Today G. H. Taylor is having a special half price sale of odd pieces of silverware, also a few clocks. The ad appears in this issue and should appeal to every housekeeper.

In place of the usual weekly sermon, today's Saturday Guardian contains the report of the Grand Worthy Patriarch of the Sons of Temperance, Rev. E. S. Weeks, Bideford. In it is given a most explicit account of the splendid work done by the order in this Province.

Sixty six bags of mail were received by the Capes yesterday, also two days mail came by the Minto from Georgetown, the latter consisting of surplus papers which the small boats couldn't carry. The former arrived in Charlottetown at two p.m. and the latter at one thirty.

That valuable mill property situated at Woodville Mills and owned by J. T. Poole is being offered for sale. Besides saw and planing mill, there is a flour and carding mill in first class repair as well as a residence and ten acres of land, all making an exceptional holding and one that should find a ready purchaser.

Brent Garnham, Sec'y. Victoria A. A., received the following notice yesterday. The skating championships of the M. P. A. A., under the auspices of the Crescent A. A. club of Halifax, will be held at the Arena Rink, Halifax, on Wednesday the 24th Feb. 1909. Entries will close with Hon. Sec'y. on Monday, Feb. 22, 1909, and must be made by Sec'y of clubs accompanied by entrance fee of fifty cents for each entry for each event. The following is a list of championship events. Quarter Mile, One half mile, three mile.

At St. Paul's Church tomorrow Rev. H. J. Hamilton, B. A. missionary on furlough from Nagaya, Japan, will preach in the morning. He is one of the best equipped and most successful missionaries of the Canadian church, and having spent some years in Japan will be well worth hearing. He will also speak to the Sunday School children in the afternoon at 2.30. In the evening the Rector will deliver an introductory address upon the Pan-Anglican Congress. This will be followed during Lent by a series of addresses, in which the subjects discussed by the Congress will be outlined. The method and manner of these discussions will be sketched and comments made.

An exhibition of over one hundred stereopticon views of old Charlottetown will be given in the lecture room of the First Methodist Church, on Tuesday evening, March 2nd. These views will include Government House, with most of the governors who occupied it since its erection, the old court house with many of the former judges, the old City Hall with the first policeman and town crier, the old churches and ministers and the old Academy and Prince of Wales College with several of the professors. There will also be shown His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and the arch under which he passed when visiting Charlottetown in 1860. And a number of views of the City as it was in other days with its old wood market house and low wooden buildings. The views will also include a number of the professional and public men of the period to which they belong. As these pictures are thrown upon the canvass they will be described and explained by Premier Haszard, and the present generation will have a splendid opportunity to learn something of their fathers, grandfathers and great-grandfathers, and see what Charlottetown was a half a century ago.

See J. A. Lemieux classified ad.
