HALLOWEEN

Darkness falling everywhere Lighted pumpkins gleam and glare Timid souls to josh and scare 'Tis Halloween

Witches ride 'neath starry height, Elf, goblin, spook and sprite Wander here and there all night On Halloween

Owls come hooting 'round about Unseen voices scream and shout, 'Tis a mystic night, no doubt, On Halloween

Little folks, you will agree, Are as merry as can be, Playing tricks with impish glee, On Halloween

As we see them at their play, Come thoughts of a by-gone day, When we were as bad as they On Halloween -Mrs. Raney Gallant

District Convention In Harrington Hall

The convention opened at Harrington Hall, Thursday, October 10th at 2:30 p.m. with Mrs. Preston Rodd, President, in the chair. The program was as follows: Opening chorus--Island Hymn. The Institute Ode. The Creed, repeated in unison. Roll call. Address of welcome--Mrs. Newson, Harrington. Reply--Mrs. Neil Darrach, East Royalty. Minutes of 1934 convention--Miss Laura Cullen, Secretary. Reports of year's work by secretaries of Institutes. Election of officers--President, Mrs. Mildred R. Ross, Stanhope; Vice President, Mrs. A. MacDonald, Stanhope; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. John Hardy, Pleasant Grove; Courtesy and Resolution Committee, Mrs. John T. Ferguson, Mrs. Alec McNevin, Mrs. Fred Gates. Closing with "God Save the King." There was a fine display of beautiful hooked rugs and a table of antiques and objects of art by Harrington Institute. Stanhope Institute invited the convention for 1936. Miss Mary Ferguson was organist. The following resolutions were passed: 1. Whereas the Women's Institutes were largely influential in obtaining the Sanatorium in this Province. Therefore be it resolved that these Institutes in convention continue their efforts in support of this worthy institution. 2. Whereas our organization realizes the enviable position of the Institute with regard to the gift of the Carnegie Foundation in placing so many libraries at the disposal of all rural people. Therefore be it resolved that we give our whole-hearted support to the furtherance of this wonderful institution. 3. Whereas this district convention has been a most enjoyable and educational one for all. Therefore be it resolved to extend our heartfelt appreciation to our hostesses, the Harrington Institute, and each and every one who helped in any way to make this district convention the success it has been.

IN MEMORIAM

WESTON ALEXANDER McLEOD

Mount Hope, King's County, and surrounding communities, were deeply shocked when it was learned that Weston Alexander, dearly beloved son of James and Mary McLeod, had passed away on Sept. 27th at the early age of 14 years. Deceased was a youth of pleasing personality and winning disposition that endeared him to old and young alike. At school he was a general favorite, being gifted with a pleasing voice and a natural aptitude for music made him a favorite and welcome contribution to all local entertainments. He will be greatly missed among the younger circle but especially at home for his sterling worth besides his pleasing manner. About three weeks before his death he contracted scarlet fever but his robust disposition seemed sure to overcome the disease. But when his condition was discovered to be serious no expense was spared in medical advice and attention to spare him to those he loved. But Providence ordained otherwise and called him home to himself on the above mentioned date. His funeral was held the following afternoon and despite the short notice quite a large number of carriages formed the cortege. The services at the home and grave were conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. Pirih of Dundas United Church, who spoke comforting words that were consoling to the bereaved. He leaves to mourn besides his heart broken parents, four brothers and three sisters, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McLean of Albion Cross, and a host of friends who will long cherish his memory. The pall bearers were Messrs. Hugh McLean, Angus McLean, Raymond McDonald, Miles McPherson, James Cahill and Frank Curran. Hearse driver, Alex McKinnon.

