That music is appreciated was evidenced by the large number who gathered around the gardens last evening to hear Worth's Band. The different selections were well rendered and needless to say much enjoyed by all.
The pretty lawn of R. E. Mutch, Euston St., was enlivened last night by a strawberry festival held under the auspices of the W. M. S. of Grace Church. The ladies were very successful in their undertaking as quite a number were present.
The report which has been going the rounds of the press to the effect that a bride and groom had been separated in St. John while on their honeymoon is denied. The relatives in this City are of the opinion that the circumstances were not as stated, but the item arouse out of a desire for a joke on the part of some humorous newspaper man in St. John.

New Wonderland management wish to announce that tonight they will run a show after the stores have closed, should there be patrons enough to warrant it. This is a good idea and should be encouraged, as no more pleasant way can be imagined to spend the close of Saturday evening than in an half hour spent in this popular house.
