JUSTICE WILLIAM DOUGLAS

BING CROSBY

GOV. EARL WARREN

This energetic Newspaperboy is Bill Douglas. His father is an associate justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, and is a retired newspaperboy, himself. All the famous men, pictured at the sides, once delivered newspapers. America's newspaperboys are getting a head start by their training as "businessmen" delivering papers.

America's half-million newspaperboys have one thing in common—they're all getting good training in business. Following in the footsteps of many famous men, like those caricatured above, the newspaperboys of today will be the leaders of tomorrow. Remember your newspaperboy on his day—Saturday, October 2, is National Newspaper Day.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Prior to her marriage, the many friends of Miss Blanche Murray, New Wiltshire, assembled in Lot 86 Hall Thursday, August 19, to tender her a miscellaneous shower. The stage and chair were beautifully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being pink and white. To the strains of "Here Comes the Bride" played by Mrs. Lawrence Murray, the bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honor by Misses Rosalie Quinn and Myrtle Costello. The bride-to-be was then presented with a bouquet of flowers by little Miss Marilyn Murray and Master Loyola Griffin who also carried in the well laden baskets of gifts.

The gifts were opened by Mrs. Amos Callaghan and Miss Myra Trainor assisted by Mrs. James Griffin while Miss Myrtle Costello read the accompanying verses. Miss Rosalie Quinn arranged the gifts on the table. In a few well chosen words Blanche thanked one and all for their beautiful gifts, and extended an invitation to visit her in her new home. After singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" lunch was served by the ladies, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by MacNeill's Orchestra, assisted by Messrs. James McDonald and Pat Flood.
