

All Aboard for Christmas Buying

Fruit Cakes should be made right off to mellow and ripen during the few weeks left.

Jot down citron, lemon and orange peels. Sultana Seedless raisins, figs, spices of all sorts—whatever your recipe calls for, we have.

And is you want to win a reputation for plum puddings, make it this year with the superior Barbadoes molasses we have for the first to call.

JENKINS & SON

Everything That's Good to Eat

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

RATES.—10c per line per day. 5c per line per day for 3 days or over. 2c per line per day for 7 days or over. Count 5 words a line.

Agents Wanted

WANTED LIVE AGENTS FOR Watkins 150 products. Direct to consumer. Write The J. R. Watkins Co., 379 Craig St., West Montreal.

Help Wanted—Male

WANTED—IMMEDIATELY A single man around farm and ranch. Phone connections Arthur Wood, Mt. Herbert. 10653-5-31

MALE HELP WANTED—MAKE money at home—$10.00 to $40.00 paid weekly for your spare time writing showcards for us. No canvassing. We instruct and supply you with work. West-Angus Showcard Service, 102 Colborne Bldg., Toronto. 11-2241f.

STRAYED—GREY AND WHITE steer. Notify Alfred Roberts Winsloe. 10616-4-41

LOST—BUNCH KEYS PLEASE leave Guardian office 10626-6-31.

LOST A WILD GOOSE ON ASY. Jim Point, East River on Monday afternoon. Finder kindly return to William McInnis, 102 Water St. Reward.

FOR SALE—SPEED SLEIGH; W. S. Brown. 10612 6 11.

FOR SALE HEN AND CHICKENS Apply 202 Keat.

WOOD SALE AT J. H. STEWART'S Harrington, Wednesday, Dec. 6th, at 2 o'clock p.m. If stormy first fine day. 1063045-21.

FOR SALE—DRIVING SLEIGH. Apply 42 Passmore St. 10647-5-21

School Of Nursing Broomfield Hospital White Plains, N. Y.

KAISER IS FORCED TO GO WALKING BY WIFE

DOORN, Dec. 5.—The hand of Princess Hermine continues to be felt in the activities of Doorn Castle and its chief occupant, the former Emperor, at the insistence of his wife is beginning to abandon his cloistered existence and to walk abroad among the villagers.

WOMEN WARNED AGAINST WEARING OF CHEAP FURS

LONDON, Nov. 20.—A warning has been issued by the London health institutions to women to guard against wearing cheap furs, quantities of which recently have been brought into England.

OBJECT TO BEING CALLED SHEEPLIKE AND DULL

QUEBEC, Dec. 5.—The legislative assembly of the province of Quebec voted an urgent protest yesterday against the speech made by Armand Lavergne in the Monument Nationale in Montreal when he employed the words "sheeplike" and "dull and servile" when referring to the French-Canadians of the province.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children

Always bear the Signature of J. C. Ayer & Co.

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

SHOP from Holman's Catalogue.

RUMMAGE SALE in the Market House Friday morning.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH Bazaar and Pantry Sale Dec 8th in Howard's Shoe Store and Dec 6 21

MEN'S VELOUR HATS in colors dark brown, Dark Green, and Black; sizes 7 to 7 1/4 worth from $6.00 to $7.00 to clear at half price Sinclair and Stewart Limited.

RAID YESTERDAY.—The prohibition officers yesterday raided the quarters of a woman over the Chinese Laundry, Grafton Street, and took away five "toddies" (partially full) for examination.

COMMUNITY CLUB.—The Ladies' Committee have decided to postpone the opening of the Community Club, which was to have taken place Friday, December 8th, to Friday December 15th. Dec 6-11

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Red Cross Society will be held in the Board of Trade Rooms, Dec. 7th at 3.30 p.m. All members invited to attend at 8 p.m. The public meeting in the Market Hall will be addressed by Dr. J.W. Robertson, C.M.G. of Ottawa and Dr. Wodehouse. This meeting will be opened by moving pictures. Free to public. Dec. 6 21

RETURNED FROM SAD MISSION.—Mr. E. J. Smith of Surfport returned last night from St. John, N. B. whether he was called a few days ago by the death of his mother, Mrs. W. B. Smith of that city. The deceased lady had been ill but a short time and her death had not been anticipated until very shortly before she passed away. She was 68 years of age and was buried in Fernhill Cemetery on Thursday last.

