P. E. I. Champions

Posting a score of 1452 out of a possible 1500 points, this team from the Community Sport Club, Summerside, P.E.I., successfully defended its Prince Edward Island provincial title against several of the best rifle teams in the province in the first round of the fourth annual Dominion Marksmen .22 Sporting Rifle Championship Competition. A record entry of 1,533 competed on a total of 219 teams from all over Canada, which made this one of the largest rifle matches ever held in this country. The P.E.I. shooters will compete about the middle of the month against the other eight provincial titleholders for the Dominion Marksmen Challenge Shield and national title and the results of the national finals will be announced before the end of the year. The personnel and individual scores of the team are as follows: front row, left to right—Mrs. F. Barrett, 288; Mr. F. Barrett, 288; back row, left to right—Wylie Barrett, secretary, 298; Claude Barrett, 289; and Everett Brooks, 289. Missing—C. Compton, (spare), 292. It's almost all in the family, Wylie and Claude Barrett being the sons of Mr. and Mrs. F. Barrett and Everett Brooks, their son-in-law.

Win C. R. U. Championship

OTTAWA, Dec. 8(CP)—Sammy Sward rose against his former teammates Saturday to lead Ottawa Rough Riders to a 12-5 victory over Toronto Balmy Beach in the Eastern Final and Canadian Rugby Union recognition as Dominion Champions.

It was Sward more than any other single player who threw back the daring challenge of the Ontario Union titlists in snow-covered Lansdowne Park Saturday in the second game of the total-points series for the championship. Slamming Sam, the punting man, was the Ottawa hero of the day.

It was no empty challenge Beaches threw at the two-time Interprovincial Union standard bearers. They had been beaten at Toronto the week before 8-2, but their confidence was high and their morale unshaken as they set out make up the six- point deficit. In less than half a quarter's play it looked as if Beaches, the underdogs, would play David to the Ottawa Goliath.

The statistics of the game told a surprising story of 10 Beach first downs to Ottawa's five, 146 yards rushing to 114 and 70 yards gained passing to 43 for Ottawa. But six of the first Beach downs came during a wild and uncontrollable offensive in the last quarter, in which they threw 10 passes and had four intercepted.

Dominates All-Americans

NEW YORK, Dec. 8—(AP)—Boasting the greatest concentration of football talent, the Middle West dominates the 16th annual All-American team, selected by The Associated Press on the basis of a survey of expert opinion. The Mid-West placed three men on the first team.

The 1940 All-American:—

End—Paul Severin, North Carolina; tackle—Nicholas Drahso, Cornell; guard—Robert Suffridge, Tennessee; centre—Chester Gladchuck, Boston College; guard—Warren Alfson, Nebraska; tcakle—Robert Reinhardt, California; end—Erwin Elrod, Mississippi State; halfback—Frank Albert, Stanford; halfback—Tom Harmon, Michigan; halfback—George Franck, Minnesota; fullback—John Kimbrough, Texas Aggies.

Chihawks Down Bruins 3-2 In Overtime Play

CHICAGO, Dec. 8—(AP)—Cully Dahlstrom's goal in the closing minutes of an overtime battle gave Chicago Black Hawks a 3-2 victory over Boston Bruins tonight before 16,412 spectators, largest home crowd of the season.

The winning goal, which enabled the Hawks to move into third place and shove the Bruins into fourth, came with less than three minutes to play as the climax to a see-saw contest.

Woody Dumart's goal put Boston ahead in the first period but before the stanza was over the Hawks had knotted the count on Dahlstrom's first goal of the game. The Hawks went ahead in the second period when Doug Bentley fired a goal past Frankie Brimsek.

The Bruins retaliated with a third period goal by Des Smith, which sent the game into overtime.

Canadiens Beat Wings 3-2

MONTREAL, Dec. 8—(CP)—Coach Dick Irvin's renovated Montreal Canadiens spotting Detroit Red Wings two first-period goals, fought their way out of the National League cellar with a 3-2 victory over the second-place Red Wings here Saturday night.

A Goal by 19-year-old Johnny Quilty late in the third period climaxed the uphill battle for the Canadiens, who had tied the score on a pair of counters by centre Murph Chamberlain. The veteran Syd Howe and rookie Les Douglas shot both Detroit tallies within six minutes of the start of the game.

A crowd of 6,023 paid admissions was sent home happy when Quilty, rookie centre from Ottawa, broke from a Detroit power attack on a pass from defenceman Ken Reardon. He sped down the ice from the Montreal blue line to beat goalie Johnny Mowers on a 15-foot angle shot.

