WATCH for "The Guardian Man," FRED MACDONALD crossed to Pictou yesterday by the S.S. Northumberland.

H. G. SHERRIN, Charlottetown, is the guest of D. S. and Mrs. Sherrin, Crapaud. Telephone subscribers please add to directory, No 23, Louis H. Beer and E. G. Beer, Insurance Office.

MISS ANDERSON, Fairfield, who has been visiting friends in this city, leaves this morning for Fall River, Mass, where she will spend the winter.

Horses for the Maine lumber woods continue to be shipped from this Province. Several fine draught horses consigned to parties in Maine passed through Moncton a few days ago.

MESSES SAUNDERS and Newsom have installed in their meat store a new competing scale of the very latest design and make. This scale besides weighing the article registers the price thus avoiding mistakes and delays. It is also a scale of beauty and adds much to the appearance of the firm's already up-to-date market.

THE Marathon Race, of nearly five miles, held in St. John, Saturday, Nov. 17th, was won by Herbert Atkinson from the Senior Class in Mt. Allison University. Mr Atkinson covered the course in 35 minutes, and 55 seconds, leading his nearest opponent by 25 seconds. Mr. Atkinson may train for the real Marathon race, to be held in Greece in three years time. Mr. Atkinson is known by a number of Island colleagues.

THE next event to which The Guardian can confidently recommend lovers of literature and good entertainment will be the engagement of Miss Pauline Johnson, Indian poetess, and Walter McRaye, humorist. They have lately returned from a tour in England where their reception was most flattering. Of the high quality of Miss Johnson's work there is no question, and Mr. McRaye is equally worthy of the public regard. Their entertainment in the Opera House on next Wednesday evening will provide pleasure for all who attend.

THE first of the 1907 calendars to reach The Guardian is that of the Mutual Life Insurance of Canada, a company that has made rapid strides in public favor and now numbers adherents in every section of this Province. The genial well-known Provincial Manager for Prince Edward Island is J. O. Arsenault, who during the past few years has succeeded in making the name of his Company a household word throughout this Island. This 1907 calendar is, like the calendars issued by the Mutual in former years, of large and useful size, and most satisfactory for hanging upon the walls of offices. The figures are plain and easily discernible at a distance, and the general design of the calendar is such that a rush for them can be predicted without the exercise of much of the qualities of the prophet.

SERGEANT J. ALLEN some months ago made application to the Government of India for the Indian Mutiny Pension, he having served through that memorable struggle as orderly to Sir Colin Campbell and took part in the siege of Lucknow and other memorable events. His many friends in Charlottetown will be pleased to know that his application has been granted and he will hereafter receive a Special Mutiny Pension of £18 shillings per month for life. This pension is in addition to the regular army pension which he has received since he came to Charlottetown. Sergeant Allen desires to express his thanks to Lieutenant Governor McKinnon, Mayor Paton, Capt. J. A. MacDonald and Rev. T. F. Fullerton who actively and successfully assisted in bringing his claim to the notice of the Indian Government.

KELLY'S CROSS was in quite a flutter of excitement on Monday morning the occasion being the marriage of Charles Bradley, station master at Grand View, to Miss Mary A. McQuaid, daughter of Peter McQuaid, of Kelly's Cross. The ceremony took place at 9 a. m. in the chapel at Kelly's Cross, Rev. Terence Campbell being the officiant. The bridesmaid was Miss Beatie Bradley, sister of the groom, and the bestman was John F. Gormley. In the evening a wedding party assembled at the home of the bride's parents, and a most delightful evening was spent, the enjoyment being participated in by a number of friends of the interested parties. There was a charming array of beautiful presents. Yesterday the bride and groom with the groomsmen and bridesmaid, and accompanied by Miss Katie McQuaid, sister of the bride, and Miss Emily Atkin, Miss Loretta McQuaid, and Louis Bradley came to the City. In the afternoon the party left for the new home of the bride and groom at St. Teresa's.

EXCELLENT instruction in the judging of dairy and beef cattle was given yesterday afternoon at the Farmers' Pavilion on the Exhibition "Grounds" by W. F. Stevens of Hamilton Quebec, and William Elliott, Galt, Ontario. Nearly everyone present took part in judging and the discussions were frequent and the points well supported. It is not often that opportunities of this kind are offered to farmers and every advantage should be taken of them. The meeting this evening will be held at York. The addresses will be illustrated with specially prepared lantern slides. Thursday and Friday the courses will be conducted in the rink at Souris.
