LOWER FREETOWN WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Lower Freetown Women's Institute met on Wednesday, May 27th, at the home of Mrs. Isaac Burns. The President presided and the meeting opened with the singing of the Institute Ode and repeating of the Creed in Unison. Minutes of previous meeting were read and signed by the President. Roll call was responded to by nine members and four visitors present. There was no report from the sick committee. The School Committee reported school not visited. Correspondence was then read by the Secretary, relating to Institute work. It was moved and seconded that the Secretary write to Wilnot play crowd asking them to come to Birch Grove Hall. Collection, 61 cents. The next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Taylor, roll call to be answered by writing your name left handed, blind-folded. The National Anthem brought the meeting to a close. Lunch was then served by the hostess and much enjoyed.

BEDEQUE

The services in the Central Bedeque Baptist Church on Sunday, May 24th, were attended by a large congregation. The morning service was conducted by Mr. Roy Campbell of Chelton, who brought a very interesting address to his hearers. Sunday School followed this service and had a good attendance of young people, present. The special evening service was held under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Aid Society. Mrs. Edwin MacFarlane, of Fernwood, presided. After the regular "sing song" a prayer was offered by Mr. Clifford Wright. Mrs. John Dawson Central Bedeque, read two Scripture passages. A solo was then very beautifully rendered by Mr. J. B. Lewis of Freetown accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Earl Leard. The Society was very fortunate in securing Miss Bain, returned missionary from India to deliver an address. Mrs. MacFarlane, introduced Miss Bain to the congregation. Miss Bain, gave a very interesting address, taking as her subject, "The Heritage of India." Miss Bain, expressed the need of more men Missionaries in India, there being only one man Missionary, Mr. Crossman to India from the Maritimes Provinces for the past ten years, and men were needed to relieve the Missionaries already there, to keep up the work of teaching in schools, preaching in churches, two separate individual works. Miss Bain, also explained the need of more funds to enable the Missionaries to carry on. Miss Bain brought out many interesting points in her address. The service was brought to a close, Mrs. Earl Leard, organist. These services were supplied in the absence of the pastor, Rev. A. G. Crowe, who is at present in New Brunswick.

The Young Peoples Society of Centreville Bedeque United Church met in the vestry of the church on Wednesday evening, May 20th. In the absence of the President, Miss Selina Myers, the vice-president, Mr. Walter Craig, occupied the chair, and opening the meeting with singing Hymn "Day is Dying in the West." The Scripture reading was given by Miss Ruth Carruthers. Mr. Robert Carruthers offered prayer followed by "The Lord's Prayer", in unison. The roll call was answered to by twenty four members, and some visitors. The minutes were then read by the Secretary, Miss Mildred Craig. The singing of Hymn "Take My Life and Let it Be" followed. The business portion of the meeting was announced by Mr. Arnold Henderson. It was decided that the members wishing to purchase Young Peoples Society Pins, would do so, at the next meeting to be held on June 3rd. The programme Committee then took charge of the meeting and continued as follows, readings by Miss Alice Jewell, and Miss Jennie MacCallum. The singing of "Stand up! Stand up! for Jesus," and the Nizpah Benediction brought a very successful meeting to a close.

Rev. Dr. Saint of Kensington conducted the services of Centreville Bedeque United Church on Sunday morning, Cape Traverse in the afternoon and Searletown, United Church in the evening. He gave very interesting discourses to large congregations at all services. The regular pastor, Rev. A. J. Reynolds, has been indisposed for some time. His many friends join in wishing him a speedy recovery.

The three Act Comedy drama "The Manhattan Honeycomb," presented by the Albany Dramatic Club was staged in the Searletown Hall on Thursday evening, May 21st, and is considered the best of its kind ever staged in that hall. The large and appreciative audience greeted the performers with rounds of applause, making them feel that their efforts were appreciated. The cast consisted of the following members: Miss Ruby Burns, Mr. Ray Cameron, Mr. Arthur Clark, Mr. Duncan Carmichael, Mrs. Ray Cameron, Miss Margaret Affleck, Miss Jean Affleck, Miss Freda Bowness, Mr. Wilfred MacCarville, Mr. Lewis Mabey. The specialities for the intermission were supplied by Mr. Arthur MacKey of Albany, on the piano, and Mr. Frank Sherry on the violin. The singing of "God Save the King" was the closing number of a very successful entertainment. Quite a large sum was realized.

Miss Gladys Lowther, of Mount Allison, Sackville, has successfully written her examinations and returned to Searletown to spend her holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Major Lowther. Congratulations Gladys!

Mr. Charles Leard, student of the Mount Allison Academy, has successfully completed his examinations and returned to his home to spend the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wright Leard, who attended the closing.

Mr. Lloyd Waugh of Wilnot Valley was a visitor to Carleton.

Mrs. (Rev.) A. J. Reynolds of Centreville Bedeque, has returned after spending a very pleasant holiday in Port Hood and Portsmouth, Nova Scotia.

Among the visitors to Summerside from Bedeque and Freetown on Saturday evening were: Mr. Edwin MacFarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leard, Miss Jennie MacCallum, Miss Winifred Wright, Miss Verna Schurman, Miss Doris Crossman, Miss Eileen Dawson, Mrs. Alice Bagnall, Miss Ruby MacLure, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wright, Mr. Howard Schurman, Mr. Leonard Leard, Mr. Harold Bagnall, Mr. Dippy Dawson, Mrs. Saul Crossman, Miss Erna Baker, Miss Mary MacCaull, Miss Jean MacCaull, Miss Muriel Jardine, Mr. Lorne MacCaull, Mr. Courtney MacKay, Mrs. Willard Green and Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacMurdo.

down the present kitchen on the west end of the hall and build an addition twice as large and raised to the roof, thus giving a lodge room for the brethren. A number of other improvements were suggested and after a dainty lunch had been served, the meeting adjourned till June.

