

QUADRAPOLE PITCHING NEWS

Wendell Morrissey, Royalty, who loves a horse as much as anyone we know of, was greeted by the arrival of a third foal from his good brood mare Maud Moko 2:18 last Sunday. Peculiarly, Maud has all her foals on Sundays. She was sired by Gay Moko 2:16, bred by Fred Foster, Kingston, N.S., and took her record at Woodstock, N.B., September 10th, 1930.

Had a card from R.L. Todd, who many horsemen will remember as the owner of Single Todd, 2:15 1-2. Johnny Conroy gave a record to some ten or more years ago. Mr. Todd is located in Boston and is the owner of Todd's trotting moose team, which weigh 850 lbs. each and perform hooked to sulky on race tracks. He claims they are faster than Greyhound 1:55 1-4.

An airman friend writes us from Toronto that he spent an enjoyable afternoon in Chappy Chapman's truck room at Weston track. "The little Giant" has ten head with last year's pacing derby winner, Miss Vera Bars 2:08 1-2 and that great young colt Dr. Lee 2:11, as headliner. His stable is all set for across the line as is also that of Hillock and Harry Fields. Quite a number of Ontario horses are staked in the great U. S. A. Opinion there seems to favor Highland Worthy 2:07 1-4 for the Maritime Free for All. He writes: "I have freed for my furlough in August. Thumbs crossed! Hope to be seeing you Old Home Week, no need to furnish card, could not forget them if I tried."

R. E. MacKenzie, noted athlete and authority on athletics and also popular sports columnist of the Montreal N.S., has forwarded us an account of a race which took place in the long ago but is still remembered by hundreds of people in New Glasgow, Pictou, Truro, Westville and quite a number in Charlottetown. The following is a very graphic description of it.....

"Fifty-two years ago last February, or to be exact February 19th, 1892 possibly the greatest race that ever took place in the Maritimes, was featured on Pictou Harbor ice by two most outstanding colts, driven by the most astute drivers of their time, namely, Al Slipp of Truro and P. S. Brown of Charlottetown. Newton Lee of Truro who emigrated in the eighties from P.E.I. and who conducted a successful hotel and livery stable opposite Truro station, imported the standard bred stallion Bright from one of the leading stock farms in the U. S. A. Bright was the sire of Lucy Gerrick, the brown filly who was one of the principals in the marvelous race told of in this story.

When Mr. Lee journeyed to the United States to ship his colt, the former owner, Mr. Murray, suggested that he be named Bright, as he had no hesitation in saying that the great colt was the only piece of horseflesh he had raised on his farm that was perfect and had no faults. When Lucy Gerrick was three years old Mr. Lee announced in the Canadian Press that he was willing to wager up to $1,000, that the filly could out-race any colt in Canada half-mile beats on the track or on the ice. The late William Glasgow, who had been suggested to Malcolm G. MacLeod that they wire Mr. Lee accepting the challenge for $200 providing that James Kitchin of River John would provide to this colt Wildflower competing. Mr. Lee accepted and Mr. Kitchin agreed that his filly should start providing Mr. Gammon would look after the wager.

Consultations were made by Messrs. Gammon and MacLeod with some horsemen great of that day and generation, namely, Hector T. Sutherland, James A. Fraser, Duncan Cummings and Hugh Murray, the latter of whom was then proprietor of the Northk Hotel and owner of Sleepy John. They approved of the race and felt that would be a definite success. The date, the colts arrived at Pictou right after the meeting to be lined up for the event. Mr. Kitchin instructed the caretaker of Wildflower to the Carroll barn and Mr. Lee instructed Slipp to have Lucy Gerrick stabled at the barn of the late Charles Rhude.

The afternoon before the great contest took place Wildflower was in the Stud KING SPRUCE 2:08 1-2, Sire, Hedgewood Boy 2:01, dam, Pet Moser King Spruce will stand at owner's home and will meet mares not farther than 10 miles out. Fee $10.00, $5.00 cash and $5.00 when mares prove in foal. Owner in charge. ADE MacDONALD, St. Catharines, P. E. I.

