John H. and Mrs. Lathin, Providence, R. I., return next Thursday after spending the summer with relatives at Nine Mile creek. Mr. Lathin is so well pleased with the climate of this province that he has purchased the property of the late Capt. Lund, New Dominion, and intends taking possession next March.

Correspondents should remember that to ensure early appearance of correspondence all matter sent in should be put down as such as possible. Every attention is paid to correspondence but it is impossible to get everything in as written, especially when as of late many communications are being received each day.

There was a splendid exhibition at the Market yesterday of all the excellent farm products of this favored Province. Small fruits of all kinds, as well as the berries of the fields were in abundance and found ready purchasers. The show of fresh meat and fish was particularly attractive and a number of tourists who were in the city found the market building to be a centre of interest.

The table cover kindly donated by Moore & McLeod and the hearty rug by Prowse Bros. Limited, Charlottetown, in aid of the grand tea party held at St. Augustine Church, Rustico last month realized the sums of $5.50 and $15.00 respectively. Rev. Laughlin McDonald, Charlottetown, secured the former and Miss Dora Smith of North Rustico, the latter.

Those who want work of any kind or are looking for help of any kind should send their names and addresses with all particulars or call at The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, New Prowse Block, Charlottetown.

Telephone 1228. Those who do not desire to advertise will please send 25 cents with their request, which amount will be returned to them on application if they do not get what they want.

The Guardian's correspondent at Caladonia writes as follows:—Potatoes are a fair crop.—Oats is below the average.—John McLeod and his daughter, Mrs. Joseph McLeod, contemplate going to Antigonish where they will spend a few weeks visiting friends.—The Rev. John Gillis of Orwell, preached last Sunday, and will be here next Sunday, the 12th.—We have quite a number of visitors from Uncle Sam's domain, and neighboring provinces.—Miss May Nicholson, of Grand View, is visiting friends, the guest of Malcolm J. and Mrs. Stewart.—Our mail carriers, Stewart Brothers, are making pretty good time driving the mail those hot days.—N. Advertisers are asked to have "changes in not later than ten a. m. each Saturday for both The Daily and The Tri-weekly of Monday. Guardian employees have a half holiday each Saturday during the summer months. The business, editorial and news departments are open as on other days for the transaction of business.

The question has been frequently asked—Why is it the fair maidens living on the routes of the S. S. City of London have such beautiful complexions? It is easily answered. Because they spend at least four or five hours once a week on the water. You can do likewise four days a week and enjoy a combination of country and salt water air, if you consult the steamer excursion bulletin in another column.

The Halifax sailed at noon yesterday with the following passengers: Alice Oar, W. L. Starbuck, Miss C. Peake, James D. Oar, Miss M. C. Gillis, Miss Walker, Geo. W. Lovejoy and wife, J. F.
