PEARY THANKS SYDNEY PEOPLE

SYDNEY, Sept 26—In the following note Commander Peary thanks the people of Sydney for their ovation on his arrival:

THE HALIFAX RACES BEGAN SATURDAY. HALIFAX, Sept 27—Saturday's races resulted in Simasie and Rudy Kip winning two heats each in the free-for-all. The race will probably be finished today.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 27—One week ago white-winged sea gulls flying inland from the Gulf gave warning with their screams that the approach of the much dreaded West Indian hurricane was to follow along the entire coast, with countless happy fishermen and sailors and thousands of trim crafts and comfortable homes bearing tokens of a prosperous season.

DESOLETION AND DEATH. Today vast flocks of vultures hover over the devastated lowlands of Southern Louisiana, strewn with innumerable carcasses of animals. The scene is one of terror, desolation and death.

STUNNED BY THE damage wrought by winds and waves, the work of relief did not give the people time to return. All energies have been put to the task of rescuing those who had suffered in the storm.

ALMOST A hundred human beings have been burned or buried in the marshes where they were drowned. The number of those definitely known to be lost is approximately 200 and there are possibly more.

THE unknown are covered in the Louisiana marshes.

HORSE NOTES. A pleasing sight on the streets, of this City, during exhibition week, was the handsome matched pair of steel gray horses, standing 15-23, bred and owned by A. A. McBeath, Marshfield. It is seldom that anything comes in for so much admiration, as did this span. They are both five years old and are exactly the same height, size, and color, and hard to beat.
