KAISER GOING TO CUT OFF HEADS WHEN IN BERLIN.

BERLIN, September 10.—An extraordinary declaration by former Emperor William, made on the grounds of his residence at Doorn, is reported to have been made in a story purporting to be furnished from a Prussian junker who recently visited him.

It is stated that the former Emperor was chopping a tree when he suddenly exclaimed, as he struck a furious blow with his axe: "This is the way heads will fly to the right and left when I return to Germany."

Commenting on the remark Vorwärts says: "It shows Wilhelm in all his greatness as politician."

LATEST PHOTOGRAPH OF REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR OF N. Y.

NATHAN L. MILLER.

This photograph of Nathan L. Miller of Syracuse, designated by the Republicans as their candidate for governor of New York, was made on his latest visit to campaign headquarters in New York City. Other printed photos "look something like me," he said. This one has his O. K.

Under the terms of the peace treaty, the impregnable fortifications of Heligoland are being demolished by the Germans. The work of dismantling the fortress island, thirty-six miles northwest of the mouth of the Elbe, is going on steadily. The big guns and armor are being "destroyed" as fast as torches can burn their way through the hardened metal. This photograph gives an idea of the size of some of the guns which always threatened the Allies' North Sea fleets.

NO SIGNS OF FLU COMING THIS FALL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—There has been no indication of a return of last year's influenza epidemic, this winter, the public health service announced today. Each year, it was stated, between November and May, a number of cases are reported, but experts of the service do not expect the disease to be as widespread, or as virulent this year as in 1919.

A man injures himself every time he wrongs another.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On the evening of September 1st Mr. and Mrs. Dan MacKinnon, were pleasantly surprised by their friends of Brooklyn and vicinity. During the evening Mr. Simon Campbell read an address, while

Mr. Hugh MacKinnon on behalf of those present, presented Mr. and Mrs. MacKinnon with a beautiful mantle clock, silver pie knife, and a sum of money. Mr. MacKinnon thanked the friends for their very appropriate gifts. A dainty lunch was then served by the ladies present to about sixty guests. The remainder of the evening was very pleasantly spent in a music and games. The following is the address:—

Mr. and Mrs. Dan MacKinnon, Dear Friends:—We, a few of your friends, have gathered here this evening to extend to you our hearty congratulations on this occasion.

You, as our neighbor have proved yourself kind, obliging and courteous, and we are confident that with the help of your amiable wife you will continue to take the same keen interest in anything that pertains to the welfare of our community; you, Mrs. MacKinnon, came into our midst a stranger to the majority of us, but by your lovely disposition have endeared yourself to all of us who have had the pleasure of meeting you.

We predict for you a happy and prosperous journey through life, and our sincere wish is that you will be long spared to enjoy the comforts of your hospitable home.

In closing we beg of you to accept this small gift, not for its worldly worth but as a slight symbol of our best wishes for a successful journey through life.

Signed,—Your Brooklyn Friends

IN MEMORIAM

DONALD D. McMILLAN

On the 30th day of August, 1920 the people of Wood Islands were grieved to hear of the death of another good neighbor, that of Donald D. McMILLAN, an old and esteemed resident of that place, at the advanced age of 84 years, leaving two daughters and many near relatives to mourn their loss. Although Mr. McMILLAN lived to a ripe old age, yet his death was not anticipated so soon, as he was at all times able to go about the place until a very little while before the end came. He was not a man of many words but of very strong convictions of the right, from which he could not be swayed. He took good care that he would not be carried away with every wind of doctrine, but set his heart firmly upon the promises of God in Christ, which promise supported him to the end. He was chairman of trustees in Wood Island congregation for a great number of years, which office he discharged with honor to himself and congregation. He will be very much missed with many other good men who lately passed to their reward, the daughters, Mrs. Patterson,

CHILDLESS WOMEN

PLEASE READ THIS LETTER AND SEE WHAT NORMAL HEALTH WILL DO FOR YOU.

Berwick, Ont.—"I had organic trouble, and after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Medicine all my troubles passed away. I was made strong and well and have been ever since. Now we have a fine baby boy six months old, and I know that I would not have this baby and would still be suffering if it had not been for your remedies. My husband and myself say that your remedies are worth their weight in gold, and I recommend them to my friends. One of my aunts is taking them now."—Mrs. Napoleon Lavigne, Berwick, Ontario, Canada.

Among the virtues of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is its ability to correct sterility in many cases. This fact is well established as evidenced by the above letter and hundreds of others we have published in these columns.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (conditioned) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened.

Every Mouthful is a joy ride — says Bobby

Polished Surfaces Reflect Good Housekeeping

WOULD you have your Dining Room so clean, sparkling and inviting as to add to the enjoyment of every meal? This result may be obtained by the use of O-Cedar Polish.

Give it a trial and learn how wonderfully it lightens housework. A wet cloth, a few drops of O-Cedar on it—a light rubbing to remove all dust—then a brisk polishing with a dry cloth, and you have a surface that gleams brightly, with the grain-beauty of the wood revealed in all its original charm.

The goodness of this Polish is "reflected" in the beautifully polished furniture of our best homes. The quality of the O-Cedar Polish Mop is "reflected" in the clean and brilliant wood-work, floors, stairs and shining linoleums of the most particular Canadian homes.

O-Cedar Polish 25c. to $3.00 sizes. O-Cedar Polish Mop without handle $1.50—the handle, 54 inches long, is 25c. extra. Both Polish and Mop at your Hardware or Grocery Shop.
