THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

F. R. TAYLOR has returned to St. John's from Charlottetown.

JAMES W. SHEA, of Waterford, Lot 1, was in the city yesterday.

M. McLEAN, North Wiltshire, returned yesterday from a trip to Sydney.

GEORGE E. FULL, returned from his trip to the mainland yesterday.

Mrs. CHARLES FREEMAN, Elkport, Man., is visiting relatives on the island.

The death occurred at Dunstaffnage, January 16, of Daniel Scott, an aged and respected resident. He leaves to mourn two sisters, Charlotte and Jessie at home.

On the evening of January 15 the members of the choir of the First Methodist Church were entertained at the residence of R. M. and Mrs. Johnson. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

The death took place, January 3, of Annie, wife of the late James Lewis Hayden, Cherry Valley, in her 80th year. She was interred in the old cemetery of Christ church, Cherry Valley.

The following additional contributions have been received by the building fund of Zion Church: $200 willed by the late James Patterson; a cheque from L. E. Brown for $25, and $15 from a friend, who does not wish his name published.

At the Supreme Court yesterday the case of James and Francis Power, and Edward Hennessey and James King, charged with assaulting Policemen Taylor and Higgins was concluded and the jury retired in the afternoon. They reported a non agreement, and were discharged. The prisoners therefore will not be tried again until the next term of the Court, in June.

A few evenings ago the pastor and choir of Cherry Valley Methodist Church visited the home of Mrs. J. C. Irving and presented her with a choice volume of poems, as a token of appreciation of her services as organist in the church. The recipient warmly expressed her gratitude for the beautiful gift and accompanying good wishes, and the evening passed pleasantly with music and song.

ANDREW DUGGAN, the well-known horse wagon driver of No 4 fire station, Halifax, who is known to many of the men of the Charlottetown brigade, met with a painful accident at his home, No 38 Bedford Row, some days ago. He was going down the stairway when he missed a step and fell to the foot of the stairway, fracturing two ribs and sustaining bruises and other injuries. He will be confined to his bed for three weeks.

The basket ball game last evening between the P. W. C. and Vics was undoubtedly the best game of basket ball yet of the season. It was closely contested from start to finish and was an exceptionally clean game throughout. In the first half the Vics led by one point and in the second half the score was even, leaving the Vics winning by one point. Both teams played good team work. Walter Ma hieson from P. W. C. did exceptional shooting for goal, scoring seven field goals. The second game was between the C. B. C. second team and the All-comers, and was won by the College team by a score of 18-8.

The annual business meeting of the Charlottetown Baptist Church was held in the schoolroom on Wednesday evening. The pastor, Rev. G. R. White, presided. Owing to the severe weather many were deprived of the privilege of being present at an annual meeting marked by good will, harmony and unity. The spirit of the meeting was helpful for the very interesting reports from the different organizations of the Church were most encouraging. The pastor gave an extended resume of his work. The Sunday-school reported through its Superintendent, that showing activity in work done, additions to library and progress in all the classes. The Young People's Tales were heard from through the retiring President. This branch was also shown to be active along its own line. Not the least interesting report came from the Women's Missionary Aid Society, showing splendid work. The Mission Band was in evidence, too, and work was reported. The thimble club and music committee also reported. The trustees reported regarding church property, etc., and the reports could not fail to be very agreeable. Finances are not the least important item in Church work, and the following figures speak for themselves:

Raised by Young People's Union.....	$ 16.78
W. M. A. Society.....	147.50
Sunday School.....	159.50
Mission Band.....	28.00
Thimble Club.....	188.45
General Mission Fund.....	188.89
Current Church Expenses.....	1918.44

The estimates for 1907 were also submitted and passed. The officers for the year were mainly re-elected.

F. W. HAWLEY, New Glasgow N. S. came to the city yesterday.

P. W. LANTALUM, of St. John's, returned to the mainland yesterday.

Mrs. A. D. McPhee, Georgetown, is not improving as rapidly as her many friends desire.

W. A. BRENNAN, of Summerside, was a passenger last night for Georgetown by the mail express.

Miss MARIE SMITH of New Bedford Mass., who has been home on a visit to her parents, left on return last night.

GORDON DAWSON, Cape Traverse, who underwent an operation in the P. E. Island Hospital about two weeks ago, is recovering.

PRINCE STREET SCHOOL concert takes place Friday, Feb. 1st 1907, in the Opera House. Great chorus, superb drills, and Noblese Odills.

The ladies of the Methodist Church held a pleasant social in the parlourage last night and a delightful program was carried out. A new game called Tunes furnished much amusement. A nice sum was realized. The ladies will hold more of these socials during the winter.

The slide of the Belvedere Toloogan Club since the last fall of snow has been put in good condition, and will be open for members on Saturday afternoon next. The Club have engaged a new keeper, and several improvements have been made in connection with the slide which will no doubt be appreciated by members old and young—and also by the chaperone.

AMBITION, a Journal of inspiration and Self Help, is the title of a publication put out in the interest of the students of International Correspondence Schools of Scranton, Penn. It breathes a spirit of enterprise, and is wholesome and stimulating reading matter, which cannot fail to benefit the young men of the land. It should be read by all, young and old; it contains invaluable information and more pointers for getting ahead than any similar publication of its class. The local agent here, W. H. McLaughlin, has the thanks of this office for a copy of the December issue.

FOLLOWING are the names of the men composing the team which are to meet tonight for the first game of hockey in the league series in the Arena rink. Lovers of hockey and sportsmen will be enabled to enjoy the game under conditions that will add much to the interest and pleasure thereof:

Pure Norway Cod Liver Oil

We have recently tapped a barrel of pure Norway Cod Liver Oil and put part of it up in sealed bottles at 25c and 50c per bottle.

The Oil keeps better in this way and is as palatable as pure Cod Liver Oil can be.

We guarantee the genuineness of this Oil as we bought it in the original tin and sealed as it is put up at the fisheries.
