Aid Elderly Couple Who Lose Home By Fire

Neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Gallant of Richmond who lost their home and all their furniture and clothing in a fire on Sunday afternoon, January 30th, are rallying around to give what assistance they can towards getting this elderly couple re-established. A collection of clothing and household necessities has been taken up and it is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Gallant plan to resume housekeeping in a vacant house near their farm. Some of the men in the vicinity are hauling lumber from the woods for them as well.

Fire was discovered suddenly in the upstairs of the house on the Sunday afternoon while the family were sitting in a downstairs room. It spread rapidly and almost nothing was saved from the building. Fortunately the outbuildings did not catch, it is understood that there is a small amount of insurance on the house.

The couple live about two miles from Richmond village.-S.
