Frank Ryan, Sailing Master and Pilot, son of Capt. Joseph and Mrs. Ryan. Capt. Anderson who is chief of this service is stationed in Ottawa, but owing to the illness of Mr. R. J. Fraser, who is attached to the ship, Capt. Anderson was compelled to make this trip, so that these important operations would not be postponed. Capt. Ryan, who was made remarkable advancement in his chosen calling, was second officer on this ship when the war broke out and resigning he came home and joined up with the 8th Sarge Battery. At the close of the war he joined the ship as second officer and continued until he received the important appointment as Sailing Master and Pilot. A number of friends were on the wharf last evening to meet the former Charlottetown men.

Summer Camping Resort

Mr. Edward Jenkins of Mt. Alton has acquired the property adjoining Keefer's lake and intends fitting it up to accommodate camping tourists who provide their own covering.

There probably is no better stretch of water on P. E. I. where bathing, boating, etc. can be enjoyed with so much comfort and safety.

The shore which takes a gradual slope down is made of a very firm sand which will carry a car when the water is at a low level. Hardly a stone of any kind is to be found to injure the bathers feet and the water is exceptionally warm at all times.

Fishing although not of the best will yield good returns to any angler who feels like spending an hour or two in a boat pursuing the wily ones.

A few flat bottom boats will be available to any who desire to use them.

The grounds and house which are just across the lake are admirably situated. A beautiful hardwood grove provides sufficient shelter. The house recently put in first class condition will be available for roomers while drinks and all kinds of confectionary will be available at the usual cost.

A baseball diamond was laid out today where any teams who are desirous of combating their neighbors in this many game may do so on this diamond at any time arranged.

The road is in the best of condition leading down to it and one and all are invited down to visit it on their next picnic.

Get on the RR road and you cannot miss it.

This is the first step in this direction ever attempted by anyone on the island and we are safe in saying that in a very few years time there will be many others, for there is a great demand for this type of camp by the many summer tourists who arrive here each summer and that demand must be accommodated.

Sent Up To Supreme Court

At the Police Court yesterday morning Barney McCloskey and his wife Bessie appeared before His Honor charged with receiving stolen goods to the value of $400.00, knowing the same to be stolen.

Mr. J. A. Bentley appeared for the prisoners, while Mr. Gilbert Gaudet, K. C., appeared for the prosecution.

Judge Wyatt, Summerside, occupied the seat beside His Honor Stipendiary Martin.

After evidence had been given by Miss A. Dolron of the Vogue store and ex-Police Sergeant Bradley, His Honor committed the prisoners for trial to the Supreme Court.

Miss Dolron gave the details of the robbery, stating that the value of the goods was $800.

Sergeant Bradley certified to going to the home of Mr. McCloskey. He saw Mrs. McCloskey and told her she was looking for stolen goods. She said she knew where they were and would bring them to him, which she did, 8 coats, 5 dresses.

The following is the evidence in details:

Partner of Miss Steele of the Vogue store broke into Sunday morning the 5th. (Recited details of being notified and going to the store.) Found door open and floor on this ship when the war broke out and resigning he came home and joined up with the 8th Sarge Battery. At the close of the war he joined the ship as second officer and continued until he received the important appointment as Sailing Master and Pilot. A number of friends were on the wharf last evening to meet the former Charlottetown men.