Perhaps the largest gathering of all was that of Pembroke Institute on Thursday evening, the 21st inst., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George T. McClure. While the constituency of this Institute is small, the attendance of the members showed a high average and with the addition of several visitors from the other Institutes and a few others made a good meeting and some business was transacted. After the regular meeting, there was a social hour, when several musical selections on the organ were given by the Misses Bears and Currie and all the audience joined in community and patriotic singing. A serviceable lunch was given by the hostess and the pleasant meeting was then brought to a close by singing Auld Lang Syne. Taken altogether these organizations of women fill a large place in the community and contribute in no small way to the comfort and sociability of our people and a wider field is open for them in the future than ever in the past. May their power increase.

A Wild West show was presented in the Orange Hall here on Friday evening, the 22nd inst., to an appreciative and interested audience.

Rev. P. W. and Miss Currie attended the designation service of Miss Elizabeth MacDougall, in the Presbyterian Church at Wood Islands on Monday evening, the 25th inst and report a very interesting and successful time and an audience that taxed the seating capacity of the building.

The many friends of Rev. Alastair Murray, of Caledonia, who has been here on different occasions, are very sorry to learn that Mrs. Murray is at present in the Hospital at Charlottetown and sympathize deeply with them.

Mrs. Ben Richards, whose serious and tedious illness was noted in these columns lately, passed away on Tuesday morning at 8.30. The funeral was held Thursday, May 28th to the Peters Road Presbyterian Church.

Whit Sunday and Empire Sabbath came together on May 24th this year, an unusual event and a very appropriate discourse was given by the pastor in the local Presbyterian Church and then service begun with the National Anthem, was closed by singing of Kipling's Recessional. Such a service once in a year is none too often as people are apt to forget their privileges.—M.

Residents of Elmsdale were very sorry to see the barn of Alex White burned to the ground recently. Although the fire occurred in the early morning, fortunately no stock was lost.

On the evening of May 19th, the Greenmount people brought their play "The Path Across the Hill" to the hall here. It was well acted and much enjoyed by all present.

The recent holiday brought again to our midst, several of our students and teachers, John Matthews, Winston Currie, James Currie, and Willard O'Brien arrived from P. W. C., Charlottetown, while Miss Olive Johnston, Miss Linda Currie and Mr. William Wallace came from the schools, where they teach to spend the week end here.

On Friday last, Mr. Bruce Currie returned from the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, where he underwent treatment for a fracture and dislocated bone. He reports that the treatment and care received there was splendid and he speaks very favorably of the ability and efficiency of the nursing staff.

The body of Miss Georgia Oliver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Oliver, of South Kildare, was brought home from the United States for burial on Friday last. The deceased was only twenty-two years of age, and although there are several boys in the family, she was the only daughter. The funeral service took place on Sunday afternoon at her home and the remains were then laid to rest in the Nazarine Cemetery, Elmsdale. Rev. Mr. Dixon, of Oxford, N. S., conducted the service which was very largely attended. To the bereaved family goes out the sympathy of the whole community in the loss of a loved daughter and sister.—E.

FEDERATION IDEA
HAILED BY WOMEN
OF 14 COUNTRIES

MONTREAL, May 29. (By the Canadian Press)—Armchair philosophers and "experts" may shake their heads over economic depression, but something more active is being undertaken by the business and professional women of the European countries, who have seen in the present state of affairs the best of reasons for banding themselves together for co-operative effort. Miss Dorothy Heneker, of this city, president of the Canadian Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs and secretary of the International Federation, returned recently from Europe after a tour of several months' duration during which she visited fourteen countries and carried out organization work which she describes as having had extraordinary satisfactory results.

"I met very great enthusiasm for the federation idea," said Miss Heneker when interviewed. Possibilities for international co-operation between women were unlimited, she felt. International action was admittedly the only solution for world problems and the European women had been quick to realize it and do all in their power to further the movement.

From Miss Heneker's statements, it appeared that the problems most to the fore in Europe are three: First how to solve the dilemma of economic depression; second, will Soviet Russia's five-year plan succeed or fail, and in either case what will be the result on the rest of the world? Thirdly, the political situation in Spain, and what may be the outcome.

Opinion in Europe was that the downfall of the monarchy in Spain was inevitable, but that it was unfortunate that it should have occurred at a time when the world's equilibrium was already too greatly disturbed.

The countries visited by Miss Heneker were England, Belgium, France, Switzerland, Australia, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Finland, Norway and Holland. New branches were established in a number of countries as a result of her visit, in Switzerland, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Hungary—which has 1,600 women organized in several groups—Poland, both in Gracow and Warsaw, Sweden, Finland and at Oslo, Norway. Finland has an enthusiastic group organized in Helsingfors, which is planning an organization that will cover the whole country said Miss Heneker.

MONTREAL GIRL PLAYED OPPOSITE ARLISS RECENTLY

MONTREAL, May 29. (Canadian Press)—Amateur theatricals proved a stepping stone to higher things for Miss Eleanor Stuart Nichol, a native Montreale, who appeared here recently with a New York company in the comedy "Death Takes a Holiday."

Miss Nichol shortened her name to Eleanor Stuart when she followed the lure of the footlights. Graduating from a private girls' school in Montreal, Miss Nichol, took small parts in amateur theatricals, studied dramatics at New York and Paris, invaded the English theatre with a road company, and then attained Broadway, playing opposite George Arliss in the "Merchant of Venice" several times as understudy to Peggy Wood.
