

Fibroid Tumors Cured.

A distressing case of Fibroid Tumor, which baffled the skill of Boston doctors. Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, Mass., in the following letter tells how she was cured, after everything else failed, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hayes' First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time. The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor given in your little book accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Note the result of Mrs. Pinkham's advice—although she advised Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, to take her medicine—which she knew would help her—her letter contained a mass of additional instructions as to treatment, all of which helped to bring about the happy result.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote to you describing my symptoms and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully, and to-day I am a well woman. The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system. I can walk miles now.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female trouble of any kind to give it a faithful trial."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony—or take the place of the health and happiness which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought to Mrs. Hayes.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women; all ovarian troubles; tumors; inflammations; ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb; backache; irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation. Surely the volume and character of the testimonial letters we are daily printing in the newspapers can leave no room for doubt. Mrs. Hayes at her above address will gladly answer any letters which sick women may write for fuller information about her illness. Her gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so genuine and heartfelt that she thinks no trouble is too great for her to take in return for her health and happiness.

Truly it is said that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing so many women, and no other medicine; don't forget this when some druggist wants to sell you something else.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

REV. A. N. SIMPSON

Who has resigned the pastorate of Central Christian Church.

THE SUMMERSIDE GUARDIAN

Office—Rogers & Rogers Store
J. B. C. Baker, Mgr.

I. O. F.—Court Cabot meets this evening.

William Pidgeon left yesterday on return to Montreal.

Calvin Howatt, Tryon leaves this morning on a business trip to Sydney.

Mrs. W. S. McKie, Charlottetown, is visiting friends in Summerside.

Misses Eva McNeill and Annie Sullivan returned last evening from St. John.

Those who were up early enough yesterday morning saw the first ice of the season made by the previous night's frost. Following this a few light flurries of snow during the day gave citizens a chilly reminder of approaching winter.

Rev. E. J. Rattee, Malpique, will conduct the services in the Presbyterian Church here next Sunday morning and evening.

Among those returning from the St. John Exhibition last night were A. W. P. Goulet, Dan Steele, J. A. Ramsay, Harry Hill phant.

"Anything more beautiful in music would be difficult to imagine," is what the Leeds Herald says of The Moister Glee Society, England's Greatest Quartette. They appear in Market Hall Oct. 5.

The home of A. H. Wadman, Summerside, was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening when his sister Miss Ada was united in marriage to Dobson Clark, both of Crapaud. Rev. A. D. McCully officiated. During the evening a number of gramophone selections given by Ava Wilson were much enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke have The Guardian's best wishes.

Mrs. Bagnall, New Glasgow, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) A. N. Simpson, Summerside.

Ernest W. Bowness of Kensington, P. E. I., was in St. John yesterday attending the exhibition, and left last evening for Montreal to begin his final year in McGill. Mr. Bowness was a member of G. Co., first contingent—St. John 2nd4st.

The death occurred yesterday of Joseph Murphy recently in the Registry Office Summerside and for eleven years representative of the First District of Prince in the old Legislative Council. The deceased was born at Conway in 1827 and was for many years a representative farmer of the west. To the bereaved relatives The Guardian tenders its sincere sympathy.

A League to enforce the Scott Act in Windsor has been formed. The Rev. Henry Dickie formerly of Summerside presided at the Mass meeting, and then at the close he requested all the "chicken-hearted voters" to retire, while 150 of the best citizens of Windsor remained and formed a Voter's League to enforce the Scott Act.

The resignation of Rev. A. N. Simpson pastor of Central Christian Church here will be heard with regret by all estimation in the town. For sometime Mr. Simpson has been troubled with weakness of the throat and on this account is compelled to seek another climate. He leaves in about three weeks with his family for La Combe, Alberta. During his short residence here the reverend gentleman has made many friends, not only among those with whom he was closely identified as pastor but as well in the broader and undiscriminational life of Summerside. The Guardian sincerely trusts that he may soon be restored to good health.

THE ALBERTON GUARDIAN

Office—Post Office.
Herbert Clarke, Mgr.

Bert Walker, Kensington, is visiting in town.

Joseph and Mrs. Keefe returned Tuesday from a short trip to Summerside.

The Sels, Shamrock, Skerry, was in port Monday with a cargo of coal for Ellis Bros.

Henry Hughes, scale tester, has been here testing the scales at the different places of business.

Mrs. D. Montgomery and daughter, Ethel, have returned from a visit to friends in Summerside.

Archibald Raynard and bride have returned to their home at Greenmount after a wedding tour to Worcester.

Miss Helen McEwan came to Alberton Wednesday night to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Aretas Muttart.

C. Hudson came to Alberton Tuesday night from Waltham, Mass., returning to his home at Mill River.

The Sch. Sarah P. Ayer, Capt. Champion, sailed up the river to the Village wharf yesterday to load produce for Catham.

Hiram Champion, one of the most popular young men of this place, left last week for Halifax to attend Dalhousie College.

Jas J. Weeks, Providence, R. I., is visiting his brother, Albert Weeks, South Kildare. Mr. Weeks was a former resident of Alberton.

Richard V. Mallett, who has been visiting his home here for the past two months, after an absence of two years in foreign climes, left for St. John Monday.

About sixty Caraqueet fishing boats sought shelter in Alberton harbour during the heavy Nor-western last week. All these boats report getting large catches of cod.

One of the dilapidated buildings on the street leading to the railway crossing has recently been torn down. Should two or three more buildings of this kind meet with a similar fate the appearance of the town would not suffer in consequence.

The nuptials of Herbert Platts, Tignish and Miss Irene Raynard, Greenmount were solemnized at Tignish on Sept. 10th. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Simpson. The groom's home was the scene of a very pleasant wedding in the evening; and at such an event it may be said that the Tignish sons and daughters know how to enjoy themselves. The Guardian unites with many friends in extending congratulations to the happy party.

The death occurred at South Kildare of Mrs. Aretas Muttart which sad event occurred Wednesday. The deceased had been in ill health for several years, he was a victim of that lingering disease consumption. Mrs. Muttart was widely known and held in high esteem by her numerous acquaintances. Her remains will be interred in the Methodist Cemetery today, Sept. 23, Rev. Mr. Wightman will officiate at the funeral services.

The Rifle Association of this place held their annual shooting on Sept. 21st. The ranges were at 200, 300 and 500 yards. The possible number of points was 105, and the first ten making the highest scores were:

- | | |
|----------------------|------------------|
| J. E. C. Hunter, 75. | L. B. Leard, 75. |
| W. Millman, 74. | W. Suckling, 71. |
| A. Wright, 64. | A. L. Purdy, 60. |
| E. McNeill, 58. | Alex. Leard, 56. |
| W. Deacon, 55. | Geo. Tweedy, 50. |

The weather was decidedly unfavourable as a heavy wind was blowing all day, but under such conditions the shooting throughout was very satisfactory.

SURPRISE TO DOCTORS.
Most doctors are astonished at the results obtained by Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for eczema, salt rheum and itching skin diseases which are often considered well nigh incurable. By word of mouth from friend to friend the exceptional merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment have gradually become known until it is now standard the world over and has a record of cures unparalleled in the history of medicine.