WELL KNOWN HERE.—The St. John Journal says:—Thomas Murphy, a cloth dealer from Ireland, was arrested on Saturday a charge of assaulting A. Poyas in his store in King Square. According to the story told in court Murphy had been in the store of Mr. Poyas yesterday exhibiting some of his goods and trying to make a sale. Mr. Poyas had taken the matter under consideration and the young man returned on Saturday. Mr. Poyas told him that he had decided not to take the cloth, whereupon, it was alleged, the young man became abusive. Mr. Poyas ordered him out of his store and the young man went as far as the door. At this point it was alleged, he swung round and struck Mr. Poyas under the ear, told him he had a good mind to smash his windows, and walked away. Mr. Poyas went to the head of King St. and told Traffic Policeman Duffy of the occurrence, and Policeman Duffy set off in pursuit. He overhauled his quarry in the old burial ground. The accused was remanded to jail.

PERSONALS Mr. and Mrs. G. Ballingall, city, leave this morning on a trip to Toronto and other Canadian cities.

Miss Sadie Stewart and Miss Gladys Adams of Sea View are spending a few days in Clifton the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Cooley.

Mr. J. Horne of Winsloe left this morning for Sydney and Gace Bay with a shipment of horses.

Mr. William Stewart of the North American Assurance Co., in this city leaves this morning for Boston. Bill's many friends while regretting his departure will wish him every success in the Hub.

BIRTHS RUNCIE.—At Albany, R. R. on Nov. 16th to George F. and Mrs. Runcie, a son, (John Milton).

DEATHS POOLE.—In Charlottetown, December 5th, Charles D. Poole aged 82. Funeral at 2 p. m. today, Wednesday from Mr. D. L. McKinnon's undertaking rooms, Montague, to Lower Montague Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM MISS KATIE RUSH At Charlottetown on November 30, at the early age of 20 years Katie Rush passed away. Although in failing health for almost a year, death came unexpected. True piety, Christian fortitude, earnest charity, and sincere devotion to her faith were her high and noble qualities. Her high and noble character. Her high and noble character. Her high and noble character.

Help Wanted—Female WANTED—EXPERIENCED MAID References required. Apply Mrs. D. Stewart 155 Kent Street.

WANTED—A MAID IN SMALL family. Apply Mrs. Frank Dorsey, 94 Weymouth St.

EARL HAIG ISSUES WARNING ON EMIGRATION VETERANS

LONDON, Dec. 5.—Earl Haig in opening the branch of the British Legion at Manchester today, urged the ex-service men to look closely into the emigration schemes before leaving this country. He said he once received a telegram from a certain Governor requesting £1,000 to help people who had emigrated and were starving.

MRS. RODERICK MCKENZIE Mrs. Roderick McKenzie departed this life at her late home at Allison on the 18th day of Sept, in the 63rd year of her age after a very brief illness of but a few days duration. The funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. C. E. Armstrong of Montague, and interment took place at Caledonia Cemetery.

She leaves to mourn their sad loss, besides her husband, eight daughters, all of whom returned home to pay the last tribute of love and respect to mother.

The daughters are—Mrs. Maurice C. Smith, of Everett Mass, Mrs. Lester L. Smith, Revere Mass, Mrs. William A. Stewart, Millisnoct, Maine, Mrs. Charles A. Gillis, Gloucester, Mass, Miss Jessie McKenzie, Everett, Mass, Mrs. Hiram F. Lecco, Murray Harbor North, Miss Katherine McKenzie, Gloucester, Mass, and Margaret Dolena at home. One son, Daniel, predeceased.

GAZETTED.—The Canada Gazette of Dec 2nd contains the following appointment: Patrick Murphy, of Vernon, in the Province of Prince Edward Island: to be Warranting of the Government Wharf at Vernon River in the said Province, in the room and stead of John Finlay, deceased.

HANDSOME CAR.—A handsome Hudson Sedan car has been purchased by Bishop O'Leary and was noticed with interest about the streets of the city this week. The car was brought here by the Hudson and Essex salesman and is beautifully finished with quiet dark blue upholstery.

THE CANCELLING of the Red Cross Meeting which was scheduled for Montague does not interfere in any way with the Charlottetown and Summerside meetings. These meetings will be held as usual and it is hoped a large crowd will be in attendance. Dec 6-21

WOMENS LIBERAL CLUB.—The first meeting of the Women's Liberal Club this season was held in the Board of Trade rooms Monday evening Mrs Cecil J Stewart occupied the chair and in opening the meeting gave an address on "What the Women Should do with their vote." She was followed by Miss Winnie McLeod trained nurse who spoke along the lines of medical inspection in the schools and child welfare; Hon. P. J. Nash, and Mr. D. Edgar Shaw who gave two enjoyable recitations. After discussion taking part in by several ladies the meeting closed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—ANNIVERSARY CONCERT.—The Sunday School class of St. Mary's Chapel, Kensington, have decided to celebrate the institution of their little society by a concert and social to be placed on the boards somewhere during the Christmas holidays.

