THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN
 Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.

Miss Jessie McDougall, Moncton, has returned from a visit to this Province.

Mrs W. H. Clark and Miss Doris of Sussex have returned from a visit to Albany, P. E. I.

All should remember the play in the Opera House on Sept 5th, in aid of the Charlottetown Hospital.

Miss Florence Dickinson of W. C. Turner's has arrived home after having spent a most enjoyable vacation with her brother George in Amherst, N. S.

Mrs Albion H. Down and children, Medford, Mass., who have spent the past two weeks at J. Ballen's, Waterville, is now visiting at her old home in Earncliffe.

Among the outward passengers from this City to Halifax yesterday were W. T. Huggan, L. R. Unsworth, Mrs. Henry Hooper and Miss Cecelia McMillan, Miss Lily Trenaman. Others outward were Frank Hennessey to Tignish, James and Mrs Waddell to Winnipeg, Miss Margaret Toole to Howland, Me., and Harry Winchester to Pictou.

Rev A. B. Wade, formerly of the Christian Church, Montague, and who has taken over the services in the Central Christian Church, City, during Rev J. F. Floyd's vacation, was taken suddenly ill on the street on Wednesday last, and was unable to fill his appointment on Sunday. P. J. James preached most acceptably at the evening service.

The Guardian has much pleasure in announcing that the invalid's chair ordered for Miss Mary Campbell of this City, a rheumatic invalid, has been received. Mrs William Kennedy, who was instrumental in getting the chair, faithfully giving her time and energy, did all the collecting necessary and is deeply grateful for the ready response and sympathy with which she met. The chair is one of the finest ever imported to this City and is to be placed at the disposal of those needing such a chair through the P. E. I. Hospital, after the present patient has finished with it. Such a noble work as Mrs Kennedy has succeeded in, cannot too highly be spoken of and is certainly worthy of copying by others and thus making sick and afflicted patients happier while on this earth.

The concert, pie and candy social promoted by Miss Margaret Furness to clear of the balance of debt owing on the renovations of Vernon River Methodist Church was in every way a success. Mrs (Dr) Rogerson kindly acted as accompanist, Miss Furness singing in her accustomed charming style. Miss Lena Vanderstine also sang, Miss Isabelle McLeod and Master Willie MacLeod gave great pleasure by their singing and reciting. George Beers sang a patriotic song in first-class style. Alexander Gillis also sang. Milton Furness recited splendidly the burial of Dundee and in response to an rapturous encore gave a Habitant piece from Drummond. On motion of L. C. Hayden J. P., seconded by E. Lea, all who helped were heartily thanked. Rev George Orman presided and contributed a reading and J. A. Macdonald kindly auctioned off the pies.

A notice appeared in The Guardian recently of the death of Richard Weeks. At the time of his death the deceased was a resident of Watsonville, Cal. The late Mr Weeks was born at Fredericton, Feb 6, P. E. Island, (on the homestead now owned by his youngest living brother John Weeks) in the year of 1835 and at the time of his death was there fore seventy five years of age. Early in life Mr Weeks gave his attention to carpenter work but later became much interested in architecture and after his departure from the Island home many years ago, he contracted for and erected many fine buildings. The firm name was "R Weeks & Sons, Contractors and Builders." Under this firm name extensive building operations were carried on. Mr Weeks was a devout member of the Christian church and deeply concerned in what made for the best interests of the community. His wife was Miss Bagnall, Clyde Mills, Ne Glasgow, P. E. I. His surviving brothers and sisters are: Henry, Stephen and John Weeks of Fredericton, Robert of Granville, Mrs Robert Haslam, Springfield, Lot 67, Mrs (Hon) John Balderston, North Wiltshire and Mrs John Deacon also of North Wiltshire.
