CHARLOTTETOWN and QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province.

Rev. D. McLean, City, returned from Summerside yesterday.

The barometer reading in The Guardian of the 8th should have read 30.6½ and not 36.6½.

The Annual Meeting of the Provincial Temperance Alliance will be held in the Y. M. C. Hall on Tuesday the 21st inst. at 2 p.m. Single fare tickets issued on the 20th good to return the 22nd.

The Cornwall Mission Band held their annual Mite Box opening on March 4th., quite a number were present, also several members from the W. M. S. From the attendance and excellent program given it was plainly seen that the President, Mrs Wm. Lowther, spares no efforts to make the meetings most profitable to those interested. As as an object lesson the President showed the children curios from China and Japan which were eagerly examined.

In regard to the "George" and "Mary" coronation gift, a note from Government House informs The Guardian that Mrs. Rogers has recently received a telegram from the Governor General assuring her of his deep interest in the movement, especially in contributions from the Georges to the King. Lady Grey had before expressed her hopes that the Marys of Prince Edward Island will all appreciate this opportunity of showing their affectionate loyalty to the Queen. Mrs. Rogers expresses her desire that the name of every George and Mary in the Province may be found on the lists, and will be gratified to all who will help to make the movement known. Subscription lists will be sent to any one asking for them.

The concert in the Brookfield Hall Friday Feb 24 in aid of the Mission Band, was a decided success. The following program was well rendered:—Chorus, the choir. Rec.—Miss May McDonald; duet, Misses Ena McLeod and Enid Warren; dialogue—The Census Taker; phonograph selections, Chester Smith; rec.—Miss Rosella Stewart; chorus—the choir; res.—Miss Lizzie Carr; solo—Miss Mamie McSween; reading—George Brown (encored); solo—Miss Enid Warren; dialogue—The Storm; rec.—Miss Jennie Dollar; reading—Miss Kielly; solo—Miss Ena McLeod; rec.—Mr. Mobbs, (encored); phonograph selections; solo—Miss Sadie McPherson; chorus. At the close of the entertainment there was a sale of candy after which all joined in singing God Save the King. The sum of $27 was realized. The Mission Band are very thankful to all who helped to make the entertainment the great success it was.

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Ann's church, Lot 65, on Tuesday, Feb. 21st., when James A. Murray of Tyrone was united in the holy bonds of Matrimony, to Sarah Clarkin of North Wiltshire. Rev. Dr. Curran, P. P., performed the ceremony, and Miss Margaret Murray played the wedding march. The bride was attired in a suit of gray with hat to match, and was attended by her sister Miss Janie L. Clarkin who wore a suit of blue with hat to match, while Patrick Murray did the honors for the bridegroom. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the groom where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of, and after spending a few happy hours, they returned to the home of the bride, where dinner was served to quite a number of invited guests. The evening was spent very pleasantly. The presents were many and costly, attesting to the popularity of the contrasting parties.

The funeral of the late Mrs. John Kelly, City, took place Wednesday morning from the P. E. I. R., Station, after the arrival of the eastern train to St. Dunstan's Cathedral and from thence to the R. C. Cemetery. There was a large attendance at the funeral. The services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. Pius McDonald. The following were the pall-bearers: John Hogan, Thomas Hickey, Patrick Mahar, Patrick Stewart, Michael Smith and D. Dowling. The late Mrs Kelly, whose death occurred on March 8th., in Morell, as previously reported, was a native of Ireland and emigrated to this Province in 1840, her maiden name being ellen E. Garry. She leaves to mourn, besides a large number of friends, three sons and one daughter, viz: Patrick in this city, William in Lowell, Mass; George in Morell, and Mrs George W. Hooper, in Charlestown, Mass. She leaves forty-four grand children and three great grand children.

How's your horse looking? Is his hair stiff and dirty? Is he moving slowly in a tired fashion? Do his eyes indicate good health? The Island Condition Powder clears the eye, gives gloss to the coat, and lightness to his action. It's just as good for cattle sheep and hogs—25c. lb. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.

