NEW LONDON—The movement in connection with Women's Institutes is spreading, as shown by the organization in still another district. The women of New London held a meeting in the Hall on Wednesday afternoon, when the Supervisor explained the plan of Women's Institutes. The work undertaken is two-fold in its aim—the improvement of the home and the upbuilding of community life. The advantages of such societies for women. All these points were dealt with in detail. It was finally decided to organize and the following officers were elected for the New London Women's Institute—Directors: President—Mrs. Arch. Campbell, Vice-President—Mrs. Harlan Found, Secretary—John Lockhart, Mrs. C. McGregor, Miss Margaret Stevenson; Treasurer, Mrs. Walter Found. It was decided to hold the first regular meeting in the Hall on Thursday afternoon, July 17th, when the subject of Preserving will be discussed by the members. It is hoped that all who are interested in this seasonable topic will attend, whether or not they are regular members. All are welcome.

(From Yesterday's Evening Guardian) ARRIVES ON TIME—The Northumberland arrived in Charlottetown at her scheduled docking time 8 o'clock last night.

NAME OMITTED—In the list of those who had secured diplomas from the St. John Ambulance Association at Charlottetown, the name of Mr. Cleaver McLean was inadvertently omitted. Mr. McLean is employed in the Carpenter's Shop of the P. E. I. Railway and has taken the full course of study successfully.

ANOTHER TREE—In the Morning Guardian of the 17th, inst., there appears a biography of a "Monstrous" apple tree in the orchard of Mr. Kenneth McKay, Margate. There is another apple tree in the orchard of Mr. Samuel C. Lane, Mount Mellick, not quite so large in size, but as to age and productiveness it will equal the one owned by Mr. McKay. It was planted in the year 1820, by Mr. Lane's great-grandmother, who procured the slip from the late Major Nelson, of China Point. This year, as others, it is white with bloom.

THE ROGERS FARQUHARSON ALASKA BLUE FOX CO LTD

Capital Stock $25,000

Are you satisfied with letting your money lie idle when you can make it earn 75 to 125 p. c. in 1 year

The Blue Fox Business promises to be a very lucrative one, and in all probabilities will outclass all other Fox propositions on the market, as the animals have more to a litter and the prices are rapidly advancing.

This company has in readiness 1000 of high class "Alaska" Blue Foxes to stock the Up-To-Date Ranch which is now under construction at Bunbury on the beautiful farm of Mr. Rogers Farquharson.

The estimated financial returns to the investor from 10 p. s. of these foxes is from 75 to 125 p. c. in one year, as they have from 8 to 12 to a litter, and putting it down at a very conservative estimate at 5 foxes to a pair, which would mean 25 p. s. at the market price to day at $1,300 per pair for breeding purposes. This you will readily see will net a large dividend to the shareholder.

The Company is Capitalized at $25,000, of which $15,000 has already been subscribed, and $10,000 is now offered to the public at $100 per share, par value. Payment of 20 p. c. with application, and the balance on the 1st September. For full particulars apply to any of the following Provisional Directors.

Mr. George J. Rogers, President, Charlottetown.
 Mr. Rogers Farquharson, General Manager, Bunbury P. E. I.
 Mr. Geo. J. Moran, Secy. Treasurer, Charlottetown.
