. Webb of O'Leary; Harry Leslie, A. J. MacDonald, Adrian McInnis and P. A. MacLellan of Souris; R. W. Grant, McCallum, Brackley Point; Jack Heartz, Cornwall; Frank Major, Margate; H. T. Currie, New Dominion; E. A. Keeping, Murray Harbour; George Watts, York; C. E. Gallant, Wellington; and H. A. Messervey, E. J. Wynne, Norman Campbell, L. A. McDougall, Bill Doyle, Noel H. DeBlais, Roland Harper, C. A. Beer, Bill Walsh, Fred Taylor, H. F. McPhee, Bill Boiesner, Bob Hurry, J. J. Connolly, C. J. Gaudet, P. S. Fielding and Manning Bagnall, all of Charlottetown.

H. A. Messervey, now City Engineer of this City, was the only former officer of the Battery present at the reunion, and is also the only officer of the 5th Siege Battery residing in this Province.

The program in the afternoon consisted of a general gathering at the Armouries from where they went by car to Stanhope Beach to enjoy a successful time of athletic sporting activities such as swimming, quoits, field events etc. Retiring to Sandy's Restaurant about seven o'clock, all partook of a sumptuous banquet and spent the remainder of the evening in fond reminiscence of old times. Mr. R. L. Millison of Summerside was the presiding chairman and master of ceremonies.

The leading speakers during the banquet were: H. A. Messervey, C.A. Beer, H.F. McPhee, P.A. MacLellan, E.A. Keeping, E.J. Wynne, J.J. Connolly, N.H. DeBlais, L.A. McDougall and A.C. Christie.

During the banquet a number of telegrams were read from other members of the Battery who were unable to attend, but wished to extend their best wishes to the gathering. Those from whom the telegrams were received included Cedric West of Campbellton, N.B., H.B. Widdon, Antigonish, N.S., J.M. Campbell, Usg. P.E.L. Toby McCormac, Sydney Mines, C.B., R.H. Davison, Truro, Robert MacNeill, Ottawa and Stanley Bagnall, Halifax.

Following the banquet, a business meeting was held at which the 5th Battery Association was revived after some years of inactivity, and a nominating committee brought in the following slate of officers who were elected: President—H. A. Messervey, City; Vice-President—J.J. Connolly, City; Secretary—R. L. Millison, Summerside; Treasurer—C.A. Beer, City; Executive—C.A. Beer, City; Adrian McInnis, Souris; Frank Major, Margate; A.J. Christie, Halifax; Eugene Wynne, City.

Following the election of officers, the meeting laid the initial plans to hold an even larger reunion in 1950.

Premier Smallwood Has Active Day

Yesterday Premier Smallwood of Newfoundland, accompanied by his daughter Clara, the Hon. W. J. Keough, Newfoundland Minister of Fisheries, Mr. Don Jamieson, Public Relations officer and B. Graham Rogers of the Provincial Department of Industry drove to Summerside and Borden.

At Summerside the party met Mayor Arnett, and Town Clerk Mr. Hale Stang and visited Mr. Charles R. Rogers, who is quite well known to many of Premier Smallwood's friends in Newfoundland.

On the way to Borden they stopped at the Dunk River Dairy for five minutes. The dairy crossed over on the 1 p.m. trip of the Abegweit from Borden and returned on the early afternoon trip. Premier Smallwood and party were shown through the ship by Captain MacGuire and Mr. G. T. Montgomery, Superintendent of the Canadian National Railways.

The Premier was very greatly impressed with what he called "This magnificent ship" and "The very neat and clean appearance of the boat." Captain MacGuire kindly accompanied the party on an inspection trip of the docks at Cape Tormentine. The Borden docks had been looked over by Premier Smallwood previous to sailing time from here. Premier Smallwood commented the dining room staff on the excellence of the meals served. Chief Engineer Moore took Premier Smallwood and the party through the engine rooms of the boat. Some day, remarked the Premier "we hope to have boats like this being regularly to Newfoundland."

On the return motor trip to Charlottetown calls were made at the farm of J. Wilfred Lecky. Premier Smallwood is very much interested in the development of the tourist industry in Newfoundland and after having coffee at Coyler's Restaurant he inspected the cabin set-up of Mr. Vaughan Groom, and the Summerside tourist office at Read's Corner.

The evening was spent at the Exhibition grounds where in company with Premier Jones he visited the cattle, hog and sheep exhibits, and farm machinery section, and later the handicraft exhibits.

Two Premiers Up In The Air — The two Premiers had a great time last night. Both took a ride on the Ferris Wheel and went round and round in the air in the same seat much to the enjoyment of the crowd and to themselves. This is probably the first time two Premiers of two Island Provinces were "up in the air" in circles together.

Afterwards they had a little side bet about who could do the best at the duck shooting booth. On the first bet Premier Jones won out with three ducks out of five shots but Premier Smallwood came back and won the second round, so they were even again.

Wheel Chair Patients See Race Meet

Some twenty wheel chair patients from both hospitals, the City and Prince Edward Island, were taken yesterday to the races by the $12,000 Walter Callow Wheel Chair Coach. The hospital patients attended the races in the afternoon while in the evening the invalids at the Sacred Heart Home were conveyed to the Vaudeville.

Today the wheel chair patients from the Provincial Sanatorium will be the guests of the Canadian Legion, who are working in co-operation with the Walter Callow Coach Service. Some twenty people are expected to be included in the group while tomorrow twenty more will be given the chance to attend the big Fair at the Old Home Week celebration.

The wheel chair coach was the realization of a dream for a man who has been blind for 10 years and a paralyzed victim for 18. The man, Walter Callow, a veteran of World War One has never known what the word defeat means as he has fought with all the energy he could exert in order that shut-ins and invalids in the Maritimes could be brought out into the open to attend such functions as the races and vaudeville, accompanying the coach here are Miss Marie Fines and the driver of the coach, Mr. Ray Whalen.

In the City who is an invalid and who would like to be driven out to the fair grounds is asked to leave his or her name at the Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Legion.

The coach will be on exhibit today at the Fair grounds.

The first art and handicraft display at the Exhibition Grounds by the P.E.I. Women's Institute for several years was proving a very popular attraction to the crowds which toured the grounds yesterday.

Catching the eye of the examiners were the flower displays in the institute building, Mr. Gordon Warren, horticulturalist at the Experimental Farm and Mr. Wilfred Cudmore both thought the quality was excellent, especially that of the gladioli.

Women were closely examining the hooked rugs and many favorable comments on the standard of the work were heard. Other groups were milling around the sewing machine display. All classes of work from the multi-colored baskets outside the entrance to the exhibits at the back of the building had their many admirers.

Machinery Display

The farm machinery display at the Exhibition grounds was being viewed by a large number of farmers and others yesterday. Features of the machinery which is on display at the ends of the Institute building and poultry barn are a garden tractor, tractors with hydraulic attachments, and pumps and pressure systems.
