pariments. He argues that a disastrous fire might cost many times the money saved by crimping the fire department and that a few health officials dismissed to meet the requirements of the shortened budget might easily save the city a terrible epidemic.

Abbies Defeat Crystals, 2-1

Twelve hundred enthusiastic fans, two hundred of whom came from Summerside, saw the Abbeys take their old rivals, the Crystals, into camp last night at the Arena Rink to the tune of a 2 to 1 score. The game was fast throughout, interspersed with numerous penalties, which were about evenly divided between the teams. The Abbeys scored the first goal five minutes after the first period opened when Lawlor bulged the twine on a pass from Saunders. About four minutes later Montgomery evened the score on Schurman's rebound. The winning tally came from Nicholson's stick on a beautiful individual play when the second period was about five minutes old. The third period, though scoreless, produced the best hockey of the evening. It was apparent that the Abbies had the better of the play during the last two periods. During the first period the Summerside boys undoubtedly had a shade on their opponents. Young Lawlor, though small physically, was the high factor in the Abbies' victory last night. Besides scoring the first goal, he was conspicuous in almost every play of the evening, breaking up on numerous occasions the well-organized Crystal attack, with a dangerous poke check. Saunders and Nicholson were each on the ice several places at once and were a constant threat to the Summerside twines, the former with his dangerous shots, the latter on splendid solo runs and brilliant stick handling. Chick Gallant was apparently in the pink, and fast as ever, puzzling the local defence with flashy plays. Schurman and Woodside each played an excellent combination game. Power on the Abegweit defence and Montgomery and Silliphant for the Crystals proved substantial barriers and dangerous men on individual runs. Both goal-tenders were given a busy evening. McEwen stopping twenty-four for the locals to Collings' twenty-six.

SECOND PERIOD

Shortly after the second period opened Nicholson secured the puck near the red line. In the course of his journey he was impeded by several Crystal players, and as a result "took a tumble." Recovering his feet like a flash, he skated through the unprepared defence and slammed the rubber past Collings. For the remainder of the period the Abbies apparently had the better of the play, solo runs by Saunders and good combination featuring. Inaccurate shooting by both sides spoiled many chances for scoring. Long shots by Chick Gallant and Woodside gave McEwen considerable work, however.

THIRD PERIOD

The third period was a busy session for Collings, who was called upon to stop rubber from all angles. Lawlor and Power starred for the locals throughout the stanza, while Schurman and Silliphant put up a splendid offense. The former on one occasion wiggled through the Abegweit defense but tripped thus spoiling what looked like a sure count. The Abegweit forwards again took possession of the puck and again Collings was given a merry few minutes. Abegweit fans were given a few anxious moments in the midst of a mix-up when McEwen was forced down on the ice in order to save Lawlor's poke-check at this time was a bain to Crystal combination. A slight difference between Silliphant and McLellan netted the participants a five minute rest. Another Abegweit player in the pen left four men on the ice, and McEwen with the defence pair in difficulties, but they came through safely.

The lineup was as follows:

Abbies	Goal	Crystals
McEwen	Defense	Collings
McLellan	Montgomery	Cahill
Power	Silliphant	Silliphant
	Forwards	Schurman
Lawlor	Dan Gallant
Saunders	Chick Gallant
Nicholson	Gillis	Holman
Squarebriggs	Dorion	Woodside
Referee—Frank Pidgon.

not refer especially to that. As matters stand the crime syndicate is too powerful for the police force and any weakening of the police force would mean an unrestrained orgy of crime of every description. The three fire boats costing $1,000,000 which protect the great storehouses along the river fronts were put back into service today. These boats are of special value in that they protect property that cannot be reached by the land companies.

Just how Chicago will climb out of its financial morass was more of a problem than ever tonight as Democrats in the City Council started a coalition to override the Mayor's veto of the 1930 budget. The test is expected tomorrow, meanwhile the School Board followed the slashing precedent set by the City Council by lopping twenty-five more jobs from its payroll and eliminating $208,680 more from its budget. This action ran its total elimination to 118 jobs and $656,595.

Chairman Wm. H. Malone of the state tax commission in a reply to the Mayor's charge that re-assessment, and the reformers were the cause of the city's difficulties, countered that extravagance in municipal government was the cause. The order to reassess property in Cook County he said, "merely focused public attention upon a most deplorable condition of squandering and payroll padding which had persisted beyond the limit of human endurance."

ONE VIEW.
 At the same time, Patel's life-long political associations, combined with his dramatic adjournment of the Assembly three years ago when the first Swarajist-home rule-walkout occurred, give grounds for the discussion of some Congressmen why they assert the mandate applies particularly to the president of the Assembly. The statement by Pandit Motilal Nehru yesterday, declaring the Congress boycott of the Legislature, was not merely a temporary measure, strengthens the view of the latter section.

But Patel believes he owes it to all parties in the house who voted him unanimously into the chair, not to take precipitate action amounting to a betrayal of their trust. He will probably consult the party leaders here on this point very soon.