—HONOR ROLL KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL.—Month of November. Principals Department: Grade X.—1. Christine Bantel, 2. Miriam Proffitt, 3. Urban Harrington, Grade IX.—1. Ruby Rogers, 2. Marion Kennedy, 3. Bertha Thompson, Miss Humphrey's Department: Grade VIII (sr.)—1. Ray Stewart, 2. James Millman, 3. Marion Millman, Grade VIII (jr.)—1. Halle Waite, 2. Kathleen Ready, 3. Lillian Champion, Grade VII.—1. Marguerite Higgins, 2. Virginia Harrington, 3. Ruby Bernard, Miss MacArthur's Department: Grade VI.—1. Keir Duggan, 2. Helen Rogers, 3. George Webster, Grade V.—1. Edna Champion, 2. Jennie Payne, 3. Marion Whitehead, Grade IV.—1. Isabel MacLean, 2. Myrtle Hughes, 3. Celia Glover, Miss Harrington's Department: Grade III.—1. Hattie Clarke, 2. Irene Champion, 3. Ella Rogers, Grade II (jr.)—1. Miles Wat, 2. Rose Robertson, 3. Dan Bowens, Miss Driscoll's Department: Grade I.—1. Elva Cassey, 2. Katherine Murphy, and Margaret Stuart, equal, 3. Doris McKenzie, Grade II (sr.)—1. Kenneth McFadyen, 2. James Braham, 3. Alberta Kelly.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

Western Guardian

—MEN'S AND BOYS' oil tanned Larrigans' just received at Sinclair's 10629-6-21.

—WANTED TO PURCHASE patch male fox. A. E. Large Summerville. 106613-3-1

—BUYING FURS—I will be at James McKinnon's store Thursday 7th and Friday 8th at Matthew's store, Alberton to buy furs. Bring in your rat, mink and coon. H. Acker, St. Stephen, N. B. Dec. 6-11

—ANNIVERSARY CONCERT.—The Sunday School class of St. Mary's Chapel, Kensington, have decided to celebrate the institution of their little society by a concert and social to be placed on the boards somewhere during the Christmas holidays.

—HONOR ROLL KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL.—Month of November. Principals Department: Grade X.—1. Christine Bantel, 2. Miriam Proffitt, 3. Urban Harrington, Grade IX.—1. Ruby Rogers, 2. Marion Kennedy, 3. Bertha Thompson, Miss Humphrey's Department: Grade VIII (sr.)—1. Ray Stewart, 2. James Millman, 3. Marion Millman, Grade VIII (jr.)—1. Halle Waite, 2. Kathleen Ready, 3. Lillian Champion, Grade VII.—1. Marguerite Higgins, 2. Virginia Harrington, 3. Ruby Bernard, Miss MacArthur's Department: Grade VI.—1. Keir Duggan, 2. Helen Rogers, 3. George Webster, Grade V.—1. Edna Champion, 2. Jennie Payne, 3. Marion Whitehead, Grade IV.—1. Isabel MacLean, 2. Myrtle Hughes, 3. Celia Glover, Miss Harrington's Department: Grade III.—1. Hattie Clarke, 2. Irene Champion, 3. Ella Rogers, Grade II (jr.)—1. Miles Wat, 2. Rose Robertson, 3. Dan Bowens, Miss Driscoll's Department: Grade I.—1. Elva Cassey, 2. Katherine Murphy, and Margaret Stuart, equal, 3. Doris McKenzie, Grade II (sr.)—1. Kenneth McFadyen, 2. James Braham, 3. Alberta Kelly.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books, and even "prettier" hands and faces might be displayed.

—KENSINGTON HIGH SCHOOL recently visited by Miss Winnifred McLeod, Red Cross nurse, who with the efficient co-operation of the town doctors, Gillis and Jardine made a thorough examination of the health condition of the pupils and of the sanitary condition of the school property. They entered into the spirit of the work with genuine enthusiasm, and their valuable co-operation was a medical benefit to the whole institution. It stimulated in the pupils an increased interest in the one is convinced how essential a sound bodies, sanitary surroundings are to following a successful educational course. It was earnestly recommended that some means be provided to secure for the children who cannot go home at noon, by which they may have a warm lunch. It was wisely suggested that the excellent organization, the Ladies Aid, or the Red Cross, for both act upon the suggestion, and the men will be twenty to one, that those excellent women can meet the exigencies of the situation. In fact the two institutions might form a local, original, energetic, and most highly commendable institution that might measure an epoch in educational progress. Just what the idea group. Associated. The "eat" at one suggest the need of some means of washing hands and face. Why could this accommodation not also be provided? Were this done, cleaner text books, cleaner exercise books,