TOGETHER WITH MANY MERCHANDISE PRIZES

Herewith will be found the picture of an airplane who has just dropped a bomb on a pile of shells. At first glance the airplane and the explosion appear to be all there is in the picture, but by careful study the faces of several soldiers will be found. There are 7 of them in all. Can you find them? It is no easy task, but by patience and endurance can be accomplished.

You may win a cash prize by doing so. Many have done this as will be shown by the names and addresses which we will send you. If you find the faces mark each one with an X, cut out the picture and send it to us, together with a slip of paper on which you have written the words "I have found all the faces and marked them." Write these same words plainly and neatly, as in case of lies, both writing and neatness are considered factors in this contest.

This may take up a little of your time but as TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS in cash and many merchandise prizes are given away, it is worth your time to take a little trouble over this matter. Remember all you have to do is to mark the faces, cut out the picture and write on a separate piece of paper the words, "I have found all the faces and marked them."

WE DO NOT ASK YOU TO SPEND ONE CENT OF YOUR MONEY IN ORDER TO ENTER THIS CONTEST

Send your answer at once, we will reply by return mail telling you whether your answer is correct or not, and we will send you a complete Prize List, together with the names and addresses of persons who have recently received over Four Thousand Five Hundred Dollars in Cash Prizes from us, and full particulars of a simple condition that must be fulfilled. (This condition does not involve the spending of any of your money.) Winners of cash prizes in our late competitions will not be allowed to enter this Contest.

The Competition will be held by two well known business men of undoubted integrity, who have no connection with this Company, whose decision must be accepted as final. Upon receipt of your reply we will send a complete list of the names and addresses of persons who have won $4500.00 in Cash Prizes in recent contests held by the publishers of this advertisement. Although these persons are entirely unknown to us, they are our references. An enquiry from any one of them will bring the information that our contests are carried out with the utmost fairness and integrity. Your opportunity to win a good round sum is equally as good as that of anyone else, as all previous winners of cash prizes are disqualified from entering this contest.

WEDNESDAY
WOUNDED.—Mrs. John Saunders, city, has received word that her husband, Pte. John Saunders, has been admitted to Alexander Military Hospital with a gunshot wound in the leg. Pte. Saunders left the city as bandsman in the 105th Band. He was transferred to the 26th Battalion, and crossed to France in August.

At a special meeting of the Charlottetown City Council Monday it was agreed to invest the sum of $60,000 in the Victory Loan. Another interesting feature of the meeting was the presentation of gifts to the nurses who had rendered such valuable service during the influenza epidemic. Miss Beers, District Nurse was presented with a valuable bracelet watch, Miss Leonard and Miss McLean with campaign brochures and Miss DeBolis, Dispensary Superintendent with $25. The meeting then adjourned.

SERIOUS FIRE.—The residence of the late John MacLean, of Ocean View, was completely destroyed by fire on Saturday night, 2nd inst. The fire was noticed about 11 p. m., and had made such headway that it was impossible to save the building or any of its contents, the inmates barely escaping with their lives to a neighbor's house. Bdr. David MacLean, now doing his bit at the front, lost all his books and civilian clothes, having sent his trunk and boxes there for safe keeping shortly before going overseas. There was no insurance.

The death occurred in Sherwood, Charlottetown, Monday, Sunday afternoon, after a week's illness from influenza, followed by pneumonia, of Mrs. T. P. Cullen, leaving a sorrowing husband and twelve children to mourn. One of the daughters, Miss Ella, is attending college at Antigonish, the others are all home. Six of the children are at present suffering with influenza. The late Mrs. Cullen was a sister of Mr. James Handrigan, of this city. She was a most estimable woman, with admirable qualities of mind and heart, and her passing away in the prime of womanhood is a terrible blow to the bereaved husband and his motherless children. To the sincere sympathy of a wide circle of friends will be extended.

Mr. Malcolm McLeod, 45 Dorchester Street, city, received a telegram Sunday morning, Nov. 10th, stating that his son John McLeod, died this morning at 5 a. m., Nov. 10th, 1918, in the Army Hospital, Waynesville, N. C. This gallant young hero enlisted in the U. S. Artillery 1917, and was later transferred to the Engineers. He was among the first Americans to land in France. In the battle of Verdun he was wounded and gassed. After going the rounds of the hospitals, he was invalided back to Waynesville, N. C., where he passed away to the great Beyond where there is no sorrow or shedding of tears. He is the oldest son of Mr. Malcolm McLeod, city, who has two other sons serving his King and country: Wallace, somewhere in France and Milton D. in England.

