Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. Weak, Thin Folks Need Phosphate Says Dr. Kolle

Dr. Frederic S. Kolle, the New York author of medical text books, whose opinions are greatly valued, writes: "When the nerve tissue begins to lose its vitality, woman begins to lose her youth, and vivaciousness, she becomes irritable, moody and ill more weak, thin, nervous men and women were aware of the efficacy of Bitro-Phosphate." Thousands of thin, run-down people whose nervous energy is nearly exhausted are turning to Bitro-Phosphate as dispensed by Hughes Drug Co., Ltd. and other leading druggists, because it helps to re-vitalize the nerves, increase bodily weight and bring back energy and mental keenness. CAUTION: Although Bitro-Phosphate is an excellent aid in relieving weak, nervous conditions, its use is not advised unless increased weight is desired.

UNVEILING MONUMENT.—The magnificent monument erected by the people of Malpeque in honor of their heroic dead who fell in the great war, will be formally unveiled tomorrow, Wednesday at 2 p. m. An elaborate program has been prepared and it is expected there will be a very large attendance. The monument stands on the grounds in front of the church and is a beautiful one. The oration will be given by Rev. G. E. Taylor of Zion Church.

ABSENT THIRTY YEARS.—Mr. John A. McLeod, formerly of Valleyfield, has arrived on the island on a short visit to friends and relatives after thirty years absence in San Francisco, Calif., where he conducted a large and successful grocery business. Mr. McLeod is at present stopping with his sister-in-law on Euston St. Mrs. McLeod formerly Miss McCormac, who has accompanied her husband is also an island lady and it is hoped their visit among their many relatives and friends will be very pleasant.

DR. HARRISON REMEMBERED.—Rev. William Harrison, D. D., who has completed fifty years of service in the Methodist Church was recently presented with an illuminated address as follows: "Rev. William Harrison, D. D., ministerial jubilee, 1871-1921; greetings The N. B. and P. E. I. conference of the Methodist church assembled in its thirty-eight annual session desires to express its sentiments of gladness and thanksgiving upon the attainment of fifty years service in the Christian ministry, of one of its most distinguished and beloved members.—William Harrison, D. D. This ministry extending over so long a period, has been marked by all the elements which contribute to the success of a true servant of God, unswerving adherence to the great fundamentals of faith; untrammelled proclamation of the gospel; fidelity to the highest ideals and faithful pastoral oversight, by the blessing of God have contributed peace, comfort and inspiration to all to whom this ministry has been brought. As a man among men, Brother Harrison is held in the highest esteem, not only by his brother ministers but by that wide circle of friends everywhere with whom he has been brought into association. In campaigns for temperance and social reform he has always been found in the front rank, waging the warfare of a valiant warrior; wielding a pen the most facile, in the production of numerous letters, articles and essays, he has become possessed of a distinguished reputation. In offering (thanksgiving) to the church's great Head or such life and such services, the conference prays that God's kindly Providence may continue to abundantly rest upon Brother Harrison and all the members of his family; that he may be spared for many years of service; and that the eventide of life may bring great light and peace and hope."

S. SCHOOL CONVENTION AT VALEYFIELD.—The Georgetown District Sunday School Convention which was held in the Presbyterian Church, Valleyfield, on June 16th, was the most interesting and helpful for years, and was largely attended. The afternoon session opened at 2.30 with Rev. G. A. Poole, pastor of the church, presiding. Minutes of the convention held at Sturgeon in June 1920, were read and adopted. Financial report read and adopted. The district last year, nearly all of these showed marked improvement, especially in this line of the schools under Rev. W. R. McLellan's care, in connection with the Valleyfield church, which are five in number. Kilnure school received thirty nine awards for memorizing scripture. Bellview is a wonderful school, and is held in school house of that place. Nearly all the pupils have received awards and besides their regular offering, they have raised $40.00 for missions during the year. This school is deeply spiritual and could put many of our, so called, large schools to shame. Eighty have received awards from the Valleyfield school. This school is more prosperous than it has been for twenty years. They use a missionary lesson once every month, thereby sowing the missionary spirit in the proper way, and leave the response to the school which needless to say, has proven more than satisfactory. One of the field secretaries, Rev. Mr. Milligan, who is supported by his own people, spoke next. He pointed out that our Lord was ever and always a missionary, and that we ought to teach the children at least one missionary thought every Sunday. Teach us in Jesus' way, by helping others. The aims of the Sunday School are: "To win every available member of the community to the Sunday School." "To train them for intelligent and effective christian life and service." There are (800,000) eight hundred thousand pupils in Canada, and only one in three are won to the S. School. Many Western children have never seen a Sunday School, and are without any service that would lead to God. The conference which followed was full of enthusiasm and interest, and every one present felt they had indeed a helper, in the person of Mr. Milligan, who with untiring interest, poured forth his store of Sunday School knowledge, till the audience almost forgot they were expected to have supper before the evening session. The evening session opened promptly at 7.30 with a large audience of attentive listeners. The pastor of the church Rev. M. McLellan, gave a splendid address on "The Home and Church" which impressed the conveners with their tremendous responsibilities. Mr. McLellan is an eloquent and pleasing speaker and is beloved by his people and all who hear him. A diet was very sweetly rendered by two small children from Bellview Sunday School. Mrs. McLellan, Georgetown, read an appropriate and very acceptable selection, which delighted the audience. Rev. Mr. Milligan followed with an evening address. He was encouraged and cheered by the PEARSON-YOUNG WEDDING.—Miss Margaret E. Young, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Archibald Young of 393 North Main St., Attleboro, Mass., was married Thursday, June 9th to Percy Thomas Pearson of Boston, formerly of Montague, P. E. I. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, which was handsomely decorated for the occasion. The bridal party stood under an arch of ferns and cut flowers. The bridesmaids were Miss Ruth E. Kinney and Miss Pearl P. Briggs both of Attleboro and the best man was L. Fay Brown of Everett. The officiating pastor was Rev. J. H. Pearson of South Hingham, a brother of the groom. The wedding march was played by Miss Violet Frost pianist of Everett and Miss Alvah Whittemore, violinist of Boston. Ushers were Arthur E. Young and Harry Young, cousins of the bride. The bride wore a wedding trip to Canada and upon their return will reside in Boston, where the groom has purchased a business. They were recipients of many beautiful gifts of linen, cut glass and silver. Mrs. Pearson is a well-known music teacher of this city and has a wide circle of friends in the Attleboro.