Simcoe Harvester 6318 2:04 1-4 (half mile track) Will stand for the season of 1942 at O'Brien stables, Alberton. Fee $20.00. Mares taken care of on pasture $1.00 per week. Harry Giddings of Toronto, owner of the King's Plate winner Ten seemed to be a bit off-color, but under the watchful eye of her groom, Mr. Henry of River John, who had many years of experience with American trainers as well as the famous Pictou reinsman, Peter Carroll, she was straightened out and appeared comfortable ere the shades of night had arrived. There was no definite decision regarding who would drive Wildflower until the evening before the race, but finally Mr. Gammon, who had put up the $300 made the suggestion that P. S. Brown was the logical reinsman to drive the filly in such an important event. Mr. Gammon was the father of the late Spurgeon Gammon, who has been prominently recognized as one of the Maritime's greatest authorities on harness racing and highly gifted as a turf writer.

The following day, long ere race time, people were arriving by every mode of conveyance and great excitement prevailed at and around Pictou Market Wharf where the finish was to be, with the starting line at Norway Point. The race was to be half-mile heats and the winner of the race had to win three heats. The first four were eye-lash finishes. Slipp with Lucy Gerrick won the first heat. Brown with Wildflower won the second. Slipp with Truro won the third and fourth. The fifth heat was a dead heat. Mr. Gammon asked Mr. Brown how Wildflower was standing the terrific strain to which she was subjected. He replied, "Marvelously, but her quartern hooves seem to be chafing her slightly." Mr. Gammon examined the boots and replied, "You are right, P.S." Turning to Mr. Lee he said, "Newt, I think you better win the race as the quarter boots seem to be chafing her." Mr. Lee said, "It is a pleasure to loan you a pair of dry quarter boots." Mr. Gammon thanked Mr. Lee for his kindness and good sportsmanship and accepted the boots.

Equipped with these Wildflower seemed in fine trim for another heat. "P. S." who had not been neglecting the financial side of the affair, whispered to supporters of Wildflower that he would win this sixth heat of the race. He had carefully observed the track and noticed a piece of shell ice about 150 yards from the wire. As the colts were trotting neck and neck in the sixth heat the astute "P. S." pulled slightly to the left and the great Frederickton stallion Slipp unconsciously pulled Lucy Gerrick also to the left, the sulky runner struck the shell ice and the Truro colt made a jump. That was enough with Wildflower to win the heat and race.

Dismounting, both drivers shook hands and Al Slipp as a high-toned gentleman in the air and noticed saying, "P. S. you won a wonderful race with a wonderful colt, and you undoubtedly teamed her cleverly." "P. S." turned remarked, "This was a very fine race to win and a tough one to lose, but you have always been the toughest nut in the East to win a race from, Al."

When the old veterans of Pictou, New Glasgow and Truro met to talk over by-gone days of horse racing the above event is one that constantly recurs in their memories—the great race of 1892, competed in by two stables, the Truro, Lucy Gerrick and Wildflower, driven by the greatest drivers of their time, Ex-Mayor P. S. Brown of Charlottetown, and Al Slipp of Fredericton, N.B.

They are stepping it up a bit at the Charlottetown track. Millie Kalmuck has been a couple of very fine race to win and a tough one to lose, but you have always been the toughest nut in the East to win a race from, Al."

Harness racing has gotten away to a good start in Ontario. Two big meetings were staged May 25th. In looking over the summaries our readers must remember that the harness race had been going it all winter taking part at the race meetings in Toronto, in fact the race here never had a let up from last year, many of them racing all fall. At Wallaceburg there were three events with purses of $300.00 each. The 2:15 Trot and Pace was won by Beatrice Lee after Tony Direct had won the first heat, best time 2:11. The 2:24 Trot and Pace had three heat winners and was declared a finished. Floxy Milk won the first heat in 2:15, Della Lockhart the second in 2:15 and Sir John the third in 2:16. The 2:28 Trot and Pace was won by Beulahdale in straight heats, best time 2:22.

