TONIGHT'S BANQUET—Tonight the Knights of Columbus from all over the Province together with several visiting Knights from other Councils will assemble at 8.15 o'clock at the Victoria Hotel to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the founding of Charlottetown Council No. 834, Knights of Columbus, by the holding of a banquet. As Charlottetown Council is the oldest in the Maritime Provinces, great interest is being manifested in the event and prominent speakers from the three Island Councils will propose and respond to the various toasts. Every arrangement has been made to make this an evening long to be remembered in the annals of Columbianism in the Maritimes, and word has been received from practically all of the charter members now living, that they will be in attendance. A list of the charter members will appear in tomorrow's Guardian. The local committee in charge has given unsparingly of their time and energy to make the occasion a huge success.

OBITUARY

MISS ISABELLE FRAZER

Isabelle Frazer, of East Point, was born in the month of May, 1831, died December 1, 1928, lacking three years and five months of being one hundred years old. Perhaps she was the oldest person in the province. She was born and lived her entire life here in a very small area, spending the last thirteen years in the home of Alfred Frazer and wife, who cared for her during her extreme age and partial helplessness with Christian charity and patience.

Deceased was a member of the Kingsboro Baptist Church for about seventy-five years. She was a grown woman before there was a church organization or building east of Souris, and knew personally every preacher who preached here. She saw the country gradually change from a wilderness to a veritable garden of the gods. She lived to welcome nearly every comfort giving improvement, invention and discovery which the world now enjoys, contributing in no small way to the clearing of the forest and the building of comfortable homes. Her faith was strong, vigorous, and unwavering, and she merely lingered in the border land until the shadows grew a little longer. Funeral services were conducted by the writer, and the body was placed in the Kingsboro Cemetery to await the coming to the Divine Lord who said "I am the resurrection and the life."—R. L. Morton, minister.

At the close of the Meeting a vote of thanks was tendered the President for his work in the interest of the Society during the past year. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Dr. J. A. McPhee. 1st Vice President—George B. McNutt. 2nd Vice President—L. M. McNeill. Secretary—Miss Eleanor Green. Hon. Solicitor—Heath Strong, K. C.

Gentlemen—Rev. J. J. McDonald, Ven. Archdeacon White, Rev. Mr. Adams, Rev. Mr. Jeans, Rev. Mr. Fraser, Rev. Mr. Harding, A. F. Arsenault, J. J. McNally, J. E. Dalton, J. S. Perry.

St. Joachim's church, Vernon River was the scene of a very interesting event on Wednesday morning, Nov. 21st, when Mr. Joseph Morrissey, Barnescliffe, led to the altar Miss Mary Murphy, China Point where their pastor Rev. P. D. MacGuigan united them in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The bride was charmingly attired in peach flat crepe with hat to match and was attended by her cousin, Miss Evelyn Mullins, of Charlottetown, while the groom was assisted by his brother Mr. John E. Morrissey.

After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents, where they partook of a dainty breakfast, after which they spent a few hours motoring through the surrounding districts, returning about 1. P. M. to a sumptuous dinner served to their immediate relatives. After dinner they motored to Charlottetown arriving about 6 P. M. at the home of the groom where a bounteous supper was served to upwards of two hundred guests.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace, to the bridesmaid a gold pendant and chain, and to the groomsmen gold cuff links. The presents received were both costly and numerous testifying to the high esteem in which the young couple are held.

After spending a very enjoyable night in music and dancing, the guests reluctantly departed wishing Mr and Mrs Morrissey many years of martial felicity.

When chefs famous throughout Europe held a banquet in London recently, the favorite food of the gods of gastronomy were revealed. So anxious was M. Georges, in charge of the feast, to live up to the honor of being a chef of chefs that he made a "corner" in European asparagus so delicate that he might have the most delicate tips for garnishings to one of his courses. One of his dishes was fillet of sole served with sauce made of the juice of hot-house grapes, mushrooms and truffles. Another was wing and breast of chicken with the garniture of heart of artichoke, little pieces of chicken, fresh points of asparagus and cream sauce. The dessert was strawberries encased in ice cream, with a cutter layer of cake and a piping hot jacket of egg paste. The menu was long and varied.

RETURNS FROM BRIDGEWATER—Mr. Bruce E. Riggs, who has been the lino-type operator on the Bridgewater "Bulletin," Bridgewater, N. E., for the past six months, has returned to his home in Charlottetown for an extended vacation.

PEAKE'S STATION STUDY GROUP—The second meeting of this Study Group was held in the school, Nov. 26th, at 2 o'clock. Six teachers were present. The chief topic was on the teaching of reading. Several other difficulties in the every day programs were taken up and discussed. It was decided to have no meeting in December. The next meeting will be held in January when the supervisor Mr. Hynes will give a demonstration on the use of the sand table.

BELLEVUE—On Nov. 20th, a delightful social evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John MacPhee, Jr., Bellevue, when their neighbors and other friends gathered to honor them with a post-nuptial shower held under the auspices of the Bellevue Women's Institute. Many pleasing gifts were received.