ROY S. JOLLYMORE

PICTOU, Oct. 25--Roy Stewart Jollymore, youngest son of Isaac Jollymore, and one of six sons who served their country overseas, was instantly killed in Boston on Oct. 18, while covering up an old elevator on the fourth floor of Hovey's building on Summer Street. He and another man were on a plank when the plank broke and they fell. The other man caught something and saved himself but Roy fell to the cellar, landing on a lot of metal. His head was badly cut and his body badly bruised. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital but was dead before leaving the building. Mr. Jollymore was born in Pictou 39 years ago and entered Pictou Academy when very young. After school hours he worked at the Western Union and learned quickly and was given a job with the C. P. R. office in Pictou. After two years he went to Saint John and learned wireless telegraphy; then he went north. At 18 years of age he was given charge of the wireless station on the Magdalen Islands, which position he held until he enlisted for overseas service with the 64th battalion. While carrying despatches over No Man's Land at the battle of Ypres he was severely wounded in the head. He was taken to King Edward Hospital in London, and there met the doctor whom he was called for--Dr. Stewart the doctor at his birth. Dr. Stewart recognized him and gave him every attention. He was the only Canadian in the hospital; the others were all Australians. After a year he came home and held a job as operator in New Glasgow station. After some years he was transferred to Charlottetown, P. E. I. On account of trouble from his head wound he left the telegraph service and went to Boston, where he got a job as foreman with a construction company and helped remodel many important buildings, including New Street Station, City Hall, a new school at Somerville, Mass., and many others. Many Pictou County men worked with him. He leaves a wife, who was May Jamieson of Guysboro, and two sons, Roy Jr. and Chester II. He also leaves three brothers, Major Warren Jollymore of New Glasgow, Purcell of Petit de Grat, C. B. and Raymond, of Kentville, and one sister, Mrs. James Heighton, of Pictou, who visited him last summer. The remains were taken home on Saturday to Jamaica Plains and the funeral was held on Monday from St. James' Anglican Church to Forest Hill Cemetery, Boston.

ENEMY SOLDIERS MEET AT SMOKER

REGINA, Oct. 30 -- Men who twenty years ago faced each other across No Man's Land stood together here recently in the spirit of friendship and talked over the days when they fought each other on the shell swept battlefields. The occasion was an "international" smoker held by the Regina unit of the Army and Navy Veterans. Marking the spirit of goodwill, former British soldiers stood to attention while the German national anthem was played. German soldiers applauded a French speech, and Canadians and Bavarians swapped reminiscences in a haze of tobacco smoke. Over 175 guests and members were in attendance, and the spirit of the gathering was stressed by the president, A. C. Boe, when he said, "If all the nations of the world could meet together in the same spirit we have here, it would not be hard to solve the difficulties of the world today."

TOY CANNON KILLS BOY OF GLASGOW

GLASGOW, Oct. 30--A five year old Glasgow boy, Norman Murdoch, died recently as the result of an unusual mishap while he was playing with a toy cannon. It appears that a pea was discharged from the barrel and lodged in the boy's windpipe. Several hours later he died from asphyxiation and convulsions. The boy, who lived with his grandparents at 28 French street,

MODERN CHINESE WOMAN PICTURED

(By The Canadian Press) SASKATOON, Oct. 30--The emancipation of Chinese women is now an established fact, and although comparatively recent is complete, stated Miss Florence Kirk, English teacher in Ginling College, Nanking, China, while here on furlough after three years spent in the east. Many married women in China continue with their careers, she said. In China today she found there is pressing need of trained workers, and men are only too willing to welcome women to jobs which they can fill. China's employment problem for educated young people is non-existent, she stated. She added there are two graduates for every graduate of the college in which she teaches. In 1911 the formation of the Chinese republic opened the way for Chinese women to gain their freedom, Miss Kirk stated, and they have made rapid progress since then. In many ways she found the women more enterprising than the men, especially in assimilating new ideas. Students come to Ginling college from all parts of China, Miss Kirk said, and they speak so many dialects that they are often forced to converse with each other in English. In many parts of China English appears to be almost a second tongue.

At a field meeting in Nanking, she said, the government, in an attempt to make the gathering of a truly national character, decreed no English would be used by speakers. The audience was confused by the different dialects and totally unable to understand the addresses. The speakers were forced to revert to English. China's anti-foreign feeling is rapidly fading, she stated, especially toward the British.

LOGGER MAKES RECORD CLIMB

(By The Canadian Press) DUNCAN, B. C., Oct. 30 -- Roy Augustin, "ambusher" at a logging company near here, descended the steep mountain grade from the camp, a distance of 4,200 feet and a drop of 1,700 feet, climbed back to the camp and descended again in 28 1-2 minutes. The grade varies from 50 to 67 1-2 per cent and although Augustin is over 50 years of age he seemed to experience no difficulty in accomplishing this feat and climbed back to the camp for work again the next morning at 4 a. m. Fellow employees of the camp challenge all comers to beat Augustin's time.

SHEEP RANCHING PROVES SUCCESS

(By The Canadian Press) INDIAN HEAD, Sask., Oct. 30 -- Sheep ranching in Saskatchewan is proving a very lucrative sideline for farmers, and is also a rapid source of revenue. Joe Williams, local farmer and owner of 700 head, stated from his experience that the outfit is small and the turnover quick. He found the animals want through light pasture years in excellent condition and appear adapted to Saskatchewan grazing lands. Almost 5,000 head of sheep are now in pasture in the area surrounding here, and the number of farmers taking to sheep ranching is increasing every year.
