

MAXIMS
OF A
MERE MAN

A man's fate is his own temper;
man is not the creature of circumstances, circumstances are the creatures of men.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

The People's Paper Read by Everybody

Covers Prince Edward Island Like the Dew

MAXIMS
OF A
MERE MAN

A cultured person is one in whom the traditional experience, knowledge and feeling of the race has been made personal possessions.

Charlottetown Guardian, Founded 1887.
Charlottetown Guardian Two Cents.

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, MONDAY, APRIL 4, 1932

8 PAGES

Annual Subscription: Delivered $3.00.
By Mail Canada Ltd. U. S. & $1.50.

Doughty Captain Brings Damaged Steamer To Port

Collier, Loaded With Coal Fights Winning Battle With Elements After Grounding On Reef.

(Canadian Press)
QUINCY, Mass., April 3.—The doughty Captain Ernest Pearce of Portland, Me., drove his damaged steamer with its load of twenty-eight human beings and 4,000 tons of coal safely to dock today.
Captain Pearce admitted, however, that if he had had 10 more miles to go, he might not have made it. Throughout the night the coast guard cutter Acushnet hovered near the Collier, having accompanied the

(Continued on Page 3)

Arrests Made In Laundry Theft

Two Local Young Men Apprehended On Saturday In Connection With $500.00 Robbery — One Makes Verbal Confession — Over $400.00 Recovered.

Two local men were arrested on Saturday afternoon by the City Police in connection with the robbery late Friday night or early Saturday morning at Sterns' Laundry, when nearly $500 in cash was taken from the safe in the office.
The first party when arrested, confessed, implicating his partner, who was arrested a few hours later.
In all, over $400 of the stolen money has been accounted for. $132.50 was found after a lengthy search by Officers Higgins and Doyle. It was carefully buried in the cellar at the home of one of the men. Other sums were found hidden in the kitchen and in a snowbank in the vicinity of the house.

Money was also found on their persons when arrested.
Part of the money had been spent at various stores, including $50 spent for an overcoat and suit.
Entrance was effected through a rear door which was unlocked.
The safe, which is also said to have been open was left locked by the thieves and the loss was not discovered until the safe was opened on Saturday morning. Notes and coin only were taken, a quantity of checks and twenty-five cent scrips were left.
The prisoners will appear in Court this morning.

Secret Mission Re Kidnapping

(Associated Press)
SOUTHAMPTON, England, April 3.—Major Charles H. Schoeffel arrived here today on a secret mission for the New Jersey State Police in connection with the kidnapping of Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr. Although his name had been omitted from the passenger lists, he was aboard the Mauretania when she docked.

More Trouble Threatens In South America

SALTA, Argentina, April 3.—(A.P.)—The newspaper Intelligencia quoted what it said were "reliable reports" today that Bolivian troops were gathering in the Gran Chaco territory in a threat to settle with arms the dispute with Paraguay over possession of that region.
Bolivia was said in the reports to be determined soon to settle the dispute over the Gran Chaco, which both countries claim, either through diplomatic channels or by force.
Detachments of 500 to 1,000 Bolivian soldiers were reported to be moving constantly from several garrisons to the Chaco region, where 80 army aeroplanes already had been concentrated.

Telegraphers Will Take Cut

MONTREAL, Que., April 3.—(By the Canadian Press)—The following official statement was issued here today:
"Negotiations have been satisfactorily concluded between the committee of the commercial telegraphers and clerks of the Canadian Pacific Railway system and the company for a reduction of ten per cent in rates of pay for a period of one year as from May 1, next."

*Lion Cake Sale Saturday, April 4-11.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, COMING EVENTS, MEETINGS, ETC

*Guild Rummage Sale St. James Hall next Saturday at 8.30. 1846-4-4-21.
*Remember, concert in Christian Church Schoolroom, Tuesday, April 5. 1852-11
*The earlier you start the less your insurance will cost. Insurance is organized thru reduced to a science which protects while you save. Let me arrange some for you. J. A. Moore, Mgr., Sun Life. March 31-41.
*Hunter River Club loading Thursday, April 7th and every Thursday until further notice. Stock must be listed. Sucker Pigs wanted for shipment on and after April 15th. Russell Nicholson, Secretary. 1822-4-2-21.
*The ratpayers of Newton School, Lot 28, district No. 91, are requested to settle their school taxes before April 31, 1932. After that date other means will be taken. By order of trustees. W. P. McKenna, Secretary. April 4-31. 130th.

ASTONISHING NARRATIVE ON GANGLAND

Chicago District Attorney Lays Bare Inner Workings Of Capone Gangsters.

(Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—The astonishing narrative before a United States Senate Committee by the man who prosecuted Al Capone of the gangster's under-cover workings is being given a thorough going-over in Congress.
Not only the testimony of District Attorney George E. Johnson of Chicago have a decisive effect upon the nomination of Judge James H. Wilkerson of Chicago to the Circuit Court, but other ramifications with a view of breaking gangland's power are being discussed.