RENEWED INTEREST IN SPORT—Quite recently the writer had the pleasure of looking over the new rink at North Milton. The good people of this enterprising locality believing that good clean sport is an asset to the community decided that they would build an up to date rink and the result now is that they have erected and equipped possibly one of the best that can be found in any rural section of our province. The ice space is sixty-five feet long enclosed by a substantial fence and fully equipped with a six horse power engine and electric light generator with eighteen one hundred watt lights on the ice. A splendid flooding system from an adjacent stream is operated by gasoline power. The waiting and rest rooms are up to date with cosy home-like fires and in fact every thing in connection with this plant, ensures pleasure and clean recreation to all. The management have decided on three skating nights each week leaving the other nights free for practice and hockey. As these enterprising people have been generous in expenditure to ensure first class sport we bespeak for them the hearty cooperation of the general public. At a recent meeting the North Milton Hockey team was re-organized and now is we believe, in better shape than it has been at any time in the past and judging from the purchase of skates and hockey equipment fans may expect lively times just as soon as our old friend Jack Frost takes matters in hand.—(Patriot Please Copy)

There passed away recently at his home in Cambridge, Mass., Sergeant John T. Hume, a native of Pleasant Valley, P. E. I., aged 47 years. The funeral took place from the Church of Scotland, Hampshire and Prospect Streets, Cambridge, which was filled to overflowing with a sympathizing congregation. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, Pilgrim Lodge, 719, were present in a body, together with the members of Boy's Post 299, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Cambridge and Massachusetts Post, 1399, of East Weymouth, to which the deceased soldier belonged. Divine services were conducted by Rev. J. W. S. Lowry, assisted by the Rev. D. V. O'Meara, of Charlottetown, P. E. I. Comforting Psalms were sweetly sung to plaintive melodies, while two of the Cavalry acted as colour guards beside the remains and Rev. Mr. Lowry delivered an appropriate address on the words in James IV: 14, "What is your life?" after which a short ritual ceremony was conducted by the officers of the Locomotive Engineers, following the removal of the casket from the church, draped with the national colors and a profusion of flowers, the funeral cortege formed in order and marched to Inman Square and from there proceeded to the burial place in Cambridge Cemetery, where a farewell salute of four guns was fired and the bugler sounded the last post.

The deceased came to New England in childhood and had resided in Cambridge and Weymouth ever since. He was twice married, his first wife having passed away while he was serving in the late World War. His second wife, who was Jessie Robertson of Birch Hill, P.

E. I., survives him, also two sisters, Mrs. George Cummings and Mrs. Frank Hayes, both of Cambridge.

During the Spanish American War, the deceased enlisted and served for three years in Cuba and the Philippine Islands, with Troop K, U. S. Cavalry and in the World War with Company D, 14th Engineers, going with the first troops to leave the U. S. A. The deceased soldier was in four or five major engagements in the U. S. Army and also in the British Army, in April, 1918, with the rank of a first class sergeant, and has since been a resident of Cambridge. The deceased soldier was much esteemed by his comrades and by a wide circle of friends and relatives.

Annual Meeting Prince County Children's Aid

The annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society of Prince County was held on Tuesday night in the Town Hall, Summerside, the President Dr. J. A. McPhee presiding.

The President in his annual address reviewed the work of the Society during the past year. He was gratified to see that the monthly meetings had been better attended than any year since the organization of the Society in 1922. The object of the Society was to carry out the provisions of the Children's Protection Act of P. E. Island in receiving and providing homes for neglected and dependent children, to agitate against all that tended to rob the children of their right to grow up in an atmosphere of purity and moral cleanliness, to prosecute parties who had contributed to maintain an educational campaign on subjects relating to Child Protection. He felt that the Children's Aid Society of Prince County had accomplished a great deal and had fully justified its existence. One of the problems which the society had to deal with was "mentally retarded children." They are the most persistent truants, and there should be some sort of an institution, such as an industrial school in the Province where they could be classified and taught as they are not able to keep up with the classes in the Public School. We, in this Province, he considered, should also have a Reformatory, where delinquents could be sent. It was very expensive to have to send delinquent children to Reformatories in the other Provinces, and the Government felt that they could not pay for all that should be sent to an institution of this kind and only the worst cases were therefore able to be sent to Reformatories outside the Province.

The Juvenile Court had been functioning for the past three years. It was a means through which the child is helped, aided and encouraged to a better way of life. He referred to the valuable service rendered by the late Judge McQuarrie who had acted as Judge of the Juvenile Court from its inception until his death last March.

Mr. Ernest H. Strong had acted as Deputy Judge during Judge McQuarrie's illness and had taken great interest in the work and carried the same on most efficiently. Hon. George S. Inman was now Judge of the Juvenile Court and he had been doing excellent work since his appointment. In many cases of delinquency the parents were to blame and they will be held responsible. He thanked the Press for their reports during the year, the Secretary Treasurer of the Society and the Agent for their good work.

At the close of the Meeting a vote of thanks was tendered the President for his work in the interest of the Society during the past year. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—Dr. J. A. McPhee. 1st Vice President—George B. McNutt. 2nd Vice President—L. M. McNeill. Secretary—Miss Eleanor Green. Hon.
