SCHOOL EXAMINATION

The semi-annual examination of Palmer Road North School was held on December 20th, in presence of a vast number of rate-payers and visitors. The pupils were examined by their teacher and others and by their ready answers and pleasing manner showed they were receiving a thorough training under the skillful management of their teacher, Miss Annie Cadigan. Much credit is due to Miss Cadigan for the change she has made in our school. The discipline which was lacking for several years, is now up to the standard. After the pupils were examined in various subjects, a well prepared programme of songs and dialogues was rendered by the pupils. Then Santa Claus called and treated all to good things. Two well worded addresses were then read one in English the other in French to the teacher by Mr. Cyril McCue and Miss Evelyn Arsenault, and she was presented with a lovely present by little Miss Winnifrid McCue, to which the teacher replied in fitting words and thanked her pupils for their kindness. Speeches were then given by Mr. John Clark and others, all expressed themselves as well satisfied with the work done by the teacher and pupils. The examination closed by singing the National Anthem.

The address was as follows:—
Miss Annie Cadigan.
Dear teacher:—
The Gladness Christmas Tide is at hand when we commemorate the coming into the world of our dear Saviour. All over the world joy is mingled with sadness, people rejoice because peace reigns once more after a long dreadful war, but many a heart is sorrowing for dear ones who shall never return.

We have thought it our duty dear teacher at this season to present you our Christmas Greetings and our best wishes for the New Year, you have spent but a few months in our school but we already have learned to love you dearly, we have found in you a kind teacher and a loving friend, you have encouraged us when our tasks were difficult and bestowed praise when we succeeded, you have made our studies easier for us and coming to school is no longer a penance but a pleasure. We know now from experience why your former pupils loved you so much and were so sad when you left them. Hoping to have you with us for a long, long time, we thank you sincerely for all your kindness for us and your interest in our behalf and pray that Christmas will bring you much gladness. Please accept this little gift from your loving pupils.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

A very delightful evening was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Weymouth Street, where a number of relatives gathered to welcome home their son, Pte. Duncan Stewart, of the R. C. R., who arrived home Tuesday. An address was read by Mr. F. P. Duffy to the young hero and a purse of gold presented him,—to which he replied in fitting remarks.

The remainder of the evening was enjoyed in games, songs, etc. The singing of W. Thorne and F. P. Duffy and the piano playing by the young ladies was a delightful event of the evening. Pte. Stewart has many dear friends in this city who are glad to see him home again, and the esteem in which he is held was shown by the large gathering which crowded his home last evening to welcome him back home. Following is a copy of the address:

Pte. Duncan Stewart, Charlotte-

town:—
"We your friends take this opportunity to heartily welcome you home from the battle torn fields of France and Flanders and to assure you that we well appreciate the noble sacrifices you have made in the cause of freedom and justice. That you have come back to resume your civil life in full measure of health and strength, having come through the war unscathed is most reassuring and we hope that you may be spared for many, many years of happiness among your home people.

"Though you have not been with us at many of our social gatherings we have never forgotten you, and have always looked forward to your home coming.

"As a token of our esteem we ask you to accept this gift which is but a small reminder of the many good wishes we would shower on you.

Signed on behalf of your friends
F. P. DUFFY

THOUGHTFUL WIFE

Husband—"My dear, do you know it is the fashion now to have a big clock at the head of the stairs?"

Wife—"Yes, I know; but ours is not going there."

"Why not?"
"A clock at that point is not necessary. When you come home late, I shall always be at the head of the stairs to tell you what time it is."

A Child Gets Cross, Sick and Feverish When Constipated

LOOK, MOTHER! IF TONGUE IS COATED CLEAN LITTLE LIVER AND BOWELS.

If your little one's tongue is coated, it is a sure sign the stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When your child is cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if it feverish, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown up plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

May be Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—This Letter Proves It.

West Philadelphia, Pa.—"During the thirty years I have been married, I have been in bad health and had several attacks of nervous prostration until it seemed as if the organs in my whole body were worn out. I was finally persuaded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made a well woman of me. I can now do all my housework and advise all ailing women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I will guarantee they will derive great benefit from it."—Mrs. FRANK FITZGERALD, 25 N. 41st Street, West Philadelphia, Pa.

There are thousands of women everywhere in Mrs. Fitzgerald's condition, suffering from nervousness, backache, headaches, and other symptoms of a functional derangement. It was a grateful spirit for health restored which led her to write this letter so that other women may benefit from her experience and find health as she has done.

For suggestions in regard to your condition write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.

RED ROSE TEA
TEA is good tea

WE were among the first to put up tea in sealed packages.
We were the first to use automatic electric weighing machines so as to insure accurate weights.
We were the first to make known the qualities of the now world-famous ASSAM teas.
And we are now the first to adopt a new package for the better protection of these fine quality teas.
The lead package has served its purpose well for generations, but it was easily broken or torn, allowing not only a loss of tea from the package but exposing the tea to the air, odors and dust that it was so necessary to protect the tea against.
Our new package—the waxed board carton—is stronger, more secure and more completely air tight; altogether the best container for tea that has yet been devised.
