THE MORNING GUARDIAN

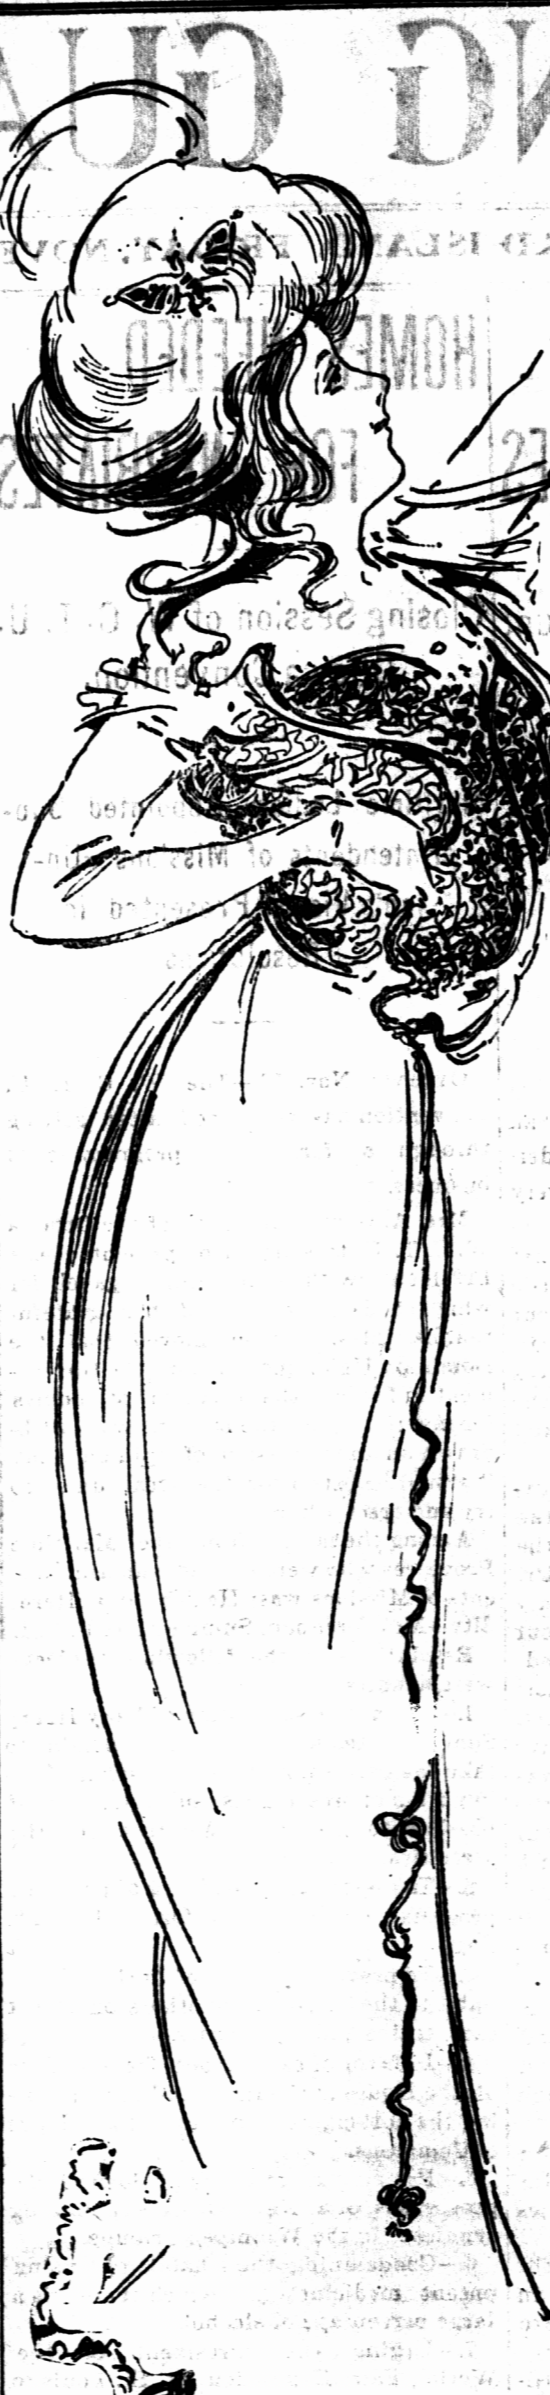

FRIDAY, NOV. 13, 1903.

THE REPRESENTATION AND FISHERIES QUESTIONS.

As is well known the Provincial Government is not content to rest under the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada, and the enactment of the Ottawa Parliament by which the representation of the Island in the House of Commons is reduced to four members. Steps have been properly taken to have the matter appealed to the Privy Council and consent has been obtained to bring an appeal before that high tribunal. Premier Peters has been informed by cable that although the actual time for the hearing has not yet been fixed it is probable that it will take place in February next. The Guardian has from the first warmly supported this appeal, in view of the great importance to the Island of retaining the full quota of members to which our people feel that they are entitled.

The other day in an interview with the Montreal Gazette, Hon. Dr. Pugsley, Attorney General of New Brunswick stated that New Brunswick will also carry an appeal to the Privy Council against the judgment of the Supreme Court of Canada reducing the representation of that Province. This is important as although New Brunswick stands on different ground from the Island, being entirely under the British North America Act, yet we have one point in common as to whether the representation of any Province can be reduced below the number with which it entered the union. We think our case is undoubtedly stronger than that of New Brunswick, and yet the Government of the sister Province thinks it worth while to prosecute an appeal. This gives a strong endorsement of the wisdom of our Government's action.

Attorney General Pugsley also stated that in the fisheries matter a case is being prepared for submission to the Supreme Court of Canada. This is the result of negotiations which have been going on for a good while between the federal and Provincial Governments. The parties will be the Government of Canada of the one part and the Governments of Quebec, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island of the other part. For some reason Nova Scotia is taking no part. As that Province receives the lion's share of the fishery bounty, which is paid in lieu of the interest on the Halifax Fishery Award, it is content to permit matters to go as they have been going. The Guardian sincerely hopes that the outcome of the fisheries questions may be to better in some measure the financial position of this Province.