The Business Men's and Fourth Regiment's teams in Burke's Bowling League will meet tonight on Burke's Alleys in a regular League Match. The game starts at 7.30.

On the evening of Feb. 22nd., a very pleasant surprise party was given Miss Myrtle Peardon (daughter of T. E. Peardon formerly of this city but now of 1735 First Ave. East, Vancouver, B. C.,) by about thirty of her young friends of thr Princess Street Methodist Church. Games, singing and music were the features of the evening after which refreshments were served being in charge of Mrs Cyrus D. Mallett and Mrs T. E. Peardon.

The many friends in this Province of Senator Josiah Wood of Sackville will be interested in the following recent despatch from Ottawa: Senator and Mrs. Wood left for Sackville this afternoon. They went by private car, which will obviate any change of car between Ottawa and their home. They attach to the intercolonial tomorrow at Montreal. Mr. Wood has improved considerably, and it is thought will stand the journey fairly well.

A quiet wedding took place at St. Mary's Church, Winnipeg, Feb. 7, when Miss Mary F. McKenna, daughter of Frank McKenna of Charlottetown, P. E. I., was married to Francis J. Berrigan, also of Charlottetown, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Father D'Alton. The bride wore a pretty cream eolinne over a taffeta dress with pretty hat to match and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, who was a sister of the groom, Miss Julia Berrigan, wore a white crepe de chine dress with picture hat. The best man was Robert Christie, of Carman. Mr. and Mrs. Berrigan will reside at 385 Brooklyne street, St. James. Mr. Berrigan is a brother of George Berrigan, barber, City, and his bride has a large number of friends in this city. The Guardian extends its best wishes.

Alex. and Mrs Campbell, Brookfield, entertained a number of friends at their home on Thursday evening last, the young people from the surrounding districts took advantage of the good roads, and took Mr and Mrs. Campbell by surprise, and soon their commodious rooms were filled from far and near. The evening was spent all too quickly in music, vocal and instrumental, games and speech making. Among the guests taking part in the evening's entertainment was Miss Sadie McLeod, Bridgetown, neice of Miss Campbell. Special mention must be given to the singing given by Misses Campbell, Matheson and McLeod. And enjoyment was bubbling all over the house. The bell was then sounded and supper was announced, and as usual, when Mr and Mrs. Campbell entertains, everything was of the best and in abundant supply. About twelve o'clock, every one joined hands and sang Old Lang Syne. Good-bye was then said with best wishes for Mr and Mrs Campbell. Every one hoping to meet again in the near future.

ENTERTAINMENT AND SOCIAL AT GREENWICH

A bright, clear night, a large and attentive audience and a good program all combined to render the pie social and entertainment recently held at Greenwich, Lot 40, a thoroughly enjoyable affair. The event was held for the purpose of raising funds for certain church requirements. The pies were numerous and the bidding lively and well-sustained. It is needless to say they were models of the culinary art Preliminary remarks followed by a lecture entitled "History of a piece of coal" by the chairman, C. S. MacDonald, constituted the first number of the program. It was well received. Recitations by Misses Lyle Sanderson, Lilie MacEwen and Evelyn Sanderson, were much esteemed and warmly applauded, as was also that of Alvah MacEwen. The vocal music by Mrs. (Dr.) MacLaughlin, Miss Abiona Waye, M. MacLaren and W. Sutherland was highly appreciated. Miss Olive Webster sang and accompanied in her usual good style. J. B. MacEwen operated the graphophone, playing some very appropriate selections. N. J. MacEwen and W. Sutherland performed the duties of doorkeeper and collectors in an admirable manner. When the program was concluded M. MacLaren and W. W. Cox officiated efficiently as auctioneers. Special thanks are due those ladies from the Head of St. Peter's who contributed so largely to the success of the program. The tidy sum of $37.20 was realized and the entertainment will be recalled for many a day with pleasant memories on account of the very creditable demeanor of those who were in attendance, and, in fact, the high quality of the whole function, which was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.
