ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Tuesday, Feb. 19th, a very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald R. MacMurdo, Kelvin, when about thirty members of the session and Sunday School gathered to gratefully acknowledge and appreciate their services rendered as Superintendent and Sunday School workers. Rev. Mr. Robertson occupied the chair and after expressing a few fitting remarks called on Mr. George E. Brown, who read an address and presented Mr. and Mrs. MacMurdo with a beautiful Bible and Hymn Book. Felicitous speeches were then made by Rev. Mr. Robertson, Wm. Brown former Supt., of Kensington Pres. Sunday School, Donald McKenzie, Archibald McKenzie and others. All these gentlemen spoke in the highest terms of Mr. and Mrs. MacMurdo's faithful service in the Church and Sunday School. Mr. MacMurdo then replied in a fitting manner and thanked the gathering for the many kind words expressed to him and Mrs. MacMurdo, and assured them they were still deeply interested in the good work and perhaps would yet be able to take an active part. "Best be the tie that binds" was then sung followed by music and games. Luncheon was next served and after worship the singing of "God be with you till we meet again" brought a merited evening to a close.

Is Head Stuffed by Catarrh or Cold? Use Healing Cream

THE THIRD MEETING of the Official Board of Souris Circuit met at the home of the Recording Steward, Mr. W. B. Leard on Tuesday evening, the pastor presiding. During the meeting it was moved that letters of sympathy be sent to Mrs. George Creed, Dundas, on the loss of her beloved husband, who was a valuable member of the board, his absence at the meeting being keenly felt; also to Mrs. (Dr) Muttart, Souris, on the loss of her dear son Frank. The recording steward closed the session in prayer. The pastor is remaining for another year subject to the consent of conference.

WILTSHIRE AND VICINITY

A meeting of the shareholders was held in the public hall on Wednesday, Feb. 20th. After a short discussion it was decided to buy the Trier Easeman Mento-Syne Radio Receiving set, which had been installed in the hall on approval. This is a 6 tube set and is one of the best sets on the market. The club is to be congratulated for installing such a high classed machine. The public are cordially invited to "listen in" each evening of the week with the exception of Wednesdays, which like Broadcasting station W.G.Y. will be silent night. Two evenings each week are to be chosen as club nights, on one of these the ladies have kindly agreed to serve lunch. The local talent will also be given an opportunity to entertain the crowd should it be "an off night" with the Radio.

Horse racing, the sport of King's has many fans in Wiltshire. There with fair reputations but perhaps the following will describe one of the favorites. Oh, Mr. Gallagher, Oh Mr. Gallagher

There's a very fast horse right on his side From the start down to the wire She will pace and never tire And still you say there's none can go a mile

Oh Mr. Sheen, Oh Mr. Sheen It's it the new world champion you have seen, Why I have watched him many a time, Driven by McKinnon he's fine Is it the Yank, Mr. Gallagher No Lady Medium, Mr. Sheen.

Our visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Harold McLean, Charlottetown, the guests of Mr. A. Clow.—Mrs. Angus McLeod, Charlottetown the guest of Mr. Geo. McLean.—Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Frizel, Moncton, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Godfrey.—Mr. and Mrs. E. Bowyer, Southampton, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Deacon.

Over the Radio:—The Radio four had the pleasure of listening to a sermon, last Sunday evening broadcasted by K.D.K.A. from the Presbyterian church, Pittsburg. Every word which was heard distinctly was followed closely by the large crowd present. On Monday evening the four were delighted to tune in a station in Havana, Cuba, also stations in Miami, Florida, and California have been heard.

malice." Its assertiveness, and demand for a due recognition of its worth, its rights, its opinions, its proper place, bring bitterest burnings, and worse. It will not be content to review congressional, and political, and society life for illustrations. They may be found much nearer one's own door.

Was there ever such a list? Such a being whose heart begets and nurses such progeny? This being has the smell of hell, and of the evil one himself. Ah! now we are getting at the straight truth. Self is Satan's personal representative in every human heart. Its door of entrance is the door of disobedience. It can have control only where one allows himself to get out of intelligent sympathy with God. The self in Peter was receding from that cross of which Jesus spoke. How keen Jesus was in recognizing the suggester of the thought that found expression through Peter's lips—"Get thee behind me Satan." Self is Satan, condensed into each man's life, though in some he dare not exhibit his coarser traits; and in others he is being constantly conquered by that power of the Spirit of Jesus which comes through absolute, glad surrender to Him.

This sly Satan-self may often be recognized by a favorite question asks among christian people about a great many souls and important matters—"What's the harm? But a true follower of Jesus never lives down upon the plane of "what's-the-harm?" He lives up in a higher sphere with his Master, who "pleased not Himself," but made it the steady, unflinching aim of His life to do always those things that were pleasing to His Father. Men thought Him narrow and fanatical, but He cared not so long as He could daily hear that clear, sweet voice saying "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." The final touchstone which the follower of Jesus applies to every matter is this: Would it please Him?