A TRIBUTE.—An Ottawa exchange in reference to Pte. Fred A. D'Ornellas who died in England says:—The report recently of the death in Bristol, England of No. 322867, Pte. Fred A. D'Ornellas, 350 1-2 Somerset Street, marked the passing of one of Ottawa's gifted young men. After an extended newspaper experience in his native country (British Guiana) and in Charlottetown he entered the service of the Department of Customs here in 1903. Since the outbreak of war he had been virtually an indispensable official in the War Measures Branch of that department until the formation of the War Trade Board this year, to which he was transferred, remaining there until his enlistment in May with the 74th Battery, C. F. A. From this unit he was transferred to the Tank Battalion which proceeded overseas early in October, and his untimely death in a military hospital in Bristol very shortly after disembarking from he transport brought to a premature close a prominent career. As an enthusiastic cricketer, the Ottawa Cricket Club, of which he was a member will regret his passing, and in Y. M. C. A. circles he will be much missed. In British Guiana he was a noted rifle shot, a number of his silver trophies and spoons are now in the possession of his mother. In his death a good soldier has "gone west," the State has lost an efficient Civil Servant and his mother, Mrs. Anna D'Ornellas, and sister, Miss Emily, have been deprived of the mainstay of their home.

THURSDAY
SAD BEREAVEMENT.—Rev. Wm. McLeod, Leitcher Creek, C. B., on night of 29th received a telegram from Hantsport, N. S., stating Mrs. Mrs. McLeod's sister's son, Sydney Mosher that day had died of influenza. He had been in khaki since his fall in Aldershot a few miles from his home.

PRISONER OF WAR.—Mr. William Gregory, St. Avaris, Tuesday, received official notice that his son Pte. Frederick Gregory, Infantry, was a prisoner of war at Parchim, wounded. Pte. Gregory enlisted with the 106th and went to France with the first draft. His many friends will hope for his early liberation.

MISS AMY TOOMBS.—The death occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Tuesday night of Miss Amy Toombs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenza Toombs, of North Rustico. Miss Toombs was only 24 years of age and was an undergraduate nurse having been on the staff of the hospital for about a year and a half. By her efficiency and charm of manner she had made many warm friends in this province and the news of her death will be learned with deep regret. During the influenza epidemic Miss Toombs worked very hard, but did not contract the disease. On Saturday, not feeling very well, she went off duty on Monday her illness took a very serious turn and she underwent an operation. This however proved unavailing and she passed away as stated above. There are left to mourn besides her sorrowing parents, three sisters and three brothers. The remains were taken to North Rustico yesterday and the funeral will be held on this afternoon to the Cavendish cemetery.

LEAVING FOR OTTAWA.—Premier Arsenault accompanied by Hon. M. McKinnon leaves for Ottawa on Saturday to attend the conference of Provincial Premiers. Mr. H. H. Shaw acting Superintendent of Education will also go to Ottawa to be present at the conference of Provincial Educational authorities.

HANDSOME SUBSCRIPTION VICTORY BONDS.—The firm of Carvell Bros. on Monday subscribed for fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in Victory Bonds. The application was placed through Mr. J. O. Hyndman, member of the Provincial Executive who is to be congratulated on securing the largest subscription taken in the province. The fact that a firm of Carvell Bros. standing have taken advantage of the opportunity to secure such a safe and profitable investment should be an incentive to others to invest.

WON MILITARY MEDAL.—Mr. W. H. Hogan, Hope River has received notice from Ottawa that his son, Sgt. J. H. Hogan, 8th Siege Battery has been awarded the Military Medal for gallantry on the field of battle. Sgt. Hogan, it will be remembered, was severely gassed on May 31st, the memorable night on which so many other Islanders suffered similarly among them his brother, Gunner L. D. Hogan. Both these young men are now in England undergoing treatment and, it is pleasing to note, both convalescing favorably. The Hogan boys it will also be remembered, are two of triplets, the third, James A. E. being at home on the farm and "keeping the home fires burning." The fact that there is no break in this happy trio is, it is unnecessary to say, a source of great consolation and gratitude to Mr.