At New Hamburg there were four classes of two heats each, the first heat a mile and the second a half mile. Texas McKinney won the first heat of the 2:25 class in 2:24. In Grattan the second in 1:06 3-4. The 2:17 Class was won by Winston Grattan, that raced so well over the last winter. He headed Peter Direct, Irene Hester and Archdale Grattan, time 2:17 1-4, 1:05 1-4. The 2:22 Class was won by Lee McKillop with Chappy Chapman. Ray Peters had the same summary 2-1, time 2:19 1-4, 1:05. The Free for All was won by Lastic Grattan with a summary of 3-1. Babe Grattan 1-4, Leah Guy 3-2, June Grattan 4-3, time, 2:18 3-4, 1:04 1-4. All four of the above are top line stars, highly staked for this season's racing, steeds that you could not buy unless you put down real money. Lastic Grattan has a record of 2:04 3-4, Leah Guy of 2:04 1-2, Grattan 2:11 1-4, June Grattan 2:08 1-2. The above are just two of many summaries raced on the holiday date. They show that the Ontario horsemen get ready early and race all through the year.

Cubs Snap Dodgers Win Streak By Gaining Even Split In Doubleheader

NEW YORK, June 5—(AP)—Three pitchers and two catchers couldn't put down a 10th inning uprising by Chicago Cubs who rallied for a 4-3 decision over Brooklyn Dodgers in the second game of a doubleheader today after the National League leaders had won the curtain raiser 6-3.

Phil Cavaretta took personal charge of the proceedings which gave the Cubs an even break and snapped Brooklyn's four-game winning streak. He drove in the tying run in the eighth inning with a long fly that followed Stan Hack's two-bagger and a sacrifice, and doubled home the winning run in the 10th.

Phil held the Cubs to five hits through nine innings of the nightcap but Hiram Bithorn who replaced Les Fleming as the Cub pitcher in the eighth, cracked a double in the 10th with one man out. Hack was passed purposely and Hugh Casey relieved Head, yielding a scratch single to pinch hitter Don Dalesandro which filled the bases. That brought Larry French to the mound for the Dodgers and when Bob Sturgeon ran for Bithorn Mickey Owen took over the catching chores from Billy Sullivan. Owen called for a pitch-out and poked Sturgeon off third, but Cavaretta dropped a looping double into short left field and Hack galloped home with the winning run.

Pirates Break Losing Streak
Pittsburgh Pirates finally broke their 10-game losing streak, beating Philadelphia Phillies 6-5 but having to come from behind twice to do so.

The Phils made five errors, shortstop Bobby Bragan committing three of them.

Reds Beat Braves Twice
Cincinnati Reds, concentrating their batting power in two innings, swept a doubleheader with Boston Braves 2 and 6-1.

The innings were the last of the first game, when a two-run rally brought the Reds from behind to give Johnny Vander Meer his 12th victory, and the first of the nightcap when they scored six runs to start Ray Starr to his seventh triumph.

BETTER LEARN CARE OF SHOES
There's going to be a lot more walking the tire and gasoline situation being what it is. That won't hurt any one, but it does bring to the fore the question of being well equipped to ensure a good fit, will mean added life to shoes.

Regular polishing is a first rule in making shoes last longer, because good polish feeds the leather, makes it pliable and protects it. Wet shoes are easily put out of shape, so rubbers and gaiters should be worn in wet weather. When shoes get wet and muddy, wash off the mud with a damp cloth and wipe them dry. Insert straws or trees or stuff well with newspaper and dry slowly but completely, away from heat, and polish as soon as they are dry.

When shoes are not being worn, they should be kept in shape with shoe trees, and don't forget that good repairing extends their life. Replace shoes just as soon as the outer ones wear through and have the heels straightened before the last is worn crooked.

