St. Andrews Greetings For Caledonian Club

At the St. Andrew's Dinner last evening the following greetings from other clubs and fraternities were received in reply to the club's greeting which read:

Dear Brother Scots, - The Caledonian Club of Prince Edward Island once more greets you on the Feast of Saint Andrew, wishing you a merry time round the festive board, or on the Terpsichorean floor, awakening pleasant memories, recalling vivid scenes and historic episodes of Auld Scotia.

Wad ye could look on Dinnet Muir,

Wad ye could tramp through Heilan' glen,

Or gaze on Wyvis' heathel'd side, Or view Schiehallion's lofty ben,

Wad ye could roam ower Misty Isle,

Or seek the sweet dream-Hebrides,

To 'Trossachs turn - "whaur twines the path"

Heath-hungry herts ayont the seas!

A' the brave heights o' Borderlan'

The Lammernuir's roun' Lothian flung

The Lomon's hills o' Galloway-The "hills o' hame" by exile sung

Wad I could bring ye vision sweet Their purple splendour fair to see,

On wings o' love could speed ye hame

To rove through paths o' memory!-(Joan B. White).

Fraternal Yours, NEIL McCANNELL, President

T. M. McMILLAN, Secretary

Fredericton Society of St. Andrew

Guid health, my brithers, scattered wide,

We meet again w' joy and pride And sit around the ingleside this joyfu' day,

And let our fancies hameward rids in Scottish lay.

Quebec St. Andrew's Society

There's a bonnie, bonnie moun'tain land lies far ajoin't the sea,

Where the breezes sigh in summer time was aye a sang tae me;

There's a tender, tender longing in the whisper o' its name;

For still tae ev'ry exiled hert its hame, hame, hame.

Montreal St. Andrew's Society

We're met this night i' the Auld Land's name

As we've aften met i' the year's gone by,

Our herts and our greetin's are ever the same,

And to the Scots i' the world we cry:-

Be hel' to the Land that gied ye birth,

For there's nae mair worthy in a' the yirth.

And crossed the restless sea, As we approach life's gloaming The Auld Hoose we would see And heather on the hills of hame, The golden whins in June, The moors on which we used to roam And the Auld staggering Toun.

Chatham (Ont.) St. Andrew's Society

When drowsy bees croud to the bike, An' mawkins seek their burrows, When ower a' lies frost and snaw, An' crows frequent the furrows; To cheer us through this gloomy siege

We gratefully remember, An' hall w' mony a happy hooch The thirtieth o' November.

Winnipeg St. Andrew's Society

St. Andrew's Nict is here again. The reason o't is unco plain; Tae greet ye w' the Auld refrain, Here's tae us, wha's like us?

Kingston, Ont., St. Andrew's Society

Nae walth o' gowden streets for me; I ask that but my een may see The Auld green hops, the broomy lea, The clear burn pules, And wander whaur the wind blows free Frae heather hills.

London, Ont., St. Andrew's Society

Scots there be who stay at home, Some obey a roving will; Yet, however far they roam, Caledonia holds them still.