Judge Wilkerson, in connection with whose nomination Johnson was summoned, sentenced Capone to 11 years in the penitentiary. In so doing, he overthrew an agreement by Johnson, upon which the prosecutor said he consulted Attorney

(Continued on Page 7)

THE COMING CONFERENCE

Ottawa Parley Spoken Of In England As The New Dispensation In British History, States High Commissioner.

(Canadian Press)
TORONTO, Ont., April 3.—G. Howard Ferguson, Canadian High Commissioner to Great Britain, back from England for appearance at his own request before the Senate Beuharnois committee, today told interviewers "on every hand it is said that since the reformation there has been nothing of so much

News Briefs

ROME, April 3.—Foreign Minister Dino Grandi will leave Rome tomorrow to attend the four-power Danubian conference in London on Wednesday.
ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., April 3.—One of the largest gatherings St. John's city has seen for many years attended the burial services for Mayor C. J. Howlett yesterday afternoon.
PARIS, April 3.—Maurice Grisselle, French heavyweight, stopped Angus MacDonald of Winnipeg in less than two minutes of the first round of their match at the Palais Des Sports tonight.
KINGSTON, Jamaica, April 3.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Henry Holgate, Canadian planter, shot and killed himself on his Serge Island estate Friday night. He was the son of a Canadian engineer.
(Special to the Guardian)
LONDON, April 2.—Great Britain has by no means adopted a permanent policy of protection, Viscount Philip Snowden, of Ickorahaw, told the International Free Trade Conference today.

Highlanders At St James

THE KING'S LEVEE

Brilliantly clad warriors still lend color to King George's levees. Here are Major-General Neville John Gordon Cameron (LEFT), and Captain Gilroy, of the Cameron Highlanders, leaving St. James Palace after a morning's levee.

Will Not Sever Link With Empire

Free State May Abolish Oath But The Gov't. Contends That This Can Be Done Without Violation Of The Treaty Itself.

(By George Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff Writer)
DUBLIN, Irish Free State, April 3.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The Free State Government of President Eamon De Valera tonight was said to contemplate no severance of the link between this country and the British Commonwealth of nations as a result of its proposals to abolish the oath of allegiance to the Crown and to withhold payment of land annuities from the British treasury.
Usually well informed circles here took it for granted that, when the Government's reply to Great Britain's note warning against possible

(Continued on Page 3)

Very Busy Week Expected In The Federal House

(Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, Ont., April 3.—The Budget, a statement on the Beuharnois situation by Premier R. B. Bennett, and the Gibb report on Canadian harbors will feature the present week in the House of Commons. In addition there will be the evidence of G. Howard Ferguson, Canadian High Commissioner in London before the Senate Beuharnois committee.
The Dominion Cabinet met twice on Saturday when, it is understood, the Government's attitude in regard to the $900,000 debenture interest payment of Beuharnois was under consideration. Premier Bennett told the House on Friday that he expected to make a statement regarding the whole situation tomorrow. Some of the Beuharnois officials were in Ottawa over the week-end.
The Cabinet also considered the

(Continued on Page 7)

ELECTION CAMPAIGN OPENS IN GERMANY

Three Cornered Race For President Of Republic — Disorders Reported In Berlin.

(By John A. Bouman, Associated Press Staff Writer)
BERLIN, April 3.—(A.P.)—Election fireworks and disorders began in Germany today almost on the stroke of noon when President Von Hindenburg's decree of truce for the Easter period came to an end. Adolf Hitler, the Nazi leader, and foremost opponent of the President in the final election on April 10, mounted a rostrum at Leipzig immediately after noon, and declared for law and order before an audience of 80,000.
Speaking for the aged President, Adam Stegerwald, Minister of Labor in Chancellor Heinrich Brüning's Cabinet, spoke at Breslau, declaring that the actions of the Nazis belied their words when they said

(Continued on Page 3)

Member Of British House Found Dead

LONDON, April 3.—(A.P.)—Edward Majoribanks brilliant young Conservative member of Parliament from the Eastbourne division of East Sussex, was found shot to death last night in the home of his stepfather, Lord Hailsham, near Hailsham, Sussex. He had been ill and suffering from insomnia.
News of the death of the young author and politician, who was one of the tallest and best-looking young men in the House of Commons, caused a sensation in social and political circles.
It was reported that a gun was found beside the body in the billiard room of Lord Hailsham's home.
The young man had been working very hard of late, and among other things he was writing a life of Lord Carson.

Majoribanks was 32 years old, the son of Archibald John Majoribanks and the former Myssie Brown. Mrs. Majoribanks later married Douglas McGarel Hogg, who later became Lord Hailsham.
Young Majoribanks was educated at Eton and Christ Church, Oxford, where he attained many high scholastic honors, and was called to the bar in 1924. He was elected to Parliament in 1926 and was returned in the general election of last year with a majority of 26,000 votes.