YOUR CUP OF TEA

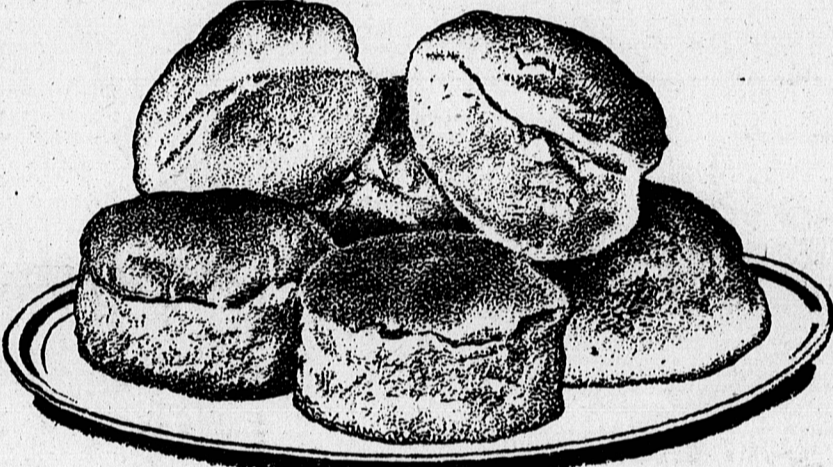

Your cup of Tea means much to you. It is more than an item in the daily fare. It is the one thing that "rounds off"—or spoils—an enjoyable repast. Tea is fortunately so cheap in this country that there are few who cannot afford Choice Tea. The cost per pound is only slightly higher than ordinary Tea, while the increased pleasure you get from every cup you make is worth many times the difference. It is true also, that a FLAVOR-FULL Tea like KING COLE Orange Pekoe will actually spend further—that is, make more cups to the pound. KING COLE Orange Pekoe is prepared particularly for lovers of Choice Tea.

and Mrs. Hogan and family and in their happiness they will have the hearty congratulations of their many friends.

FULLERTON-AGNEW WEDDING.—A pretty home wedding took place yesterday morning at 5.30 at the residence of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Fullerton when their youngest daughter Miss Jean Alma was united in marriage to Mr. Alexander McCullough Agnew, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Agnew, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Dr. Fullerton, father of the bride. Owing to the recent bereavement in the groom's family, the marriage was a quiet one, only immediate relatives being present. The bride who was unattended, looked winsome in a navy blue traveling suit and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums and maiden hair fern. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Agnew left by the morning express on a honeymoon trip. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and handsome gifts, including a set of fox furs from the groom and a plant from the groom's mother. There were also a number of cheques for substantial sums. The Guardian joins in heartfelt congratulations to the young couple.

The Always Dependable Flour

Good Bread and Pastry Always

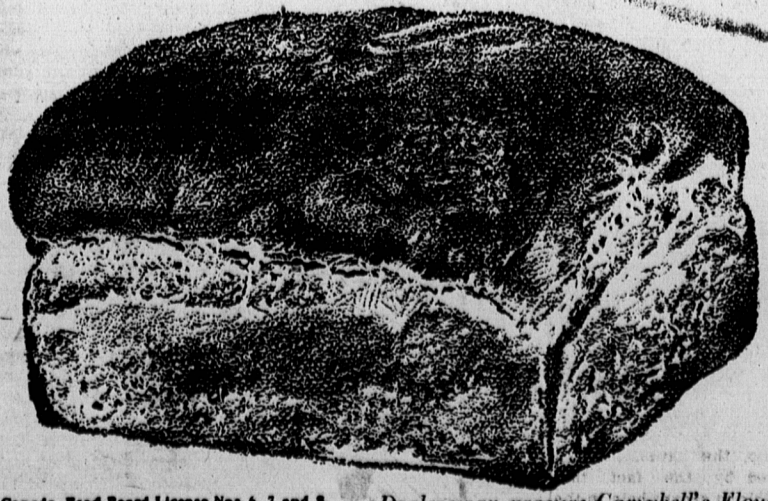

QUEEN CITY FLOUR has the delicacy, the sweet flavor of Ontario Wheat, and the good mixing quality that makes delightful pastry. For bread it contains the exact amount of gluten required to ensure splendid big loaves that rise right up out of the pans. The famous Queen City blend does not vary, because its uniformity is maintained by constant testing of wheat samples in our laboratories.

QUEEN CITY FLOUR

(Milled according to Government Standard)

is a reliable flour for both pastry and bread. Our chemists, trained at the Ontario Agricultural College, make certain that Queen City Flour is never stronger one time and weaker another time, as is the case with ordinary blended flours.

Think of what this means to you. It saves expensive shortening. It saves puzzling disappointments in your baking, for, once you are acquainted with Queen City Flour, you always know what it will do for you. Try it.

Use Campbell's Substitute Flours

The law requires that when wheat flour is used, substitutes must also be used. Campbell's Corn, Barley and Rye flours, in combination with Queen City Flour give best results in baking.
