Comedy, Power, Pathos!

The heart of a boy... the soul of a girl... the courage of a mother... it will tug at your heart strings.

'Over the Hill' Is Year's Best Film

'Over the Hill', now playing the Prince Edward as, beyond doubt, far and away the finest human drama since the advent of talkies.

A complete modernized version of a classic of American poetry, it runs like music across the heartstrings. A cross-section of a growing family, it is overflowing with the full flavor of life—drama, comedy and pathos in a perfect harmony of the human heart.

James Dunn and Sally Eilers, who, we had thought, hit the top in 'Bad Girl' give a performance as the young lovers in this picture that will stand as a goal for a long time to come. Dunn has something close to genius in his ability to make us feel what a young man is up against in life today. And Miss Eilers is a team-mate worthy of him in every respect.

Perhaps most astounding of all, however, is the unbelievable performance given by Mae Marsh. Re-creating the screen, which she left twelve years ago for motherhood, Miss Marsh opens the true depths of a mother's heart for all to see. She lives the throbbing heart of motherhood on the screen.

Especially deserving of credit also are James Kravetz, Olin Howland, Claire Maynard, Edward Grandall, Eula Guy, Joan Peers and William Pawley.

'Over the Hill' is a picture for everyone, a picture of your own heart and family—a picture that will be stored in memory for years to come.

MURRAY HARBOR NOTES

On the evening of January 27th, the home of Mrs. A. S. Prowse was bright with party festivities. Miss Audrey, eldest daughter of the home, was hostess to a number of her friends. Miss Margaret White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colon White, Murray Harbor, was the guest of honor. Since the Christmas season Margaret has been spending a vacation with her parents, but on Friday morning left for Concord, New Hampshire, where she will resume her studies at the Concord Business College. Her friends wish her every success.

During the last two weeks most of the roads in Murray Harbor and surrounding districts have been open to cars.

On Saturday, January 23rd, Mr. F. W. LeGachour and friends motored to Charlottetown and home again. Roads were not very pleasant for motoring, but the trip was urgent and was made without any major difficulties.

Mrs. G. R. Prowse of Murray Harbor has been spending a few days with her sisters, Miss Fernie Turdeck, Mrs. Nell McLean, and

Dr. Wood's Turned Blue In The Face He Coughed So Hard. Mr. Joseph Landhardt, Melville, Sask., writes: "Last winter I had such a bad cold, when I started coughing I would turn blue in the face. I went to the druggist and asked him what I could do for it, and he handed me a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. When I had finished it I felt a lot better, so I got another one and after that was finished I never had another cough all winter." Price 35c. a bottle; large family size 65c.; at all drug and general stores; put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

British Duties Felt By Dutch

MONCTON, N. B., Feb. 1.—The duties imposed by Great Britain are being felt severely by the people of Holland and the matter is receiving serious consideration by the authorities in Holland, declared Herr Van der Zalm, of the firm of N. C. Van der Zalm and Son, wholesale bulb growers and exporters, Noordwijkerhout, Holland, who arrived in Moncton on the Ocean Limited of the Canadian National Railways from Halifax and Truro on a business trip to Canada and the United States. He will go from Moncton to Saint John and thence to Montreal and from there will visit United States centres. His firm does an annual bulb business with Canada to the value of about $40,000, and this is his tenth yearly trip to Canada.

Speaking of conditions in Holland he said that the gulder has remained stable so far but that the world wide depression has affected business generally throughout Holland. The farmers, he said, are in a particularly bad way as they are unable to find a market for their products which heretofore they had shipped in large quantities to Great Britain. Communism, he continued, has made its appearance in some of the larger centres in Holland but does not appear to be making any headway. Socialism, however, is gaining strength and is permeating the masses. A man with a family out of work in Holland receives a dole from the government of about fifteen dollars per week.

Just before coming to Canada Mr. Van der Zalm made a trip through Germany and he found that conditions there were in bad shape. From what he saw he is of the opinion that Germany is really unable to make the payments demanded under the treaty of Versailles. He did military duty on the boundary between Holland and Germany during the war and remarked on the contrast in the military spirit during the first days of the war, towards its close and at the present time. He related an episode he witnessed while on the frontier post wherein a German officer assaulted a soldier without justification, but this is no longer done. He did not see any evidences of the old military spirit in Germany and they do not want the Kaiser back. He saw ex-Kaiser Wilhelm at Doorn about three weeks ago and stated he was looking pretty frail. The people of Doorn and district surrounding seem to be glad to have the former Kaiser in their midst.

While in Moncton Mr. Van der Zalm made a visit to the Canadian National Railways' greenhouse from which flowers are distributed each Spring to the various stations, round-houses, shops, etc., on the Atlantic Region of the railway, and commented upon the number of plants being grown under cover for distribution during the coming season. Some forty thousand of these plants are distributed on the Atlantic Region each year. His firm has about two hundred acres of land in Holland and harvests millions of bulbs per year. The crop last year was poor owing to a wet season in the Fall when the bulbs were planted but with more favorable weather prevailing this year a better crop is expected. Daffodils and crocuses, he stated, are shipped in August while gladioli and petunias are shipped from about the present time until April.

In conversation with A. W. MacKenzie, Superintendent of Agriculture for the Maritime Provinces of the Canadian National Railways, Mr. Van der Zalm stated the adverse conditions existing in Holland at the present time are turning the attention of farmers there to Canada and in his opinion the Maritimes would seem to be the most desirable portion of Canada to locate in. Several Dutch families have already been settled on farms in the Maritimes and they are proving very successful.

