

A Family Medicine Without Alcohol

A Strong Tonic - Without Alcohol
A Blood Purifier - Without Alcohol
A Great Alternative - Without Alcohol
A Family Medicine - Without Alcohol
Ask your doctor if a family medicine, like Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is not vastly better without alcohol than with it.

At a mass meeting held in Providence, R. I., recently, in connection with the campaign against the White Plague, one of the principal speakers was Percy J. Cantwell, President of the Providence Typographical Union, a native of Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

John D. McDonald one of the pioneer members of the Oakland society pruned adopted home, Cal., has returned to his Falls, N. B., took place Tuesday afternoon from his home, King St., to Harior Road. While in the Sunny South he concluded that a lonely life was hardly to be kept with his idea of the ideal life, so toos unto him- self a charming young lady, a Pasadena, in the person of Miss Vegene Stewart, daughter of Malcolm Stewart of High Bank. The Guardian extends congratulations.

In spite of the disagreeable weather and counter attractions New Wonderland was comfortably filled with an appreciative audience all last evening. Kramer and Massey made another big hit and as rounds and rounds of applause greeted their efforts they had to respond to repeated encores. Tonight they have a complete change in store for the patrons of this popular amusement place and a packed house is predicted. The pictures were interesting and much enjoyed and the illustrated song was as usual nicely rendered with magnificent slides.

Guardian readers will regret to learn of the death of A. P. Bruce, son-in-law of Fredk. Parkman of this City, which occurred on the high sea, January 12th last. Mr. Bruce was on first mate on the schooner Helen Stewart and left this City in November last. The Master, W. A. Miller in writing to Mr. Parkman says that Mr. Bruce left St. John's Nfld., in good health and while not complaining and no hard weather was encountered but on Jan. 5th he took inflammation of the bowels and although every possible means was used he peacefully passed away on the following Tuesday in the arms of Capt Miller. The body was prepared for burial and then wrapped in a canvas shroud, and after the beautiful burial service for the dead was read, was committed to the deep. It was a solemn duty and brought tears to the eyes of all, as Mr. Bruce was a general favorite. A widow and four children are left to mourn, to whom with sympathy. The schooner is now on her way to the Barbadoes, after which she will come to Charlottetown.

"The lowest priced tea is not the cheapest. "Brown Label" "Salada" Tea at 30c. per pound makes many more cups than any tea sold at 25c. per pound. It is therefore not only more economical to use, but it is infinitely more delicious.

The Problem of Shirtwaists

Common place Versus Individuality

The regular, ordinary waists for personal wear, things that are made in great quantities and displayed year after year, these are common place waists. Waists made in the great Factories by artists, these are different. So is it with our showing--Individuality, the keynote of this successful branch of our business.

STANLEY BROS.

Owing to the small attendance, the meeting of the Ministerial Association, called for yesterday afternoon, was postponed.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I.," and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscription," "News," "Editorial," or "Tour Editor," according to the contents.

John S. Jenkins, on Saturday evening, received the unexpected news of the death of his father, John Jenkins, Charlottetown, which took place on the same afternoon. The deceased gentleman was 80 years of age, but really did not look older than many ten children of whom eight, five sons and three daughters are living. Of the sons P. M. and John S. are in New Glasgow and Kenneth M. are in North Sydney, the other two are living in P. E. I. The daughters living are married in P. E. I. Mrs. John Jenkins predeceased her husband twenty years ago.--New Glasgow Chronicle.

Friends of Chester Gregory in this Province and especially in this City will read with pleasure the following from the Halifax Herald in reference to the recent match: In the fastest game ever played in Eastern Canada, Gregory, piece of work, secured the winning goal and captures the trophy. Gregory the quick, clever and tricky center of Moncton saw the opening, quicker than a flash he seized the golden opportunity, passing Weaver and Laing in a minute of the fastest play of the evening, he eluded the defence, darted to the very feet of Bishop and scooped the puck to the nets and lifted the Victorias to victory and the news resounded on the shores of the Atlantic ocean in Moncton Rink. It was a clever dodge that won and Gregory will be the idol of the small boy for some time to come. His whirlwind finish will be told and retold, for one lone score was needed to tell the tale and Gregory told it. Gregory answers to the knock. It was a sudden death finish and after seven minutes of play victory knocked at the door of Moncton and Gregory opened it. The sun went down in Moncton's favor.