Lawsuit Will Not Worry Louis Until After War Ends

CHICAGO, June 5—(AP)—Judge John Prysalski ruled today that Opl. Joe Louis Barrow, world champion heavyweight boxer now stationed at Camp Upton, N.Y., need not defend an attorney's suit for $150,000 fees until after the war.

The ruling was based upon a recently enacted federal law providing relief from legal controversies for men in the armed forces. Attorney Bindley Criss brought the suit to collect payment for handling a divorce action brought against Barrow by his wife, Mrs. Marva Trotter Barrow a year ago. The suit was dropped after the couple was reconciled.

Red Sox Clip Chisox
Boston Red Sox survived a brief ninth-inning uprising by Chicago White Sox to protest a 4-2 lead and get back into winning ways after losing two straight to Cleveland.

Relief pitcher Mace Brown put out the fire after starting pitcher Yank Terry got two away in the ninth, then walked Sam West and permitted Mike Fresh to single. Brown came in and forced pinch-hitter George Diekey to roll to Bobby Doerr for the final out.

Lou Finney gave Boston the winning margin, driving in single runs with long flies in the first and seventh innings, and scoring Dom DiMaggio in the third with a long single after the former had doubled. Ted Williams accounted for Boston's fourth run in the third with a triple which scored Finney.

Yanks Drub Second-place Indians 6-3

NEW YORK, June 5—(AP)—New York Yankees added another full game to their American League lead today, whipping the second-place Cleveland Indians 6-3 in the opener of a five-game series and stretching the margin to 9 1-2 lengths.

In compiling their 24th success in their last 28 games, the Yankees landed on lefty Al Smith for three runs in the first inning and routed him in the third when they scored on two more.

Lefty Gomez limited the Tribe to two hits in the first four innings and registered his second victory against Barrow, but a leg injury he received in the second frame when he was struck by a drive of Lou Boudreau's bat finally forced him to turn the game over to Marv Breuer.

Shut Out and Alsab meet in "Rubber" today
By Sid Feder

NEW YORK, June 5—(AP)—For the benefit of the Army and Navy—as well as for a winner's paycheck of more than $40,000—Alsab and Shut Out hook up at Belmont tomorrow night in what is called "rubber match."

They're the big guys in a field of eight entered for the 74th running of the Belmont Stakes, the first "jewel" named annually in the triple crown for the American turf's three-year-olds. Supporting it this year are the national steeplechase for juveniles and the Army-Navy Handicap for older gallopers on a war relief program which figures to net the war effort some $100,000.

Shut Out, a colt of Eupholose and "split" image of his daddy, came out of Mrs. Payne Whitney's barn to win the Kentucky Derby this spring with Alsab second. A week later, Al Sabatini's Chicago champion pranced home in the Preakness and Shut Out wound up back in the pack, Wayne (the Cowboy) Wright placed Shut Out in each of these outings (this time, Eddie Arcaro will be doing the steering).

So tomorrow's mile-and-a-half get-together will just about decide the championship of the three-year-olds, especially since Sun A. Bucky Harris Has Lots Of Headaches With Senators

By Judson Bailey
Associated Press Sport Writer
NEW YORK, June 5—(AP)—Not all the senatorial tribulations in Washington belong to Congress. Washington's baseball Senators are having their hours of travail, too.

The club is in the American League cellar and Manager Stanley (Bucky) Harris is almost beyond comfort.

When a reporter offered the consolation thought a couple of days ago that things could be worse, the one-time boy wonder manager grimaced in not-so-mock pain and muttered, "maybe, but not much."

It is a sort of open secret that much of Harris' discomfort may be traced to Louie (Bobo) Newsom, the jovial character the Senators bought from Detroit. Tigers didn't make the grade at shortstop and Jim Pofahl, who didn't make the grade there, either, last year, is playing shortstop anyway. Repass is at second now.

Frank Croucher, who the Senators bought from Detroit for second base, developed a sore arm in spring training. He has not played an inning.
