Boys' Serviceable Spring Suits

Parents will appreciate these serviceable, manly garments that commend themselves by the careful tailoring and smart styles. Tailored to stand the wear and tear of growing youngsters; may be had in grays, browns and fancy mixtures; sizes 26 to 32.

It is hard to be extreme in telling you what a good clothing store for boys you have here.

It's looked after—the stocks are bought the patterns watched—the styles inspected by men who know something about what boys like—and what boys' parents want in goodness and wear.

So then—you are invited to see the best range of boys' clothing you will find in town. Bring in the boy and let us try a few suits on him.

A Special Bargain. Boys' gray tweed suit. This dressy suit is tailored from neat patterned Gray Tweeds of good wearing qualities. Materials are of cotton and wool mixtures. Coat is well tailored, belt all round with plain black roomy bloomers, have strap and buckle at knee. Sizes 26 to 31, suitable for ages 8 to 13. Good value at $6.00

M. Ignace replied in tones of gentle reproof that the articles were in the hands of the judiciary, and that, under the rules, it would be quite impossible to part with them until the case was past the appeal stage. Then M. Clemenceau, who is an enemy of red tape, did what in French is described as an "efficacious act," the nature of which is not specified, but may be surmised. His garments came back the same day.

The French are a thrifty race, and are expert clothes menders. The bullet holes can be "stopped" so as to defy detection, and the coat will be as good as ever. That is M. Clemenceau's opinion.

Premier CLEMENCEAU INSISTS ON WEARING STILL SHORT OVERCOAT

PARIS, April 4.—Correspondence of the Associated Press.—While clothes are so expensive I am not going to indulge in the luxury of a new overcoat just because Cottin has shot a few holes in my old overcoat. Premier Clemenceau is reported to have said.

The "Tigers" jacket and overcoat, both showing bullet holes, were pieces of evidence that had to be produced at the trial of his would-be murderer, Emile Cottin. M. Clemenceau, however, happens to be particularly fond of those garments, and he asked M.