Dangerous Use Of Radium

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—(A.P.)—The death of Eben M. Byers was used yesterday by Dr. Paul B. Dunbar, assistant chief of the United States food and drug administration, as a means of warning the public of this country against indiscriminate taking of radium preparations without proper medical advice.
Byers, a wealthy Pittsburg iron manufacturer, died in New York after taking a radioactive water over a period of two years.
"We were afraid something like this would happen," Dr. Dunbar said. "In 1928 we made a survey of the many radium products on the market and began issuing warnings to the public. Some of these made grossly exaggerated curative claims and we proceeded against them."
"I feel that taking any preparation containing radium is a pretty dangerous thing and should not be used without competent medical advice."

Old Landmarks At St. Eleanors Razed To Ground

Dwelling And Store Of F. W. Cannon And Dwelling Of J. H. C. Creswell Totally Destroyed By Fire Yesterday Morning — Origin Unknown.

(Special to The Guardian)
Two old landmarks at the cross roads at St. Eleanors were erased by fire yesterday morning when Mr. J. H. C. Creswell's house and Mr. F. W. Cannon's store and dwelling house were burned to the ground. The fire started in the upper part of Mr. Cannon's store and was first noticed by Miss Doris Bernard as she was coming down the road shortly after nine o'clock. Mr. Creswell's house is right on the corner of the cross roads and was a very old landmark. He said they had finished breakfast and were sitting talking when they noticed the windows darken up. On looking out they saw flames issuing from the roof of Cannon's store just twenty feet to the south of their house. There was a heavy gale blowing from the south and so rapidly did the fire spread that neither the Creswells or Cannons had time to save very much. A little furniture

(Continued on Page 7)

RAIL ORDER FOR SYDNEY

SYDNEY, N. S., April 3.—(By the Canadian Press)—Provision for a rail order for the Sydney steel plant will be contained in the Federal estimates to be brought down this week, according to word brought back from Halifax today by Mayor William Fitzgerald, whose informant was Finlay MacDonald, M. P., for Cape Breton south and city solicitor.

Four - Power Conference Will Support Adolf Hitler

(By Frank H. King, Associated Press Staff Writer)
LONDON, April 3.—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald after a preliminary conversation with Premier Andre Tardieu of France tonight announced that the four-power conference on Wednesday will include the whole range of the European crisis, including disarmament, debts and reparations.

LINDBERGH'S LEAVE HOME UNEXPECTEDLY

(Copyright, 1932, by the Associated Press)
HOPEWELL, N. J., April 3.—It was learned from a reliable source that Col. Charles A. Lindbergh left his Sourdland mountain home estate last night for the first time since the kidnapping of his son March 1 and early tonight had not returned home. The same source said the Colonel departed by his own automobile.
It also was understood that Mrs. Lindbergh and her mother, Mrs. Dwight Morrow, had left the estate during today, but details of their trip were not known.

Thirteen Have Narrow Escape

(Canadian Press)
HALIFAX, N. S., April 3.—Five men and eight women, residents of Woodlawn, near Dartmouth, had a thrilling experience and escape last night when the bus operated by Murray Biggar of Woodlawn, in which they were driving to a party, left the road and plunged through thin ice into ten feet of water. All were rescued, but the bus was completely submerged. A blow-out caused the accident.

Record & Forecast of the Weather

METEOROLOGICAL OFFICE, Toronto, Ont., April 3.
Minimum and maximum temperatures:
Dawson 25-34
Vancouver 40-48
Edmonton 24-48
Banff 23-47
Winnipeg 18B-32
Toronto 21-32
Ottawa 22-38
Montreal 26-36
Quebec 26-36
Saint John 36-44
Halifax 32-50
SYNOPSIS
Pressure is high over the Great Lakes and low in the Gulf of St. Lawrence with an extensive depression centred in the Mackenzie Valley. The weather has been mostly fair and somewhat colder in Ontario and Quebec, and mild with some light local snow or rain in Saskatchewan and Alberta. Temperature is rising rapidly in Manitoba.
FORECASTS
Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence Valleys: Moderately northerly winds; fair and rather cold.
Gulf and North Shore: Fresh northwesterly winds; colder with snowflurries.
Maritime East and West: Fresh to strong winds, shifting to northwest and becoming colder, some light snow or rain.
High tide this afternoon at 10:05 and tonight at 10:14.
Sun sets this evening at 6:31 and

MOST ANY BODY CAN BE GENEROUS WITH OTHER PEOPLE'S MONEY

tomorrow morning at 5:31.
New moon Tuesday, April 5, 0:21 P. M.
Summerside tide eighteen minutes later than Charlottetown.
GAS FERRY SCHEDULE
Week days—Leaves Bolden daily 8:15 a.m. and 1:40 a.m.
Leaves Summerside daily: 10:30 and 2:55 p.m.

"Eat More Bread, It's Healthy, When Baked With ROBIN HOOD FLOUR"