BRINGING UP FATHER

IN MEMORIAM

THE LATE ALFRED EDWARD DEWAR

At an early hour Saturday morning Mr. Alfred E. Dewar, formerly one of the leading dairymen and fruit growers in the Maritime Provinces, passed away at his home, 86 Fitzroy Street, in this city.

For a number of years Mr. Dewar had not been in very robust health but was able to be up and around until about two months ago when his illness took a more serious turn. Since then he has been gradually failing until he passed peacefully away. For many years he had been a sufferer from bronchitis and had taken trips to the United States, having spent several winters in Washington.

Mr. Dewar was born at Highland Farm, Cross Roads, Lot 48, the son of the late John Dewar, A. younger brother, John Robert, died about forty-five years ago. For a number of years he and his father and his two brothers, Peter and Harding, carried on farming on a large scale. They owned three hundred acres and devoted special attention to dairying, having from fifty to fifty-five head of cattle, and at one time being among the most prominent dairymen of Eastern Canada. They also carried on fruit growing very extensively.

In 1901 they sold Highland Farm and purchased "Newlands" just outside of Charlottetown, the magnificent property owned by the late Malcolm MacLeod. Here they continued fruit growing successful, and extensively, producing apples, plums and strawberries. Ill health compelled Mr. Dewar's retirement from active work and he removed to Charlottetown four years ago.

For many years he took an active part in the development of various phases of our agricultural industry. He was one of the promoters of the Fruit Growers' Association, being secretary when the late Rev. Dr. A. E. Burke was President and succeeding the latter in that office. He was also President of the Dairymen's Association, President of the Potato Growers' Association for seven or eight years, President of the Hazelbrook Cheese and Butter Factory, and held important offices in other agricultural organizations.

He was a well recognized authority on dairying, fruit growing and agriculture generally and had given evidence before royal commissions held here. He was a man of an exceptional high order of intelligence and always kept himself abreast of the times by constant study and reading. As a speaker he was direct, frank and fearless. A man of strict integrity, he believed in "hewing to the line and letting the chips fall where they may."

He was a faithful member of the Disciples of Christ and for many years was a deacon in the Central Christian Church, Charlottetown. He was actively interested in the construction of that building and one of the strongest supporters of that church. He was deeply interested in missions and to that cause and other worthy causes gave liberally of his means.

He was reserved and unostentatious in manner, thoroughly sincere and was ever a valiant defender of the right as he saw it.

His father died about twenty years ago, and his mother, nee Jessie Stewart of South Lake, who was in her 100th year, died four years ago.

He was unmarried and his immediate surviving relatives are two brothers, Peter at Newlands, Harding in Charlottetown, a nephew, George F. Dewar, and a niece, Mrs. J. C. Stewart at Newlands.

"And what," asked the king of the Cannibal Islands, in his kindest tones on New Year's Day, "was your business before you were captured by my men?" "I was a newspaper man," answered the captive. "An editor?" "No, merely a sub-editor." "Cheer up, young man! Promotion awaits you. After dinner you shall be editor-in-chief."

Royal Canadian Police Promotions

(Canadian Press) OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 1.—Superintendent G. L. Jennings, commanding the Toronto Division of the Canadian Mounted Police, has been appointed Director of the Criminal Investigation Branch in Ottawa. It was announced here Saturday. He is also promoted to the rank of Assistant Commissioner.

Inspector C. H. King, in command of the Calgary Division is appointed to succeed Superintendent Jennings and is promoted to the rank of superintendent. Superintendent H. M. Newson, present director of the Criminal Investigation Branch here, is appointed to command the Alberta R. C. M. P., who are taking over the police work in that Province and assumes the rank of Assistant Commissioner.

Despite the quick disappearance of the snow and continued bad roads, the mail men of this vicinity, are still doing their work faithfully and well.

Although depression is talked of in this locality, Mr. Brent O'Hanley (local merchant) Cable Head East is doing a rushing business.

A cribbage contest was organized recently in this vicinity, by Mr. Joseph O'Hanley for the purpose of passing away the long winter nights.

ONTARIO OVERDRAFT FOR 1931 $30,000,000

Ontario's accumulated unpaid short term bank loan, corresponding to Quebec's overdraft of $14,000,000, amounted at the end of the last fiscal year to $30,000,000. The loan just floated by Provincial Treasurer Hon. E. A. Dunlop will meet $25,000,000 of these short term loans, but since the end of the fiscal year there has been added $10,000,000 on account of unemployment, northern development, and other grants, which will bring province will take only the $25,000,000 stipulated.

The Chew for You. HICKEY & NICHOLSON'S BLACK TWIST CHEWING. "I do secretarial work, and therefore lead a more or less sedentary life," writes Miss L. M. A. "I find a small dose of Kruschen Salts every morning keeps me perfectly fit and in good condition. My normal weight is 116 lbs., and having taken Kruschen Salts regularly for three years, I never put on surplus weight." "You cannot put on superfluous flesh when you are as healthy and active as you must be if you take Kruschen Salts. Activity is the enemy of fat. When you take vitalizing Kruschen Salts for a few days that old indolent arm-chair feeling deserts you—it doesn't matter how fat you are—the urge for activity has got you—and you're 'stepping lively.'" "And best of all you like this activity—you walk a couple of miles and enjoy it—you thought you'd never dance again, but you find you're getting as spry as ever—the old tingling, active feeling reaches even your feet." "One bottle is enough to prove to you that Kruschen will make you feel younger—spryer—more energetic—you'll enjoy life—every minute of it."