Detroit Red Wings Capitalize on Penalty To Beat Rangers 3-1

NEW YORK, Dec. 8—(AP)—Detroit Red Wings, in their best exhibition of hockey in New York since their Stanley Cup days of 1936-37, defeated New York Rangers 3-1 in a National Hockey League game tonight. A crowd of 13,851 fans saw a fast, wide open game.

Two goals by Eddie Wares and Alex Motter stabbed home within 51 seconds of each other in the second period while Mac Colville of Rangers was serving a penalty upset a 1-0 lead gained by the New Yorkers in the first period and put Detroit ahead. Then in the third period Motter scored unexpectedly on a high 30-foot drive on a breakaway play from a Ranger attack and made victory certain.

Lynn Partlek had scored for Rangers in the first period, sliding a five-foot shot under goalie Johnny Mowers while Motter was off with a penalty.

Motter gave a courageous display in returning to score two goals after a skate gash by Neil Colville in the first period had required four stitches to his thigh.

The victory tightened Detroit's hold on second place, four points behind Toronto.

SUMMARY

First Period

1—Rangers, L. Patrick (N. Colville) 9:37
Penalties—Heller, Motter, Goodfellow and M. Colville.

Second Period

2—Detroit, Wares (Abel) 11:09
3—Detroit, Motter (Wares, Abel) 12:00
Penalty—M. Colville.

Third Period

4—Detroit, Motter 16:05
Penalties—None.

Goldup's goal Beats Bruins

TORONTO, Dec. 8—(CP)—Hank Goldup couldn't shake loose his scoring magic for more than 58 minutes here Saturday night, but when he did it, it was for the goal that gave Toronto Maple Leafs a 3-2 National Hockey League victory over Boston Bruins.

Only 69 seconds stood between the two teams and overtime when Goldup topped off an effortless rush with a goal that looked almost too easy to be true. He skated through the entire Boston team after taking a pass from Pete Langelle at the Toronto blue line and when the red light flashed behind goalie Frankie Brimsek in the Boston nets Goldup was the only unamazed person in Maple Leaf Gardens.

The game was a robust affair, marked by a minimum of penalties, Bill Cowley and Jack Shewchuk drawing the only enforced rests handed out by referee King Clancy.

Sweeney Schriner's neat tally on Don Metz' pass early in the first period gave the Leafs a lead which was wiped out when Bobby Bauer and Shewchuk whipped in a brace of tallies halfway through the second period.

A sustained Toronto drive in the third approached a near-climax when Gordie Drillon steered Bingo Kampman's shot into the goal to tie the score at 9:20. Goldup wound up some nine minutes later and put the game away for his team.

Bill Cowley, Roy Conacher, Dit Clapper and Busher Hollett were near-scorers for the Bruins. Cowley hit the post after pulling Turk Broda out of position. Hollett, on a breakaway which took him in on the unprotected Turk, lost control of the puck when about to shoot, and Broda dropped on the sliding puck.

SUMMARY

First Period

1—Toronto, Schriner (Don Metz) 5:53
Penalties—None

Second Period

2—Boston, Bauer (Dumart) 8:48
3—Boston, Shewchuk (Conacher) 13:08
Penalty—Cowley.

Third Period

4—Toronto, Drillon (Kampman, Apps) 9:20
5—Toronto, Goldun (Langelle) 18:51
Penalty—Shewchuk.

Texas A. and M. Fordham's host In Cotton Bowl

NEW YORK, Dec. 8—(CP)—Texas A. and M., co-champion of the Southwest conference, will be host team in the Cotton Bowl post-season football game at Dallas, Texas, against Fordham University of New York on New Year's day.

The Aggies, who suffered one defeat during the season—as did Fordham—were invited after Southern Methodist University waived its claim as co-holder of the conference title. S.M.U. defeated Rice Institute 7-6 Saturday to tie the Aggies at the top, but waived its claim because the Aggies beat S.M.U. 19-7 five weeks ago.

Notre Dame invaded Los Angeles to defeat Southern California's Trojans 10-6 in a thriller in which the losers had the ball on the Irish goal line as the gun sounded, and the final pass just missed its receiver.

QUARANTINE LIFTED

YARMOUTH, N.S., Dec. 8.—(CP)—Quarantine was imposed today on the military training camp here because of a possible case of diphtheria among the 500 men attending under the compulsory training scheme.

Col. U. G. Dawson, camp commandant, said the measure was purely precautionary. A definite diagnosis of the single case is expected tomorrow.

Meanwhile, quarantine at the Royal Canadian Air Force barracks here was lifted tonight. The fliers had been confined to the airport for 10 days following discovery of a mild diphtheria case.

Minard's relieves aches.
