PROHIBITION INSPECTOR ARRESTED.—The Guardian received reports yesterday that on Saturday night last, a disturbance occurred in Souris resulting in the arrest of Mr. Kays, Prohibition Inspector. Finally, exasperated beyond endurance, it is said, he struck one of the mob, a man named Cheverie on the mouth with the butt end of a revolver. The police called and he was arrested on the charge of assault. He is, now out on bail. It is the general opinion that the fault was not on Mr. Kays' part. Historical Celebration thirty years. They are all faithfully recorded in the Book of Life whose pages we may one day read in wonder, understanding and praise. It is enough for us to bear a worthy tribute to this life of noble men and women of God who labored so loyally in the years gone by, and pray God that their mantle may fall upon us their spiritual children.

Thus from these early weak beginnings, from an initial group of nine members has grown this Church with a present membership of 340. Statistics are no measure of the power and influence of an organization of this nature whose aims are spiritual. These unseen streams of power reach out into the earth to the uttermost parts.

Here our children have learned many of their first lessons of Christian truth. Young men and maidens have here caught a vision and grasped christian ideals which have moulded their lives. Here men and women have found guidance and strength for the stress of duty.

The aged have found comfort, the perplexed have seen light; the sad have been cheered, while the prodigal has heard the gentle call of a Father and has come back to his home. From this church have gone forth missionaries and ministers to the great promotional work of God's Kingdom. What a worthy task of wide reaching influence and blessing!

While numerically weak in Prince Edward Island, being only about 6 per cent. of the population, we are members of a great Christian Denomination having a world wide constituency of 40 to 50 millions.

The two strongest Protestant groups in the world are the Baptists and Methodists. Before the recent church union movement we were the largest Protestant body in the Maritime Provinces. We think of ourselves in no exclusive or superior sense as Christians, but humbly claim our place with other Christian Denominations as one church family group, one branch of the Great Head, which in the providence of God has prospered abundantly.

The growth of this Baptist body continues apace. Coming as one of the historic religious bodies out of the great Reformation, as a small despised and persecuted group, we have today a world membership of approximately 10 millions.

Our greatest strength and most prodigious growth has been in United States. The figures below are eloquent as to this progress:

In 1800 there were 100,000 Baptists in U. S.

In 1890 there were 1,000,000 Baptists in U. S.

In 1925 there were 8,200,000 Baptists in U. S.

In 1800 there was one Baptist to every 53 of the population. In 1900 there was one Baptist to every 18 of the population and in 1925 there was one Baptist to every 13 of the population.

Today in sections of Russia and in some of the newer democracies of Central Europe our work is making great strides and religious groups with beliefs and practices similar to ours are affiliating with our body.

As we endeavor to account for this remarkable growth and development we may correctly state that there is that in the message of this body especially emphasized which meets with a ready response to this age when the cry for spiritual liberty, religious equality and fraternity, still voice the sentiments of a striving humanity. In our little local church democracy there is the acknowledgment of the fact that One Great Head of the Church, The Lordship of Christ and the democracy of all believers is a cher-bulle common to all.