Let everyone here who earnestly desires to fit into, and to fill out, Jesus' plan for his life, take paper and pencil and make a list of this personal habits; such as his eating, what he eats and how; his drinking, other things he puts into his mouth, his dress, the use and care of his body, his recreations, his reading, his conversation, his use of money, his use of time, his life plans and his daily plans, his social engagements; and regarding each ask plainly the question—what is the motive that controls me in this? Is it my own preference or enjoyment? Or, is it to please and honor Jesus? Let him further go through the list of his business methods, his friendships, the various organizations he belongs to, with the same question. If he will do thorough work he will probably have some stiff fighting on hand both at the start and afterwards. Many a life would thereby be radically changed. For example, I know a christian storekeeper who has on his shelves a certain article bearing the label of a tonic medicine, but he knows perfectly well as does anyone who stops to think about it, that the stuff back of the label is one form of an intoxicant. There can be no question of what the Master would say about it. But it brings a good profit. And his money-fevered self asserts its mastery and carries the day. And the man tightly grips the profits, while Satan chuckles with unholly glee, and souls are being damned by this christian man's sin.

Certainly there can be none of the power of God in such a life. Let us rather speak the truth and say that this man is exerting a positive power for Satan and for hell. All this is included in these few simple words, "let him deny himself." Is there still a fixed purpose to follow Jesus without regard to what it may cost us, or where the keen edge of separation may cut in?

CELEBRATION OF GOLDEN WEDDING.

After a half century of wedded life, Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Buote have been both spared in good health and prosperous circumstances, to see their children and their children's children and a host of friends and relatives gather at their home, in Mayfield, on Feb. 11th, to make merry at the golden wedding. It is indeed a matter of very deep thankfulness that after a half century of mingled joys and sorrows, they should find themselves as happily circumstanced as they have been on this occasion. After having partaken of a sumptuous repast served by Mrs. Buote, assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Alexander LeClair, Mrs. Peter Gauthier and her granddaughter Mrs. Frank LeClair, each repaired to the parlour, where the company was brought to order by Mr. Cyril Buote, who proposed Mr. Leopold Pineau as chairman. The elected chairman then explained in well chosen words the object

ARE YOU TREATING HIM SQUARELY? WHY SHOULD WE LET HIM STRAIN HIS EYES

The health of your boy, his future happiness and success are dependent upon the development of his eyesight. He may be severely straining his eyes; they may not be as well equipped to stand the strain as you suppose; they may be a handicap to his progress in school.

But how can you tell? He may not complain; you may not attribute irritability, slight headaches, a stomach disorder, backwardness in his school work to the condition of his eyesight.

Have his eyes examined! He may not need glasses but if he does, great him squarely; give him the opportunity to progress himself unhampered by any physical handicap for which you will feel responsible. Consult H. J. MABON OPTOMETRIST, Montague, P. E. I. Office connected with Drug Store of the gathering, and called upon Mr. Zachariah Buote to read an address to the host and hostess. He prefaced his reading by making a speech in French, then followed the address, also written in French. The following is a translation of the address:

It is with a heart filled with joy, that I appear before you this evening, good father and good mother, to read to you this address, in the name of your invited guests on this memorable occasion—your gold on wedding.

The beginning of this half century, which is now numbered with the past, was also a very memorable occasion. On that date, you have been united in the indissoluble bonds of matrimony. The marriage festival is something more than a record of the triumph of love. Love was crowned when your kind father and kind mother, kneeling at the foot of the altar have sworn fidelity to each other before God and before your friends. On this memorable day, you, good mother, have stepped forth from the maiden beauties of life's mourning to a larger, a nobler and a more sacred career; and how you have fulfilled that duty we your children know well. And you, good father, have also fulfilled that duty nobly and well. How you must have laboured in order to procure our daily bread and the things necessary for us. No doubt, your life has not been all sunshine; you must have met obstacles on the way but you have known how to surmount them; you have fought them in a true christian spirit and for those attributes of courage, you will one day be richly recompensed before the throne of the Sovereign Judge.

You are conscious that the years are slipping past, but you have no desire to hide from yourselves the fact, that the sun of your life is now descending into the west. You have had your May with its blossoms, and your summer with its fruits and flowers. The wish that we now formulate on this occasion is, that you may have many more happy years; joyous years filled with the repose, that you have so richly deserved.

At the conclusion of this address, the Capt. responded in well chosen words, which were greatly appreciated by all those present. Speeches were then made by Messrs. Cyrille Buote, Alexander LeClair and the chairman. Then the sound of the violin was heard, played by the masterful touch of Mr. Alexander LeClair. The Capt. and Mrs. Buote then gave an exhibition of step dancing and although they are both past the three-score and ten mark, they still can make "the dust fly." Mr. Henry LeClair, Mr. and Mrs. Frank LeClair, Mrs. Alice Buote, Mr. Leopold Pineau, Mr. Alexander LeClair then followed with a fine exhibition of step dancing.

The many gifts received on this occasion, among which, were several ten-dollar gold coins testify to the popularity of the Capt. and Mrs. Buote in the community. God save the King brought this memorable and rare occasion to a close. Ad Multos Annos.

Saved From Pneumonia By Vicks

Nova Scotia Lady Secures Relief Overnight

Mrs. Charles Dornier, of 2 Ext. Queen Street, Amherst, Nova Scotia, writes: "I have had pneumonia for the last two winters and was on the verge of having it again when I thought I would try Vicks VapoRub. Before retiring for the night I rubbed it thoroughly on my chest and back and went to sleep, although I hadn't slept for three nights. In the morning I got up feeling like a new woman."

Dr. Osler says pneumonia has taken the place of tuberculosis as "Captain of the Men of Death" to use a phrase coined by old John Bunyan. And influenza is not far behind. The germs of both of these diseases are constantly with us. The only reliable protection against them is the resisting power which comes from good health. To avoid these dangerous diseases in winter, don't let yourself get run down and above all never neglect a cold. Break it up in its early stages with Vicks VapoRub, the external vaporizing treatment for colds.