Alone YOU don't know this girl perhaps. But suppose you did and she came to you for advice! What would you say? Till yesterday her husband, young and vigorous, had lovingly encouraged her small extravagances and boasted laughingly that his income was ample and growing. He worked with might and main to "gather the fruits of success for his fair trinity at home"—and was succeeding. But death, swift and relentless, had without warning cut down his guard, and the three he loved more than his own life were now at bay to the world—alone. If she had come to you for advice— that, briefly, would have been her story. Her faith was strong. Her husband, she knew, would not leave her with the children to face a financial situation for which there was no solution. Yet when she attempted to calculate the income she would receive from the savings he had left, a panic of fear overcame her. "The greatest and hardest of her duties now was the one she knew the least about." Perhaps someone dependent and depending upon you, is destined some day to be left alone—at bay to the world. This is so serious, so appalling a situation that its very contemplation makes thinking men turn cold with apprehension. That is why we have written "Her Way Out"—to make you realize how serious is the situation which may overtake those for whom you believe no sacrifice or effort is too great. If, in addition—without the use of technical language or confusing terms—it provides a solution for the dilemma, surely that is another point in its favor, is it not? We will be pleased to send you a copy of "Her Way Out," free. The coupon below is provided for your convenience. Fill it in and mail it to-day, or a note or postcard will do as well.

spirit of the convention. He pointed out, that the greatest evangelist is the teacher. They should be zealous, consecrated and know the Word." His address was overflowing with Sunday School knowledge and those who were not present missed a rare treat, for they alone can tell the good plant in the hearts of his hearers, which he carried and practised every day on Sunday School workers who more than repay him for his efforts. There were four new schools organized during the year. One at Sturgeon, Bellview, Victoria Cross, Commercial Cross, the two last mentioned by Rev. J. W. McKenzie, Montague. At the close of the meeting a vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. G. A. Poole, Secy-Treas., Mrs. McLellan, Georgetown, and the Valleyfield congregation, and especially Mr. and Mrs. McLellan for their entertainment. The officers for the ensuing year are as follows: President—Mrs. Gordon Ives,

Vice President, Mrs. D. R. Fraser. Secy. Treasurer—Mrs. G. A. Poole. During the convention we learned of some of the sacrifices these field workers make and how hard they work. Mr. Milligan has not a date free till October. He speaks twice every day and usually three times on Sunday. By this we learn he speaks seven times as often as the average minister, and speaks nearly always two or more hours at a time. He said Mr. Ross salary means less to him than any country pastor, owing to conditions of living in the city. These workers are deeply interested in their work and we know of one man who received about one half the salary of his former position which he gave up for this work and is not paid by the association. One of the young lady secretaries, was so consecrated and interested in the work that she left a salary which was $12.00 a month larger, to do the work. She felt God had called her to do it. These men are not working for the money there is in it, they are working for God. Men of their ability might have city churches with handsome salaries, and preach two sermons a week, if they so desire but they have caught the Vision of spiritual work and are going forth as Jesus did.

THE OLD GARDENER SAYS Candytuft while a popular garden flower, passes quickly. If you want this flower for fall display make another sowing now. Put in some seeds in September and you will have good plants for growing in the house. Remember, though, that Candytuft must have good, rich soil and plenty of water. If you want extra large flowers remove some of the buds. Candytuft looks well in a bed by itself, but is even better as an edging for other flowers.
